

$12,601 in Bonds Sold at Senior High During Campaign

In the recent War Bond drive, which netted a total of $12,601.75 (cash amount), Elmo Sellars, local senior and active member of room 305, won the $10 prize with $4,593.25 in bonds to his credit. The campaign, conducted by the student council, under the direction of Miss Sara Mims, was successful beyond expectations, according to an announcement yesterday. During the week of December 7-14, nearly half of the student body took an active part in the intensive campaign for a double triple-threat drive, which included two jeeps, two amphibious jeeps and two 'Grasshopper' airplanes. Our goal was reached and exceeded by nearly $200.

Closely following Sellars was Harry Turner, room 305, with a grand sum of $3,243.75. Turner and Sellars are both members of 305, the winning homeroom, which accumulated $7,953.35 in bonds and stamps. Others with high totals were: Colon McDonald, $900; Mary Jo Usher, $393.75; Avert Holland, $376; Jane Holt, $225 and Athena Pappas $208.45. In student participation, Room 202 had 80 persons to purchase bonds or stamps which is better than an 80 per cent cooperation.

Credit for the success of the drive is due to the support of the committee, which included Irwin Smallwood, Mar-

(Continued on Page Seven)

Citizenship Honor Roll For 6 Weeks Released

Every six weeks two good citizens are chosen for the citizenship honor roll from every homeroom. These students, a boy and a girl, are selected on the basis of character, leadership and service.

Those who have been designated for this six weeks are Jimmy Green and Imogene Hammer, room 2; Stark Dillard and Mary Jane Doubles, room 3; Jack Brewer and Frances Barwick, room 4; Bill Bentley and Martha Boggan, room 7; Arthur McIver and Patsy Lowe, room 8; Sara Foster and Ed Gentry, room 9; Freddie Clapp and Marion Cox, room 10; and Jerry Shuping and Barbara Ann Wilson, room 14.

Kemp Foster and Dorothy Isley, room 102; Max Morgan and Margaret Motley, room 200; Jack Owen and Lucy Nance, room 201; Joe Warner and Nancy Lee Tyson, room 202; Ed Mabry and Margaret Parker, room 203; J. K. Stone and Annie Charles Smith, room 204; Bill Kaupschmidt and Margaret Hudson, room 206; Harold Schiffman and Louise Rogers, room 300.

Adger Williams and Betty Winecoff, room 301; Jimmy Truitt and Sally Waddell, room 302; Dick Eichhorn and Maude Dixon, room 303; Charles Tate and Nina Smith, room 304; Elmo Sellars and Doris Purcell, room 305; Ed Alexander and Jean Barry, room 306; Gilmer Huffine and Margaret Hughes, room 307; Kermit Coble and Barbara Clegg, room 313; Louis Thacker and Allene Parks, room 315; Amos Lashley and Billie McNeeley, room 317.

Schopp and McSwain Chosen For Positions

John Schopp and Dovie McSwain were selected as Junior Rotarian and Junior Business Woman for December. John attended the meetings of the Rotary club and Dovie attended a dinner at the Greensboro Business Women's club.

A Junior Rotarian and Business Woman are designated each month. Those previously chosen to hold these positions this year were Howard Morris, Irwin Smallwood, Ed Mabry, Allene Parks, and Jean Barry.

NATIVITY PAGEANT GIVEN TODAY

Shown above are the principals in the Christmas Pageant. Left to right, they are: Mary, Betty Fristoe; Joseph, Howard Morris, and Gabriel, Margaret Rhudy.

Christmas Dance Postponed As Flu Epidemic Prevails

Because of an unpredicted epidemic of influenza, Senior high "hep-cats" will find it necessary to swing out at their Christmas dance next year, according to Jimmy Rawlins, chairman of the dance committee, in an announcement this morning. This decision was necessitated when local students decided at a poll yesterday morning that not enough of them could attend the long-planned event.

The foregoing is not quite as bad as it sounds . . . the dance will be held next year all right, within the first two weeks when students, still full of holiday spirit, trudge sadly back to the old grind.

In order to encourage more boys to bring dates, general admission will be 50 cents both for stags and for couples.

Sponsoring the dance will be members of the football team and their dates, who will take part in the figure at intermission.

