

Scene from the annual Christmas pageant above pictures Lawrence Alspaugh as Joseph and Ann Collson as Mary. The pageant was presented to the P.T.A. Tuesday night, December 16, and to the students in assembly Wednesday, December 17.

(High Life staff photo by Lowell Dryzer)

Christmas Pageant Given By Various Music Groups

By DONALD HARDISON

Under the direction of Miss Moore, the annual Christmas pageant was presented to the Parent-Teacher association meeting last Tuesday at 8 p.m., and to the student body the following day in an assembly program. Presented in tableau form, the program consisted of an especially large cast.

The opening scene was entitled "Prophecy," and the music consisted of the well-known hymn, "O Come, All Ye Faithful." The school orchestra led the singing, and the audience joined in the chorus. The cast of the first scene was made up of 22 angels who were represented by the following people: Betty Matthews, Jo Ann Zimmerman, Marilyn Mateer, Alice Hardin, Anne Shepherd, Chorine May, Jean Shiffer, Nancy Lowder, Julia Anne Doggett, Josephine Langley, Sue Purdom, Marcia Furnas, Glenna Dewitt, Marjorie Weatherly, Patsy Plunalt, Betty Lou Van Hooke, Pat Thorpe, Betty McCraw, Theona Pearce, Peggy Everette, Emily Leets, and Jean Thor.

The second scene entitled "The Annunciation" told of the Angel's coming to Mary, telling her that she was highly favored. The part of Mary was played by Anne Collson, and the head angel was enacted by Yvonne Schweistris.

The journey of Mary and Joseph into Jerusalem was portrayed in the third scene, which closed with the singing of "Once in Royal David's City." The part of Joseph was played by Lawrence Alspaugh.

In the fifth scene, the shepherds were pictured as they faithfully watched their flocks in the night. The six shepherds were Bill Hogshead, Dave Burtner, Billy Ferguson, Dicky Sharpe, Jim McSweeney, and Jimmy Alspaugh.

King Herod (Leon Siler) and his two scribes (John Lowry and Clyde Taylor) were introduced in the seventh scene as they went to behold the new-born babe. King Herod's body guard was played by Ed Finch.

In the next to the last scene, the three wisemen were shown as they brought their gifts to the young child, Jesus. The wisemen were played by Bill Ledford, Joe Johnson, and Tiny Burtner.

(Continued on Page Eight)

Honor Rolls Released by B. Smith; 226 Students Receive Recognition

Special and regular honor rolls were recently released by Mrs. Blanche Smith.

Students making special honor roll numbered 33, while those on the regular honor roll totaled 193, thus making a grand total of 216.

SPECIAL HONOR ROLL

SOPHOMORES: room 2, Carole Williams; room 302, David Bradley; room 305, Sue Purdom; room 311, Emma Belle Pickett, Margaret Pearce; room 315, Nancy Lou Foust; room 317, Frances Dixon.

JUNIORS: room 4, Julia Ann Doggett; room 7, Hope Leonard, Bobby Michael; room 8, Gordon Nelson; room 10, Jean Thacker; room 15, Mildred Hedrick; room 24, Delores Whisonant; room 100, Lois Rosecrans.

SENIORS: room 14, Zack Piephoff, Dickie Neal; room 16, Mary Durand Sapp; room 200, Betty Kirkman; room 203, Rita Goldstein,

Yule Holidays Begin 3:30 This Afternoon

Christmas holidays for the students of Greensboro high school and the other schools of the city system will begin today at 3:30 p.m., and on January 5 will reopen for classes. Highlights of the Yuletide season will be the Christmas dance tonight at the school; the Y-Teen dance Monday night, December 22; Christmas, December 25; the Hi-Y party, December 29; the Youth Center New Year's dance, December 31; and New Year's day, January 1.

$1,000 To Be Awarded In Short Story Contest

Rules for the second annual Short Story Contest have recently been released by "Seventeen Magazine." The contest is open to high school boys and girls between the ages of thirteen and nineteen.

More than one manuscript may be submitted, but all entries must be accompanied by a notarized statement attesting the age of the writer and the originality of the work.

All prize-winning stories will be judged by the Editors of "Seventeen" and published in subsequent issues of the magazine.

$1,000 in prizes will be awarded to five winners.

The contest has a December 31 deadline and winners will be announced in April or May, 1948, issue.

Manuscripts should be sent to Addie Weierman, Publicity, "Seventeen Magazine," 11 West 42nd St., New York City, New York.

REGULAR HONOR ROLL SENIORS

Room 12—Jane Long, Lacy Lucas, Bob McPheeters, Warren Matthews, Clark Mitchell, Jennie Lee Moser, Jim Murray, Sylvia May, Frances Moffitt, Geraldine Mooney, Mary Mooneyham, Marie McLennon.

Room 14—Brown Patterson, Frances Newton, Betty Pearl, Nolan Presnell, Mary Ellen Parker, Joanne Payne, Sarah Presnell, Mary Poe.

Room 16—Earl Shaw, Jean Slink, Betsy Smith, Nancy Smith, Clyde Taylor, Louise Thacker, Sara Thompson.

Room 200—Mary Hubert, Jean Irving, Bill Ledford, Joyce Lemons, Martha Jones, Ann King, Betty Brown.

Room 202—Andy Bell, Jimmy Alspaugh, Lawrence Alspaugh, Iso-

(Continued on Page Eight)

Plans Laid for Yuletide Season

Home-Coming Event Planned for January 5

Home Coming will be held January 5 at 9 a.m. in the school auditorium.

This is the first home coming event in several years due to the conflicting holiday schedules of the high school and colleges.

The alumni will have complete charge of the program.

Students are urged to invite their friends and family who have graduated from Greensboro High School.

Teachers' Vacation Plans Are Revealed

Vacation plans of Greensboro high school's teachers were revealed recently in an announcement by Principal A. P. Routh.

Miss Mozelle Causey will be in Atlanta part of the time, the rest of the time she will be at 1819 Asheboro St., Greensboro.

Mr. Herman Smith is going to Eastern North Carolina for a very Merry Christmas.

Miss Dorothy McNairy is just glad to have a rest; she will enjoy this time at 920 Walker Ave., Greensboro.

Mrs. Helen Cooke will be at Guilford, N. C., Box 43.

Miss Jessie B. Gorrell is spending Christmas at 2122½ Wright Ave., Greensboro.

Mrs. Jewel Bates is planning to be in Alberta, Va., about four days and in Marietta, S. C., the same. Mrs. Bates home address is P.O. 2683, Greensboro.

Miss Margaret Woosley will spend Christmas at 7 Forrest Ave., Granite Falls, N. C.

Miss Jane Abernethy says she just can't wait. Miss Abernethy will be at 116 E. Ridge St., Rocky Mount, N. C.

Miss Mary L. McArthur thinks it is nice to have so much free time. She will be in Lumberton, N. C.

Mrs. Grace Alton is spending Christmas at 911 McGee St., Greensboro.

Mr. Herbert Hazelman will be at 5218 Denvonshire Rd., Richmond, Va. C/O E. L. Morrison, Jr., during Christmas.

Miss Nannie Fisher will be at Route 3, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Mr. Charie Baker has no special plans; he will be at 402 Radiance Dr., Greensboro.

Mrs. Estelle LeGwin plans a trip to Wilmington after Christmas. Mrs. LeGwin's home address is 500 Lake Dr., Greensboro.

Mrs. M. W. Pleasants will reside at 205 Waverlyway Rd., Greensboro.

Mrs. Emma Avery plans to be at 311 S. Mendenhall, Greensboro, at Christmas.

Miss Eula Tuttle will be at Walnut Cove, N. C., during Christmas.

Miss Ida Belle Moore plans to go to Burgaw, N. C., for Christmas.

Miss Virginia Powell will spend Christmas at Lenior, N. C.

Mrs. W. V. Blackburn is spending vacation time at 1220 Westover Ter., Greensboro.

Miss Mary E. York will be in Greensboro at 210 Adams St.

Miss Lottie Burnside plans to spend Christmas at 809 Courland St., Greensboro.

(Continued on Page Three)

Five Students To Attend Methodist Conference

Five Senior High School students will attend the Methodist Youth Conference December 30 through January 2 at Cleveland, Ohio.

The group will leave December 29 by chartered bus and will return by way of Washington, D. C.

Those attending from Greensboro are: Treva Adams, Joan Boyd, Doug Galyon, Betty Eller, and Wayne Cates. If any reservations are cancelled, they will be filled by Jerry Crawford and Jimmy Richards.

Methodist youth from all the United States will attend. The group will number about 10,000.

Christmas Dance Planned for Tonight; Youth Center To Hold Holiday Socials

Greensboro high school's annual Christmas dance will be given this year in the girl's gym at 9 o'clock tonight, with music furnished by Paul Bell and his orchestra, Carrie Chamberlain and Clyde Collins, co-chairmen of the recreation committee, recently announced.

Decorations for the dance include the traditional Yuletide finisings, including a large Christmas tree.

Chaperones consist of members of the P. T. A. recreation committee. They are Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McPheeters, Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Black, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Collins, Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Gay, Mrs. Malcolm Clement, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carlson.

Extensive plans are being made by the Youth Center for the Christmas season, with a New Year's party climaxing the holiday festivities.

Tomorrow morning at the Loft, a special show will be presented for elementary school children, including a special Christmas broadcast by the cast of "Youth on the Air."

On Wednesday, the 24th, there will be a carol singing for all members, and Santa Claus will make his appearance.

Christmas day, the Loft will be open from 4 until 6 in the afternoon only. Clark Russell and the Youth Center orchestra will furnish music for a two-hour tea dance.

Plans for Christmas decorations include not only mistletoe and holly but also a Christmas tree to be placed between the lounge and the dance floor.

Li'l Critters

The Li'l Critters, girls' social club, have joined with the 69'ers, a boys' club, to aid the Elks club with their Christmas party for the polio hospital. They will help with decorating the hospital and with wrapping the presents.

Other Activities

The Hunters' club, with Roy Suggs, president, have planned a social for the Friday night after

(Continued on Page Eight)

T.B. or Not T.B.

Watching Bobby Watson get his free chest X-ray for Tuberculosis, and waiting for their turn are: first row, Dot Wright and Jean White; second row, Donease Newnom, and Sarah Nell Maness (with head turned). Standing in the doorway is Zack Piephoff. The X-ray unit was at G.H.S. on December 9, 10, and 11, and every student and teacher had an opportunity to be examined for traces of TB.

(High Life staff photo by Lowell Dryzer)

Home Ec. Class Gives Yule Party

Third year Home Ec class gave a Christmas party for the children in the Kindergarten on the campus yesterday morning in the Home Economics Food Lab.

Two very old baby dresses have been brought into class for observation. Both these baby dresses, brought in by Betty Davis, are entirely handmade. One of the dresses, her great uncle's, is 82 years old; the other is 49 years old.

Activities in the second year classes include completing various garments such as skirts, blouses, pajamas and starting others.

Two classes which are studying units on Christmas foods, have prepared colorful popcorn balls for the Christmas dance tonight. These classes have also given two class suppers to which they invited several guests.