

'OPENING DOORS' IS CONFERENCE THEME

Magazine Sales Campaign Is Completed

Pat Anderson Leads In Individual Sales

In an announcement of the results of the magazine subscription drive, Mrs. Grace B. Wilson stated that a total of $1,389.90 was collected by GHS students. Winning the grand prize offered for the highest individual salesman is Pat Anderson with a total of $114.75.

Only two homerooms, 202 and 203, achieved a goal ($3 per person) set for each home-room. 202, Mrs. Alton's homeroom, topped this goal with a total of $203.95 and led all the other home-rooms in number of students participating. Homeroom 203 collected $150, thus achieving their goal.

These students, Pat Anderson, Marie Essa, Lowell Dryzer, Hubert Falk, Nancy Smith, Jean Brincefield, Nancy Beane, Betty Jean Pope, Jane Collison, Bill Hogshead, and Tommy Ward are the grand prize winners, the leading student salesmen.

Youth Center Gives Own Radio Program

"Youth on the Air," a radio show, produced by the Youth Center for the purpose of listening teen-aged talent to the listening public, is presented each Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Announcer Don Harrison, defines it as; "a program produced exclusively by teen-agers, for the benefit of teen-agers and for the enjoyment of all."

Origination from the stage of the Loft, the program is directed by David Breedon and Don Hardison. The show has run for six weeks and will continue the year 'round. Unlike most activities at the center, Youth on the Air is open to any person under twenty years of age. It is broadcast over radio station WGBB.

Among the features of the show are a twelve-piece band, composed almost entirely of members of the GHS band, and the Thought of the Week. A dozen roses are presented to the mother who sends the best thought, either original or quoted, to the center each week.

Auditions are held every Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Loft and any person interested in appearing on the show should be present. Singing, dramatic talent, instrumental abilities are among the qualities desired. Anyone interested in script writing, sound effects, or other related subjects should contact Miss Monsees or David Breedon, production manager.

New Books on Display in Library; Hunt To Be Honor Guest at Tea

In accordance with book week, the Senior high school library will have many new books on display from the 16-22 of November. On Wednesday afternoon, the librarians, Miss Mildred Herring and Miss Carolyn McRae, along with the student library staff are giving a tea for the faculty of Greensboro high and school librarians of the city. Miss Mabel Leigh Hunt, author of many childrens books, will be honor guest.

Miss Hunt, whose newest book is "Double Birthday Present," will be a guest of Strathgill's Book Shop during book week. Miss Hunt will speak at various schools in the city and also at Guilford college.

The girls who are on the student library staff will assist in serving the guests punch and cookies.

The new books will be of universal subjects and will not be checked out until Friday. Miss Herring suggests Shown here is a portion of the "Beat High Point Parade," one of the preliminaries to the defeat of the High Point football team Friday, November 7, by a score of 21-14. The truck is only one of the many vehicles which took part in the parade. The event was sponsored by the Senior high school cheerleaders.

(Staff Photo by Lowell Dryzer)

Plans Progressing On Stadium Project

In a mass meeting of Greensboro's Touchdown Club Monday, W. H. Holderness led a discussion about plans made for the new Senior high Stadium.

Holderness said that the committee led by Vic Higgins and John Sockwell decided to sell $100 shares of non-profit stock to raise the needed $150,000 for completing the stadium.

Agreements were passed out and members present agreed to subscribe $10,100. People are asked to mail in additional subscriptions to John Sockwell at the Bank of Greensboro.

In addition to discussion of the stadium, pictures were shown of the Duke-Georgia Tech game.

Bob McPheeters Is Prexy Of Senior Class Hi-Y Club

The recently reorganized senior class Hi-Y club has planned its first social event of the year, a hayride to be held at Guilford college tomorrow night. As its first service project of the year, the club is planning to help organize a sophomore club.

Officers of the Co-Me-An, or senior class, club are president, Bob McPheeters; vice-president, Clyde Taylor; secretary, Bill Black; treasurer, Clyde Collins, and representative to the inter-club council Brown Patterson.

Program chairman Clyde Taylor has announced that several interesting speakers have been secured for the next few meetings. In the previous meetings the club has been utilizing the talent of several of its members. Both Bill Black and Frank Klages have presented piano contributions, with Black accompanying himself with song. Jimmy and Lawrence Alsbaugh have recently been admitted to the club.

First meeting of the junior class Hi-Y club was held last Monday night. Officers elected were: president Joslin Chamberlain, vice-president Charles Collins, secretary "Sandy" Bull, and treasurer Charles Sparrow.

Memberships Sought By Junior Red Cross

The American Junior Red Cross, the students' division of the Red Cross, will hold its annual enrollment campaign in Senior high school Monday, November 17.

Last year the Junior Red Cross reached a total membership of over nineteen million.

