

G. H. S. Socialites . . . D. D. T. Club

In a series of pictures HIGH LIFE plans to present the established social clubs of Greensboro high school. The D.D.T. club, above, has been chosen to launch the series which will continue in alphabetical order.

Left to right, the smiling girls above are, 1st row, Carrie Chamberlain, Chippie Johnson, Patsy Carson, Nancy Beal, and Waddy McAlister.

Second row, Hope Brown, Sallie Gray Hicks, Mirvin Squire, Betty Sellers, Nancy Smith, and Frances Pearman.

Third row, Marilyn Mateer, Sarah Nell Maness, Sue Ellen Baxter, Ruth Knight, Marilyn Jenkins, Fay Millikan, and Glenna DeWitt.

(Photo by Clyde Collins)

Debaters Plan for State Contest

Under the direction of Miss Mabelle Causey, the Greensboro high school Young Speakers club will enter the statewide oratorical contest at Chapel Hill April 8-9. Speaking on "Arbitration of Labor Disputes" on the affirmative side will be Bernice Greenburg and Bill Ferguson, while on the negative bench will sit Rebecca Frazier and Lining Burnet.

Before the statewide event at Chapel Hill, however, the speakers of the Greensboro team will enter a triangular contest consisting of teams from High Point, Reynolds high of Winston-Salem, and, of course, the G. H. S. debating team. The winner from this oration will then go to the district contest to be held at Woman's College, and consequently, from there, the winners will be eligible for participation in the state championship determiner at Chapel Hill.

Miss Causey says that it has been several years since a Greensboro debating team has captured the championship title, the last time being at a state oration at Wake Forest in 1936. However, Miss Causey reports, the Young Speakers club is preparing in earnest to rectify this record this year.

Art Classes Prepare Special Projects

Mrs. Grace Faver's art classes at Greensboro high school have been engaging in a number of various projects during the last few weeks.

Interesting projects combining art and shop are being finished by Norman Durham, Jim Finison, Tal Henry, Jerry Jones, Dick McCuiston, Dick Meacham, Jim Spainhour, Jack Thompson, Tommy Ward, and Skip Williams.

John Carr is finishing a life-size cardinal of papier-mache; Bernice Greenburg is fashion artist of the week; and Dick McCuiston and Peggy Morton are finishing block-print projects.

All classes are painting flowering trees and other spring subjects. Seven of these were selected to be hung permanently. These were done by Jean Hillard, Frank Hough, Mary Etta Inman, Jackie Mock, Bob McIntosh, Estelline Patterson, and Bert Wade.

A group of three advanced painters have completed work on the yearbook covers for the Piedmont Bird club. The design, a snowy egret, was planned and finished by Oscar Paris, Bobby Spencer, and Polly White.

Lettering on the P.T.A. yearbook which has just been completed was done by Zaue Gray Leake.

Dramatics Club To Attend Festival

Attending the Drama festival April 15-17, held every year in Chapel Hill, will be 18 students from Greensboro high school and Mrs. Grace B. Wilson, Dramatics club adviser.

Leaving Greensboro Thursday morning, April 15, will be the following thespians: Jean Klitz, Betty Jane Thompson, Ruth Scarborough, Ruth Underwood, Joanne Zimmerman, Jean Thacker, Gail Schaffert, Margaret Van Court, Nancy Faires, Nancy Lowder, Becky Breedon (as an alternate), Betty Pope, Zack Piephoff, Jimmie Richards, David Breedon, Fred Price, Frank Klages, Bill Saries, and Neil Sheffield (as an alternate).

Dual casts have been selected for the play, "Back Home." One cast will present the play in Chapel Hill as Greensboro's entry in the contest, and the other cast will present the play to the high school, at a date as yet unannounced. Persons taking parts are Gail Schaffert, Margaret Van Court, Larry Lambeth, Jimmie Richards, Fred Price, and David Breedon.

Band Is Preparing For Music Contest

(Continued from Page One)

Spring concert of the GHS band was given in the school auditorium last Sunday afternoon, under Mr. Herbert Hazelman, director. The band performed a program varying from Sousa marches to excerpts from Wagner's opera "Lohengrin."

The program opened with a selection from Bach, "Trecent is My Longing" and Organ Fugue, followed by Mendelssohn's descriptive and unusual composition, "Fingal's Cave."

Carl Baxter, president of the band and student director, performed a trombone solo with band accompaniment, "Blue Bells of Scotland" and variations, which was followed by Franz Liszt's "Second Hungarian Rhapsody."

"Manhattan Beach March" by John Phillip Sousa followed the intermission. The band then played selections from the operetta based on the life and music of Edvard Grieg, "Song of Norway."

Two excerpts from Richard Wagner's opera "Lohengrin" were "Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral" from the second act, and the introduction to the Third Act.

A Cornet trio, composed of Jim Scott, Alex Panas, and Allen Neese did variations on "Annie Laurie," and in conclusion, the band played Jan Sibelius' tone poem, "Finlandia."

Take a Tip From Gladys, the Guilford Girl

DRINK Guilford Dairy Grade A Milk

Keep Your Pep!

