

Three Religions Join in Brotherhood Week

Brotherhood Fights Hate and Prejudice

The American way of life is based upon the recognition of the dignity of man as a creature of God; it is endangered by prejudice and bigotry. Brotherhood Week is sponsored by the National Council of Christians and Jews. Every year it comes during the week of Washington's birthday, and this year it is from February 20 to 27. The definition of Brotherhood is "giving to others the rights and respect that we want for ourselves"; its motto is "Brotherhood must be lived."

During the war, America demonstrated a unity that was not thought possible by our enemies. People of all races, religions and classes fought for a common cause. We need this kind of unity in peace as well as in war.

Purpose of Council

The National Council of Christians and Jews was founded to meet the bigotry of the Ku Klux Klan and the Al Smith presidential campaign. It was a religious educational organization and remains so after twenty years.

The Council is not an interfaith organization and seeks participation of Catholics, Protestants, and Jews, who join together to promote Brotherhood every day of the year as well as the one special week.

Assembly Carries Theme

Last Tuesday, February 22, a representative from each of the three great faiths spoke before the student body. They were Dr. Eugene C. Few, a Protestant; Rabbi Fred I. Rypins, a Jew; and Monseigneur Hugh Dolan, a Catholic. Introducing them respectively were Nancy Beale, Herbert Falk, and Julia Ann Ogletree. For the devotional Sara Nell Maness sang "Hear My Prayer" by Humphreys.

Hi-Y Club Hears Men Speak on Vocations

Another in a series of vocational programs for the Alpha Omega Hi-Y club was presented at the YMCA last Monday night at 7:30.

These programs are to try to help the members decide what vocation they wish to go into after graduation from high school. Programs of this kind are planned for the next six weeks and will include talks by outstanding men from such fields as dentistry, engineering, and insurance.

Previously the club heard Curt Welbourn, sport's announcer for WGBG, speak on radio announcing, and Mr. Hayes of York Corporation talk on refrigeration and air conditioning. In their talks Mr. Hayes and Mr. Welbourn told of the educational requirements necessary to go into their particular fields and material gains the members could expect. Both brought out the fact that one started in the organization, it is up to the individual to achieve his own goal.

Plans are being made by the club under the direction of Mr. McNairy to have a combination swimming and dancing party at the "Y" in the near future. Also, tentative plans are being made by the club to have an overnight camping party at Camp Nawakwa sometime in the spring. Such events have proved highly successful in the past.

Each Saturday, a basketball team composed of members of the club, meets teams from other clubs at the "Y." So far the Hi-Y team is undefeated. Jim Patton, Gregory Patterson, and Angie Kontoulas have been outstanding for their team.

Gl Murphy has been elected the club's treasurer, while Rowland Wiseman, president, Bill Wrenn, vice-president, and George Velonis, secretary, have been re-elected for a new term.

May Queen Honor Given to Schweistris

Three girls were made outstanding by their classmates by being elected by their respective classes as May Queen and junior and sophomore maids of honor. In the center above is Yvonne Schweistris, queen of the May Day. On the left is Pat Mateer, the sophomore honor attendant; and on the right is Elinor Wrenn, honor attendant from the junior class.

Maids of Honor Are Wrenn and Mateer

Senior high school will hold its annual May Day Tuesday, May 3. Yvonne Schweistris will reign as queen, attended by the junior and sophomore attendants, Elinor Wrenn and Pat Mateer.

The coronation will begin with the court's procession and the attendant's dance. After the crowning of the queen, the May day exercises will begin for the entertainment of the queen which will include: folk dances, tumbling stunts, and the May pole dance.

Court Attendants

Senior class attendants are Addie Belle Clemmons, Bonnie Jean Crawford, Martha Everitt, Chippy Johnson, Jackie Miles, and Theona Pearce.

The girls attending the queen from the Junior class are Nancy Beale, Carolyn Birgel, Roberta Burgess, and Sally Grey Hicks.

Sophomore girls on the court include Henrietta Bell, Jackie Gilmore, Jackie Lane, and Nola Miles.

Yvonne is a regular member of the honor roll, a member of Torchlight, national honor society, and a senior class representative. She is head cheerleader, editor of the girl's sport page in High Life and a member of the Les Soeurs. Last year, Yvonne was junior honor attendant for the queen in the May Day.

Elinor is a Mariner scout of the Sea Scout Ship Joseph Conrad, secretary of her Sunday school class, secretary of the high school, and secretary of the Youth Council. She is also a member of the DDT club.

Pat was voted prettiest girl at Central junior high school last year and she was also secretary of the Squads. This year Pat has become a member of the DDT and LSP clubs.

Miss Louise Smith and Miss Margie Gabriel are the faculty advisers for the event and the student co-chairmen are Anne Rudd and Lining Burnet. The committee members include Julia Ann Doggett, Anna Beeson, Betsy Bishop, Bill Sartin, and Jerry Bryan.

Judge Gwyn Speaks Before Student Body During Crime Prevention Week

Last week was "Crime Prevention Week," and Superior Court Judge Allen H. Gwyn of Reidsville spoke to the student and teachers of Greensboro high school. Judge Gwyn opened by saying, "I doubt if it has been my privilege at any time to speak to a finer audience."

The speaker was introduced by Roy M. Booth, prominent Greensboro attorney and member of the Exchange club whose project it was to sponsor this assembly. Exchange clubs all over the nation have sponsored this week.

"I can't help but feel at loss," said Judge Gwyn, "for you are not the people we have to deal with." He stated that he didn't recall having sentenced a college student for a term in prison, because if we have good influence and a good home, we do not have the urge to go out and do the things that are condemned by society. You students can do more than the court in overcoming that deficit in society," he added.

He gave a very clear picture of a criminal in that he was a young man under twenty years of age and who had not reached high school. "One of the chief reasons is that he has been alone; he feels rejected. The greatest percentage are underprivileged boys who haven't had a chance or fine parents and teachers to guide them in their daily work. Without these aids, they have grown hostile."

"You can do a great deal and at the most valuable time if you will consciously look out for an opportunity to do something for these people. You have no idea how much it will really mean."

"Having the greatest country on earth," stated Judge Gwyn, "we should love it more. We take it as a matter of fact. Not only is our country looking to you, but the world looks upon you through the way you solve the problems that confront you. You will be our country—the world depends on you."

In conclusion, he related that, "After all, the dangers, and the troubles are based not on our material life, but upon the spiritual matters. Our forefathers have concentrated too much on material things and not on spiritual and human things. Only insofar as we have a country with independent people and are individually free, may we have a free country and a free public. Build in your life the foundations of good citizenship."

Senior Class Again Leads Members on Honor Rolls

For the six weeks period that marked the close of the semester the seniors with 88 honor roll members led the other two classes. They also excelled with 24 special honor roll members. On the special and regular honor rolls respectively the junior class total was 20 and 46, while that of sophomore class was 14 and 50.

Those people making the honor roll were:

SPECIAL HONOR ROLL

SENIORS

- Room 3 — Oscar Paris, Tommy Payne.
- Room 4 — Beverly Chalk, Wilma Comer.
- Room 5 — Delores Whisonant, Bill Wright.
- Room 8 — Carolyn Gibson, Camilla Greeson, Alice Hardin, Mildred Hedrick.
- Room 24 — Jackie Stafford, Sarah Swain.
- Room 206 — Chippy Johnson, Laddie Landau.
- Room 301 — Julia Ann Doggett.
- Room 303 — Nancy Lowder, Bobby Michael, Jackie Miles.
- Room 309 — Lois Rosecrans, Bill Saries, Yvonne Schweistris, Jean Sharpe, Sidney Smith.
- Room 317 — Sue Patxer.

JUNIORS

- Room 6 — Sara Nell Maness, Jeanne Martin.

- Room 100 — Hope Brown.
- Room 302 — Richard Whittemore, Roland Wiseman, Fred Upchurch, Elinor Wrenn, Carol Williams.
- Room 304 — Edith Trospier.
- Room 305 — Alex Panas, Emma Belle Pickett, Margaret Pearce.
- Room 306 — Sally Gray Hicks, Doris Hill.
- Room 311 — Elizabeth Ann Allred, David Bradley, Barbara Braxton.
- Room 313 — Ann Edwards, Nancy Lou Foust.
- Room 315 — Sue Purdom.

REGULAR HONOR ROLL

SENIORS

- Room 3 — Gordon Nelson, Barbara Oakley, Dick Painter, Bill Parker, Betty Jean Pope, Vera Parker.
- Room 4 — Magdalene Carter, Pat Carson, Addie Belle Clemmons, John

Best Citizens Named After Faculty Meeting

For the third six weeks period, as is always the custom, again six Senior High students were chosen by the faculty as best citizens. Mrs. Blanche Smith is the faculty chairman for both the scholarship and citizenship honor rolls.

From the sophomore class Thomas Ginis and Betty Mitchell are the best citizens, while Show Fu Seen and Edith Trospier are from the junior class. Bobby Michael and Yvonne Schweistris receive the honor from the seniors.

Choir Sings at Colleges, Civic Clubs, and Schools

Singing under the direction of Miss Eula Tuttle, the choir has appeared before many groups this semester in special programs.

They have sung for the Kiwanis club, Lions club, and Co-op club. They performed at the assembly at Woman's College and at Central junior high school this month. During January they appeared before the Rotary club and Greensboro college.

The Girl's Glee club has received an invitation to sing Monday for the Rotary club at its weekly meeting.

The district contest is scheduled for March 23 in Winston-Salem.

Speech Students Plan For Oratory Contests

Beginning another active semester, the speech class has already planned three contests, the debate, dramatic readings, and play productions in their schedule. Advisor for the class is Miss Mozelle Causey.

Contests Are Listed

Next week the American Legion Oratorical contest will be held. Seven students from Senior will compete for the prizes. They are: Billy Ferguson, David Barbee, