Student Association

Support Your udent Association HIGGH From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

Keep Buying Those Extra Bonds

NUMBER 12

VOLUME XX

GREENSBORO SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C., MARCH 24, 1944

340 SENIORS TO RECEIVE DIPLOMAS JUNE 2 Greensboro Debaters Split Honors With Reynolds High

Alston, Culton Win Contest Here; Lewis, Glasgow Suffer Loss

Reynolds high school debaters met the Senior high debate team, represented by Edgar Alston and Yancey Culton, in the Senior high auditorium Wednesday morning at 9:30. Alston and Culton, debating on the affirmative, took the honors over the Winston two by a vote of 3 to 0.

Query for the debate was, "Resolved -That the United States should join the other nations in a program of world security, and that the association so formed should have an adequate police force."

A meet was held in Winston-Salem also, in which Dewitt Glasgow and Robert Lewis took the negative on the same subject. This clash resulted in a Winston vistory over Senior by a 3-0 vote of the judges.

Since school started, the debaters have been practicing among themselves, taking both sides of the quection. Several meets have been scheduled, but all were called off because of bad weather and sickness.

All the boys are first year debaters except Edgar Alston, who has had two years' experience. He took second place in the state class "B" debates at Wake Forest his first year on the team.

In addition to his duties at president of the debate club and star dedater, Alston won first place in the American Legion 11th district oratory contest in High Point, March 15.

Although the Senior negative team has been defeated, Alston and Culton still may compete in the next contest.

Daphne Lewis Presented In Graduating Recital

Miss Daphne Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Harry Lewis, of Greensboro, and former student of Senior high school, was presented in graduating voice recital by the Woman's college school of music last Tuesday

Pictured above are nine members of the home economics and diversified education classes at Senior high. They are, left to right, facing the camera, Louise Stockard, Leland Cox, Bernard Shepherd and Mary Terrell; with backs to camera, Sarah Karnegay, Sue Jarvis, Ellen Groome, Cora Belle Schumm and Jackie Bateman.

Clothing Conservation Topic of Discussion By Home Economics and D. E. Classes

Senior High Orchestra Plays At Assembly

Senior high schools' orchestra, under the direction of Philip Harriman, will play at the student assembly next Tuesday, March 28.

Harry Horlick's "Two Guitars" will be a stellar offering. This number was featured a few weeks ago by Phil Spitalny and his all-girl orchestra during the General Electric "Hour of Charm." Dave Rose's "Holiday for Strings" is frdm the pen of one of America's younger composers of popular music. In the program, music in the lighter vein will be used. Other numbers are "Hungarian Dance No. 5," by Brahms; "La Cummadsita," by G. H. M. Rodriguez, and "In a Monastery Garden," by Albert W. Ketelby.

According to a joint report made by Misses Cleo Brendle, Louise Burnette, Moore, Torchlight Plan For and Frances Sowell to Miss Catherine Dennis and A. S. Proctor of the State Department of Public Instruction, Raleigh, N. C., "Greensboro high school is carrying out an experiment in a series of joint Home Economics and Distributive Education classes," for the development of closer cooperation and better understanding of both consumer and retailer problems.

Plans for the joint classes were made at a conference held between the two Home Economics teachers, the Distributive Education coordinator, the state supervisors of Home Economics and Distributive Education, and the Distributive Education teacher-trainer at Woman's College. Each teacher took certain responsibilities in the program, planning carefully for student participation as much as possible. Because clothing conservation seemed to be a current problem for both customer and sale person, Miss Burnette's class in "Clothing" and Miss Sowell's Distributive Education students met jointly one period each day for a week to discuss this topic. Goal for the entire unit of study is to make it meet the needs of both groups of students. Proper occasional and necessary daily care of clothing was the topic of discussion on the first two days of the week, with occasional demonstrations of how to launder sweaters, hose, and rayon blouses. Each step was carefully explained and all questions concern

Annual College Day Program

With the annual celebration of College Day in the offing, Miss Ida Belle Moore and Torchlight are making definite plans to receive the various college representatives. All accredited four-year colleges in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, as well as some of the leading colleges in other nearby states, have been invited to send a representative.

In order that all questions eq cerning college entrance may be answered, the guests will be in the school library. In previous years, the College Day program has proved most successful. In 1941 a large registration book was made and placed in the library for the representatives. It will be there again this year for registration.

Dr. J. Clyde Turner To Preach Sermon; Committees Named

Approximately 340 seniors will take part in this year's graduation program and will receive their high school diplomas June 2 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. The annual activities will begin May 26 with the Class Day exercises and are scheduled to continue through June 2.

Rev. J. Clyde Turner will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday, May 28, at the First Baptist church on West Market street. Individual pictures of all the class of '44 will appear in a special edition of HIGH LIFE. In addition to this, the class poem, prophecy, history, last will and testament and superlatives will be announced. Definite plans have not been made yet, but there will be a graduation dance sponsored by the corecreation committee.