The figure will be led by Ed Mabry, captain of the team, and his date. Other members of the starting lineup and their dates will make up the rest of the figure.

The school's recreation committee, under the head of Mrs. Estelle LeGuin and student director, Jimmie Rawlins, are in charge of the dance.

Sevier, Smallwood Winners In Journalistic Contest

Senior high's entries in the annual Quill and Scroll writing contest were recently selected by Mrs. Charles Farrell and Miss Louise C. Smith, journalism adviser. Written material from both advanced and beginning journalism classes was considered; however, the three best stories came out of the advanced class.

The writing was done in three different fields, with the topics already made out from which the participants could choose. The entries are: an editorial entitled "Pearl Harbor, Bataan, Corregidor—Symbols For Which We Are Fighting," written by John Sevier; a feature, "My Place in the Post War World," by Irwin Smallwood, and an advanced story on a sport event, also written by Irwin Smallwood.

By being selected to enter their material, Irwin and John have a chance at $500, which is the prize in the national contest.

Seventh Period Studies Provide Characters For Annual Yuletide Program; Mims, Walker, Blackburn Have Charge of Direction

Climaxing a pre-holiday week of events at Senior high, the annual Christmas pageant which stars Betty Fristoe and Howard Morris as Mary and Joseph, and Margaret Rhudy as the angel Gabriel, will be presented at 3 o'clock today in the school auditorium. It is under the supervision of Misses Sara Mims and Lily Walker.

High School Students Organize Penguin Club

Previously, only seniors have sponsored the pageant but this year both juniors and seniors combined to prepare the program.

Virginia Lowman, Harry Johnson and Betty Lou Moore head the committee which recently completed its plans for the opening of the Penguin club, which will be a series of informal parties to be held at the Y. M. C. A. every Saturday night.

The first in the group was held last Saturday night between 7:30 and 11, with an open invitation to all senior and junior high school students to attend.

The Girl Reserve clubs of the city will be sponsors for the club, which will be similar to the open house affairs that were so popular last summer.

The clubroom will include a snack bar, nickelodeon for dancing and games, all in one large room on the third floor of the Y.

Tickets for these parties will be sold by any of the following representatives from the schools of the city: Lewis Thacker and Virginia Lowman, Senior high school; Gloria Farnell and James Alexander Bryant, Central Junior high school; Ted Hughes and Betty Lou Moore, Gillespie school; and Virginia Gregg and Nolly Vereen, Lindley junior high school.

The senior advisers for the group are Miss Carrie Phillips, chairman of the Girl Reserves committee; Miss Sara Forrest Thompson, Girl Reserves secretary, and Mrs. C. E. Baxter, a member of the Girl Reserves committee.

Quill and Scroll Makes Plans To Initiate New Members

Initiation of four new members of the Quill and Scroll national honor society will take place next month. Material has been submitted by Margaret Barnes, Beverly Bell, Kay Hunt, Leon Hayes, Juanita Kimery, Laurena Booker, Ada Sue McBane, Sara Allison, Frank Curran. Only four of these have been chosen to become members of Quill and Scroll, but the names have not yet been disclosed.

Those in charge of the program are: Irwin Smallwood, president; Eleanor Singletary, vice president; Vaughn McAlister, treasurer; and Sue Jarvis, secretary.

Variety of Vacationing Places Indicated by Teachers Addresses Recently Announced by Principal A. P. Routh

Each year a list of the Christmas addresses of teachers here at Senior is published in High Life just before the Christmas holidays for students who wish to drop their teachers a card during the Yuletide season. This year the addresses are as follows:

Routh, A. P., 1312 Fairmont street.
Hall, Mrs. Beatrice, Rt. 2, Box 347, Greensboro.
Harvell, Miss Elizabeth, Weldon, N. C., Box 683.
Horner, Mrs. Mildred B., 153 Windemere avenue, Lansdowne, Pa.
Alton, Mrs. Grace R., 911 McGee St.
Avery, Mrs. Emma S., 311 S. Mendenhall St.
Blackburn, Mrs. Nellie, Route 2, Box 46A, Battleground Rd.
Braswell, Mrs. Callie O., 307 Tate St.

