

Sharpe Defeats Beale for Presidency of Youth Council

Plans Are Organized For Seniors' Events; Committees Named

Plans for the 1949 graduating exercises have been formulated by a representative group of seniors who met with members of the faculty. This group has designated Friday, June 3, as Class Day. On Sunday, June 5, Dr. Eugene Few will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the West Market Street Church. The seniors will graduate the following Friday night, June 10.

Student members of the planning group are Bob Carlson, Richard Clemmons, Harry Bryant, and Margaret Osborne; the school and senior class officers; the senior council representatives, Anna Beeson, Jackie Miles, Anne Rudd, Yvonne Schweistrits; and the ten presidents of senior homerooms: Emogene Apple, 317; Dickie Sharpe, 309; Mike Meyers, 303; Jim Finison, 301; Ann Irving, 206; Linvel Hendren, 8; Bob Ward, 5; Beverly Chalk, 4; Fred Price, 3; and Sarah Swain, 24.

Committees Named

Working on the cap and gown committee are Julia Ann Ogletree, 3; Harry Bryant, 4; Inez York, 5; Becky Fondren, 8; Sarah Swain, 24; Chippy Johnson, 206; Jerry Fletcher, 301; Peggy Morris, 303; Hal Sigmon, 309; Julia Brown, 317.

Students on the Class Day Committee are: room 3, Pat Raiford; 4, Nancy Bullock; 5, Dolores Whisnaut; 8, Betty Hendricks; 24, Betty Thompson, Sarah Swain; 206, Margaret Lewis; 301, Julia Ann Doggett; 303, Bobby Michael; 309, Yvonne Schweistrits; 317, Sue Baxter, Treva Adams, Beverly Baylor.

Those on the Senior dance committee are: room 3, Theona Pearce; 4, Penelope Callayanis; 5, Bill Wright; 8, Ann Gross; 24, John Story; 206, Georgia Katsikas; 301, Herbert Falk; 303, Jackie Miles; 309, Anne Rudd; 317, Dora Ann Bowden.

Luncheon committee members are: room 3, Bill Pleasants; 4, Fanny Cashwell; 5, John Way; 8, Mildred Hendrick; 24, Jean Thacker; 206, Maybeth Loman; 301, Emily Ann Dees; 303, Wilhelmina Motley; 309, Jean Sharp; 317, Emogene Apple.

Senior homeroom teachers are: Miss Mitchell, 317; Miss Carter, 4; Mr. Long, 301; Miss Powell, 303; Miss Tuttle, 309; Mrs. Pleasants, 3; Miss York, 5; Miss Lesley, 8; Mrs. Walke, 24; Miss McNairy, 206.

Arrangements Begun For Washington Trip

Tentative plans are in the making for the annual senior trip to Washington. The approximate cost of the trip is 20 dollars per person; this is only the cost of the hotel room and bus fare and does not include the cost of food which is about five dollars. There will probably be two chartered buses carrying the seniors from Greensboro to Washington by way of Richmond.

Reservations have been made for 75 seniors at the Ambassador Hotel for May 5, 6, 7, and 8, although the plans are not definite.

In past years the senior-visitors to Washington have visited Mount Vernon, the Bureau of Engraving, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Capitol, the Supreme Court, Library of Congress, Smithsonian Institute, Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial, and other such places of interest. It is hoped that this year a boat trip on the Potomac River may be added. On the return trip, sightseers have viewed the Endless Caverns and Natural Bridge.

Early in March those seniors wishing to take this trip will be called together. In April they will register so that a definite count may be made and the money for the hotel rooms and bus tickets collected.

Pictured above is Nancy Beale congratulating Dickie Sharpe on his winning the presidency of the Youth Center. Dickie and Nancy were the two candidates in the run-off election held last week at the Youth Center.

Guest Speakers Are Heard By Four Marriage Classes

The marriage classes have had several guest speakers during the last few weeks. The speakers have been asked to speak on preparation for marriage and the actual ceremony of the different church denominations.

Monseigneur Dolan, from the Catholic Church, told the groups about the conferences held by a priest with a couple before they are married. "The Catholic Church does not recognize divorce," Monseigneur Dolan stressed this, and also that mixed religious marriages are not advisable. He read to the classes the marriage ceremony of the Catholic Church.

"Consecration of one to the other," was the major point of Rabbi Rypens. Explaining this, the Rabbi said that the wife should give herself to her husband and be like wise to her. He spoke about the Jewish marriage laws and customs, and also read to the group the Jewish ceremony and related the Jewish family ideals.

Mr. Weddie Huffman spoke about "The Seriousness of Marriage." He included in this the budget, disillusionments of marriage, dangers of the group that marriage is not for just a short while, that it is for a lifetime and that the choosing of a mate is very serious.

Reverend Allred, a Baptist minister, brought to the group the Protestant marriage ceremony. He explained the preparation given to a couple in the Protestant church and also showed the group a marriage license.

Mrs. Lowe of the Health Education Council was the concluding speaker for the semester. The health of the couple before and after marriage was her topic.

Choir Visits College; Seniors Sing Solos

As a return courtesy, the Choir of Senior High sang January 18 in the chapel at Greensboro college. Earlier this year the Greensboro College glee club gave their Christmas program here, and the students enjoyed it very much.

Music Presented

Selected numbers of the Choir were "Send Forth Thy Spirit" by Schuetky, the spiritual "Deep River," "To Music" by Schubert, "Shortenin' Bread" and "The Battle Hymn of Republic" by Wilhousky.

Among the special numbers were "Dry Bones" by the boys quartet, and solos by Sue Baxter and Bill Ultey. Sue Ellen sang "Summer Time" by Gershwin and Norwegian Dance. Bill sang "Kitty, Will You Marry Me," an Irish song.

Invited To Lunch

"Everyone had a fine time, especially the boys," related Miss Eula Tuttle, the Choir director. It was a full day for the Choir members, since they were invited to lunch by the college.

Burnet and Wrenn Elected for Offices; Carson Triumphs Over Clement in Final

On Saturday, January 15, the Youth Center was the scene of the annual election of the Youth Council. When the votes were counted, it was found necessary to have a run-off election. Dickie Sharpe and Nancy Beale had tied for the office of president, as did Patsy Carson and Mary Lane Clement for council. Lining Burnet was elected vice-president over Oscar Paris and Robert Carlson, and Elinor Wrenn defeated Carolyn Birgel for the office of secretary.

Appointments Made; Projects Scheduled

The council meetings since the Christmas holidays have consisted mainly of appointments and committee reports.

The recreation committee reported that there will be a square dance Thursday night, February 3 at the Youth Center under the joint cooperation of the school and the Youth Center. This is the night before registration for the second semester.

This committee also reported that the juke-box has been repaired and will be in the girls' gym.

Anne Rudd and Lining Burnet were appointed chairmen of the May Day. They have not yet chosen their faculty advisor or five committee members, however.

Representatives Elected

Sally Boren, Bill Sartin, Bobby Stewart, and Betsy Wright were chosen by the council to replace four of their classmates. These new council members have already become active on various committees.

After the beginning of the second semester, the council will sponsor a clean-up and beautification program, and a "homeroom of the week" will be chosen on the basis of cleanliness, beauty, and activities. Reports will be made on the activities of the homerooms.

From the list of 27 candidates, six of the seven council members elected were: Sally Gray Hicks, Yvonne Schweistrits, Bill Lester, Tommy Ward, Bob Murray, and Kemp Clendenin.

Results of Run-Off

Last Saturday night, January 21, the results of the run-off election were announced at a semi-formal dance at the Center. Dickie Sharpe was named president, and Patsy Carson won the seventh seat on the council.

Adult Board Named

Last November the adult board was named, with Sidney Cone, Jr. its chairman. Other members of the board are Rev. J. W. McGinnis, Mrs. Van Wyck Williams, Mrs. Chase Benson, Allen Strand, E. Frank Andrews, Oka Hester, R. B. Jamieson, Mrs. B. L. Webster, A. P. Routh, A. H. Parker, Dr. Ruth Schiffman, Mrs. R. B. Taylor, and T. R. Warren.

Dance Planned

On Friday night, February 4, Earl Bostick and his orchestra will play for a dance at the Center. Although the dance will be open to the public, annual members will be admitted free. The time of the dance is from 9 o'clock until 1.

The following night, Frank Marino, trick pool shot artist, will give a program at the Youth Center.

School History Influenced By Past School Presidents

It would be impossible to tell the history of Senior High without naming the presidents of the student body, for they have been a lasting influence.

History Given

Turning back the history of the school to the year 1922-23, it is found that Robert Irwin was president; he worked in Greensboro before his death. In the next year Norman Block, now a Greensboro attorney, was given this high honor; 1924-25 brought a new man into office—Arthur Davant, who is working now for the Blue Bell Overall Company in New York. In 1925-26 P. B. Whittington, a Greensboro dentist was president, and the next year, 1926-27, he was replaced by Willard Watson, who was killed overseas during the war.

William Byers took the presidency in 1927-28, but there is no available information about him. Charles Rives, now with Jefferson Standard was made president of 1928-29; the next year Harvey Anderson, who is with Wachovia Bank & Trust in Raleigh, took over. For 1930-31 Charles Hagan, now the district prosecutor, was elected.

Others Listed

The next year 1931-32 Jack Nowlin, now a traveling salesman for Cashwell's Inc., was president. Another year passed by and Frank Pittman, who is a radio producer in Hollywood for the great Guildersleeve and Fibber McGee and Molly shows, was made president. He was succeeded by Howard King, who is planning to re-enter the army when he has completed his work on his doctor's degree. Jack Cheek, 1934-35, is president of Cheek & Co., a candy wholesale house.

He was succeeded by Dick Holt, about whom no information could be found. In 1936-37 Bill Murray, now a physician in Greensboro, was president of the school. Edward Hipp, who is studying law at Chapel Hill, succeeded him. In 1938-39 James Wolfe, who is now studying law, was president. Jean McAllister, 1939-40, served in the war and later lost his life in an automobile accident.

Recent Presidents Given

Douglas Hunt is studying law at Boston, Massachusetts and was president for 1940-41. The following year William Donald, who served in the war and is now going to Bowman Gray in Winston, was selected president.

Tim Warner of the class of 1942-43 is now studying law at York and Boyd; the next year Howard Morris, who is majoring in medicine, was elected president. Replacing him was Ed Mabry, another medicine major at Duke; he is now a senior. Bill Moore, a junior at Carolina, was president in 1945-46, and the next year Jim Finch, Guilford College student, was president. In 1947-48 Andrew Bell, University of North Carolina student, succeeded him. Making the list of presidents up to date is Bob Carlson, who isn't quite sure what he wants to do, but "half-way plans to attend State college."