The various student committees, as announced by Mr. Routh, are as follows: Invitations and cards-Juanita Spencer, 304; Bob White, 302; Doris Caviness, 313; Mary Glendenning, 101; Ada Sue McBane, 317; Carolyn Pleasants, 305; Thettis Hoffner, 206; Bill Fox, 313; and Grady Allred, 306. College Day committee-Eleanor Singletary, 304; Wilbur Turrentine, 302; Laurena Booker, 313; Clyde Friddle, 101; Ada Sue McBane, 317; Margaret Rhudy, 305; Doris Loflin, 206; Phyllis Fincher, 303; and Gertrude Archer, 306. Caps and gowns-Buddy Stoffel, 304; Helen Waynick, 302; Betty Cooley, 313; Anne Goff, 101; Robert Lewis, 317; Tom Sasser, 305; Leon Hayes, 206; Claudius Dockery, 303; Ed Alston and Jim Allred, 306.

(Continued on Page Seven)

Schedule For Senior Pictures Announced

Since a contract has been made with the Meyer's studio and Senior high school to have the seniors' pictures made free of charge, the schedule for the sittings have been made. Appointments for sittings are: March 13 and 14, room 313; March 15 and 16, room 317; March 17 and 20, room 315; March 21 and 22, room 306; March 23 and 24, room 304; March 27 and 28, room 305; March 29 and 30, room 303; March 31 and April 3, room 302; April 4 and 5, room 206; and April 6 and 7, room 101.

night at 8 o'clock in the music building recital hall.

Miss Lewis, a pupil of Mrs. Elizabeth Jensen, during her four years, has sung in the college glee club and choir and been a member of the Music Education club.

Veteran Of Yank Raid On Ploesti Oil Fields Interviewed By Editor

"Well it's this way," said Tech. Sgt. Leaf Cluster, "was when we flew from William J. Murphy, former turret gunner on a B-24 Liberator, based in England who has been stationed at BTC Rumania. On our way to our objective, 10 as an aviation cadet, "when I first we passed over several small villages, got in the army air forces I wanted and the people would just stand there to be a pilot, but since gunners were staring and wave at us, as though in such demand I decided to fill in they had never seen that many planes there. However, since flying as a gun- anywhere before. It was a hard battle ner for 25 missions, including the All- all the way over the target. We came American raid on the Ploesti oil fields in at an extremely low altitude, makin Rumania, I want to learn to pilot ing the flak extremely dangerous. one of the big boys and return to the Sergeant Murphy, who was born in Buffalo, N. Y., and who has been in with great accuracy. the army for two years, made this statement when interviewed by your the planes that were left-ours was HIGH LIFE editor last week when he the only one in my squadron-kept visited Senior high school to speak to the students in the regular assembly program.

course," said Sergeant Murphy, holder of the Purple Heart, Air Medal with geant Murphy won the D.F.C. and three Oak Leaf Clusters, and the Dis-

"Why did I come back over here?" | tinguished Flying Cross with an Oak our base in Libya, across the Mediterranean, up through Yugoslovia and finally over the Ploesti oil fields in

"We could see planes all around us and they were all pasting the fields

"After the bombs were all dropped, flying north and then doubled back and flew across Italy and landed on

Malta. After repairs there we went "My most exciting mission, of on back to our base in Africa." It was on this great raid that Ser-(Continued on Page Three)

(Continued on Page Seven)

Six Girls Serve As Usherettes

From the choir and girls' chorus. six senior girls were selected as usherettes for the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra program which was held at Aycock auditorium last Friday, March 17.

Aileen Mateer, Jean Bradley and Dorothy Rives Hunter were selected from the choir along with Martha Cheek, Mary Glendenning, and Martha Boggan.

Large Number of Students Make Honor Roll for Fourth Six-Weeks

Out of the 968 persons enrolled in | ford; room 6, Margaret Anne Donald, Jean Dunivent, Nancy Fogleman, De-Senior high, 127 students meet the scholastic requirement of 90% or more Witt Glasgow; room 7, Bill Caffey, for the honor roll. Of these, fifteen Bill Chambers; room 8, Mary Ellen made special honor roll, which re-Knight; room 10, Byron Benbow, Raymond Bryant, Buren Burns, Margaret quires an average of 95. Students who Church, Lynn Cox, Eileen Curry; room received this high average were: Tommy Weisner, room 301; Barbara 14, Betty Jo Kirby; room 101, Carson Grantham, Ellen Groome, Sara Gwyn; Collins, room 10; Janice McFalls, rcom 14; Thettis Hoffner, room 206; room 102, Kemp Foster, Juanita Kim-Gertrude Archer, room 306; Max Morrey; room 200, Margaret Motley, Bill gan, room 200; Sara Foster, room 101; Stark Dillard, room 6; Richard Haisloop, Imogene Hammer, Z. N. Holler, room 2; Annie Charles Smith, room 204; Ruth Peeples, room 201; Patsy Lowe, room 8.

Ninety to ninety-five per cent was attained by the following:

Room 2: Willard Gourley, James Groseclose, Douglas Haislip, Bob Hauser; room 4, Sarah Allison, Fran- erine Ingram; room 300, Jean Petrea, ces Antrim, Barbara Bell, Frances Martha J. Rogers, Mary L. Rogers, Barwick, Jack Brantley, Jane Brad-

Moore, Jack Matlock; room 201, Lucy Nance, Athena Pappas, Eleanor Patton, Juanita Pettigrew; room 202, Alice Thacker, Martha Tucker; room 203, Ed Mabry, Don McCormick, Margaret Parker, Margaret Patterson; room 204, Louise Smith; room 206, Leon Hayes, David Hepler, Mary Catherine Hodgin, Bill Kampschmidt, Doris Loflin, Margaret Hudson, Mary Cath-(Continued on Page Six)