Blackmon, Miss Mary Ellen, 204 E. Dunlap St., Lancaster, S. C.
Brendle, Miss Cleo, Boonville, N. C.
Burnette, Miss Louise, 1108 Madison Ave.
Burnside, Miss Lottie, Route 6, Greensboro.
Caldwell, Miss Amy V., 521 Stirling Street.
Cansey, Miss Mozelle, 634 Asheboro Street.
Crawford, Miss Loretta, 2810 Hawthorne Ave., Richmond, Va.
Doyle, Dabney, 200 S. Spring St.
Emde, J. C. Mason, 624 N. Elm St.
Epley, Miss Katherine, Old Fort, N.C.
Farlow, Miss Gertrude, Guilford College, N. C., Route 1.
Florence, Mrs. Christine, 1012 Westover Terrace.

Hutchinson, Miss Doris, 1824 Ewing Ave., Charlotte, N. C.
Jamieson, Mrs. Eleanor, 3125 Friendly Road.
Jamieson, R. B., 3125 Friendly Rd.
Lahser, Conrad B., 3008 Collier Dr.
LeGwin, Mrs. Estelle, 500 Lake Dr.
Lesley, Miss Sarah, Lake Junaluska, N. C.
Mann, G. O., 1121 Northwood St.
McEntire, Mrs. Kathryn, Granite Falls, N. C.
McNairy, Miss Dorothy, Route 2, Box 71.
Mims, Miss Sara, 404 Walker Ave.
Mitchell, Miss Estelle, Route 2, Cleveland, N. C.
Mitchell, J. Harris, 508 Stirling St.
Moore, Miss Ida Belle, Burgaw, N.C.
(Continued on Page Eight)

Previously, only seniors have sponsored the pageant but this year both juniors and seniors combined to prepare the program.

Yancey Culton, though a junior, won the coveted role of the reader because of his fine voice and the supporting cast is as follows: the three wisemen, Douglas Lewis, Jimmy Phillips, and "Sonny" Carnes; the shepherds, Phil Feeney, Norman Leonard, Richard Hueslip, Raymond Hepler, and J. C. Crutchfield; and the soldiers, Robert Baxter and Richard Hornaday.

Others in the cast are: David Mulvey as Herod, Thomas Morgan and Joe Warner as the scribes, Stark Dillard portrays the innkeeper, with Billie McNeeley, his wife; Joe Linehan, the rich man; Billy Carr, his servant; and Dilep Edwards, Mary's mother.

Various women at the well are Dot Russell, Carolyn Pleasants, Mildred Stewart, Sara Foster, and Sylvia Lewis; angels, Jean Morgan, Dawson Millikan, Allene Parks, Mary Ellen Bernard, Pat Carberry, Jean Barry, Aileen Mateer, Carolyn Ballard, Martha Young, Barbara Wilson, Louise Coble, and Betty Sue Highfill. Esther Marie Yarbrough will serve as candle-bearer.

This pageant, which was first staged here in 1940 under the direction of Mrs. Blackburn, Miss Mims, and Miss Walker, has been considered one of the most colorful and impressive ever given here. Of course it isn't official yet but there has been some talk about making this the traditional high school pageant, to be given each year in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Blackburn has had charge of obtaining a complete set of new costumes. They were made by the home economics department under the super-

(Continued on Page Three)

Semester to End Jan. 6; Exams on Jan. 24 and 25

The semester for the fall of 1943 will end Wednesday, January 26, 1944, almost a month after the close of the year. Exams will be held Monday and Tuesday, January 24 and 25, respectively.

This will be the third time within the last two years that final exams have been given at the end of the semester. Last year they were given at the end of the fall semester and at the end of the school year in June. Final exams have been dropped by vote of the faculty to try a new method; but scholarship tended to drop and graduates in college were not doing so well. Therefore, the final exams were again introduced in Senior last January, 1943.

Classes At Vick's Are Taught By Miss Causey

Miss Mozelle Causey, of the Senior high English department, is teaching an advanced English class at the Vicks Chemical works. The classes are held every Monday and Wednesday from 4:45-5:45 in the afternoon.

This special class is held in order to improve the workers' speech and grammar. Fourteen people take an active part in the class.