Orchestra Planning For State Festival

(Continued from Page One)

ment of the Triumphal March from "Aida" by Verdi. The brass quartet is composed of Alec Panas and Alan Neese, cornets, and Carl Baxter and Jack Fields, trombones.

For the string orchestra, Mr. Hariman has chosen a Bach chorale prelude, "We All Believe in the One God."

Lyndon Sykes then returns to sing with orchestral accompaniment "The Whiffenpoof Song," followed by sections by the orchestra from the Rogers and Hammerstein musical, "Carousel."

Betty Hendricks, who played recently as soloist with the North Carolina Symphony orchestra, will then play Grieg's Piano Concerto in a Minor, concluding the program.

One of the purposes of the visit of the orchestra to Guilford high school will be to demonstrate to the students the various sections of the orchestra, as the high school has no organized instrumental music department.

Music Contest

The G. H. S. orchestra is one of only three class A orchestras to be eligible to play in the state music contest April 22, the other two being Charlotte and High Point. The only other orchestra in the entire state in the high school classification to come to the contest is Lindley Junior high, also from Greensboro.

For their contest selections, the orchestra will play the Bach prelude "We All Believe in the One God" and the "L'Arlesienne" suite.

Sykes Wins Award

Annual vocal contest sponsored by the Greensboro Women's club on last Wednesday, April 7, resulted in the winning by Lyndon Sykes of the first prize of $50.

Accompanied by Betty Hendricks, he sang "Ta Sciate Mimo Pire" by Monteverde, and "Thanks Be to Thee" by Handel. The four other contestants were Betty Costner, Zack Piephoff, Colleen Peele, and Priscilla Miller.

DRINK Orange Crush In the Brown Bottle

The Art Shop, Inc. 118 West Market St. Kodaks - Films Kodak Finishing

WADE'S DRY CLEANING

MAIN PLANT 607 S. Elm St. BRANCH 203 E. Sycamore St.

Bring Your Date TO

SUNSET HILLS RESTAURANT 1618 Friendly Road

How to Win SECURITY

Specialized training is the surest route to future security for the high school graduate.

If you add college-grade business training to your high school education, your services will be sought by business executives anywhere you may wish to live.

KING'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

Dixie Building

Phone 2-0449

Right now, there is a serious shortage of business-trained young people. We are receiving more calls than we can fill.

For complete information explaining opportunities and salaries being offered, how quickly you may qualify, and how our Placement Department can help you, write, phone 2-0449, or visit our office. We'll be glad to discuss your plans, without obligation.

Ellis Stone Super Snooper BABS WILSON

Spring! Thank goodness, it's here at last! Have you noticed the beautiful trees in all their gorgeous display of colors? And have you gotten a glimpse of the many new spring styles being worn by the many cute girls at G. H. S.?

Pretty soon, most of you will be off to Girl Scout camps (or camps—period), on boating excursions, or taking off to the beach (oh happy day!). So now is the time for you wise girls to buy those shorts, bathing suits, T-shirts, etc., at ELLIS-STONE'S, where you can select the best at the lowest price.

You'll fall in love with the Helen Harper "Cuba Coolers." These T-shirts, only $2, come in a variety of gay colors—pink, light blue, navy blue, and white. Of course, you'll need new shorts. ELLIS-STONE'S has some mighty cute ones that have pockets on either side. Be sure and take a look at them.

Did you see the March of Styles? One of the participants wore a bathing suit that is now available at this store. This Reel-Posie (cute name, eh?) style swim suit, selling at $14.95, is one piece and has the "new look." The long skirt is gathered and it zips up the back. "Stays" in front and back add to its attraction. And it's strapless. A ruffle around the top completes the picture of this "strictly 1948" bathing suit.

Another cute bathing suit that struck my fancy was Lastex, available in Pistachio (a shade of green) and black. It zips up the back, has a skirt in front, and is lined with jersey. Why not go to ELLIS-STONE'S sometime and view their collection of beach wear?

Pretty lingerie seems to be the fad now. Miss Swank slips, just $5.95, are available at this store and believe me, they're just too lovely to describe. They really look pretty with slit skirts. You can also buy half-slips to wear with those ever-popular Ballerina skirts; they come in navy blue, salmon, black, green, and plaids. Some have a border of lace while others have an eyelet embroidery ruffle.

Printed or handpainted blouses are certainly going to be a fad this summer. ELLIS-STONE'S has pure silk printed blouses at $8.98. They have cap sleeves, a jewel neckline, and are open down the back. Or maybe you'd prefer a Textron blouse, which comes with various designs. Available in pink, green, blue, and yellow, these blouses are only $5.95. Tiny pleats down the front add to the originality of these lovely blouses.

Oh, I mustn't forget to tell you about those knit gloves at ELLIS-STONE'S. They really perk up a costume. Yellow, white, and neutral are the colors they come in.

So long for now. Remember ELLIS-STONE'S is the place to buy all your summer needs. (ADV.)

CAROLINA

Now Playing

ROBERT TAYLOR AUDREY TOTTER

—in—

'THE HIGH WALL'

Starts Wednesday FRED McMURRY VALLI FRANK SINATRA

in

'THE MIRACLES OF THE BELLS'