There are many children in this country as well as overseas who are in need of aid. Veteran hospitals are desperately in need of things supplied only by the Junior Red Cross. Last week the new polio clinic here in Greensboro requested that the Red Cross assist in the decoration of the rooms.

Drive for Members Is Completed by Center

Membership drive for the Youth Center met with considerable success here, according to Weddie Huffman. The exact number and the winning home room were not known at press time.

The drive is an effort to raise the regular membership above the 1,000 mark. Monthly membership has averaged around 800, but the budget calls for at least 1,000 a month. Any paid memberships above that figure go toward a recreational fund. If sufficient membership is acquired, an effort will be made to bring "name" bands to the Loft, free of charge to members.

About 800 students, states Mr. Huffman, are regular members, and more than 20,000 have attended the Loft since it opened August 1.

School-Sponsored Paper Drive Benefits Treasury

Student Council is currently sponsoring a scrap paper drive, the proceeds of which will go to the school treasury. Newly elected sophomore president Steve Agapion, launched the drive in assembly Wednesday, October 22.

Scrap paper collected throughout the week in each homeroom will be picked up each Friday afternoon and taken to be bound and weighed by members of the committee for this drive. Committeemen and the floors they cover are: in the main building, first floor, Steve Agapion; second floor, Clyde Taylor; third floor, David Bradley; in the science building, first floor, Eddie Finch; second floor, Lawrence Alsbaugh; and in the cafeteria building, Bill Ledford.

November 20 Set As Date of Social Standards Day

By FRANCES NEWTON

The annual Social Standards Conference will be held Thursday, November 20, at this school. The theme for this year's program will be "Opening Doors." Rev. Herman Duncan is to be the keynote speaker. Dr. Ike Greer will speak to the boys assembly and Miss Ruth Shaver, the girls assembly.

Three Divisions

Social Standards day has been broken up into three main divisions; social, spiritual, and material.

Rev. Duncan, who is noted for his work with high school pupils as director of the Youth Center in Asheboro before his transfer to Concord, N. C. will have charge of the spiritual part of the program. Rev. Duncan is also a prominent scout worker. He will speak to the entire student body.

The social portion of the program has been broken up into two parts. The boys assembly with Dr. Greer, Superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage in Thomasville, as their speaker and the girls assembly with Miss Shaver, critic teacher of French at W. C. U. N. C., as the speaker.

Program Topics

The material part of the program consists of thirty sectional group meetings which have been divided equally between the boys and the girls. Topics for girls' groups and the speakers are as follows: Music—Mrs. Sidney LeBaur, Home Maker; Sports and Recreational—Miss Doris Hutchinson, Director of Physical Education at Guilford College; Religious Activities—Miss Catherine Cole, Director of Religious Education at First Presbyterian Church; Office Work—Miss Ethel Mae Angelo, Personnel officer at Sears; College—Miss Betsy Bullock, President of the student body at Woman's college; Radio—Miss Jane Grills, Director of Radio Dramatics at University of North Carolina; Medicine—Dr. Martha Doran, Health Department at Woman's college; Teaching—Miss Helen Deens, Education Department at Guilford college; Hobbies—Miss E. Vera Idol, Head of English Department at High Point college; Journalism—Miss Eleanor Dare Taylor, News-Record Staff; Designing—Mr. Luther Self, Student at State college; International Politics—Mr. Jack Matlock, Student at Duke university; Home Making—Mrs. J. M. Garrison, home maker; Hostess—A hostess from the Capital Airlines who will be flown in; Personal Work—Mrs. Pearle Foster, Personnel Director of Mother-Daughter Shop in Winston-Salem; Fashions—Miss Willa Lawrence.

(Continued on Page Seven)

Burnet Elected To Head Young Speakers Club

The Young Speakers Club, under the direction of Miss Mozelle Causey recently elected officers for this semester. They are: president, Lining Burnet; vice-president, Isabel Armstrong; secretary, Rebecca Frazier; treasurer, Frances Pearman.

Mr. McNeil Smith, attorney, spoke to the club a week ago last Tuesday. He was representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Bar Association of Greensboro.

These two organizations are sponsoring a World Peace Contest. The subject will be "How Can the U. N. be Strengthened?" Besides this contest the Club will participate in the American Legion Oration Contest and other debates.

The members of the club are as follows: Marie Catherine Jennings, Bill Wright, Johnnie Cranford, Tommy Neal, Robert Russell, Barbara Crutchfield, Harry Bryant, Lining Burnet, Allen Ham, Edwin Boyd, Billy Ferguson, Mary Catherine Clymer, Isabel Armstrong, Donease Newnam, Fran Pearman, Betty Brown, Peggy Coble, Silvia Smith, Rebecca Frazier.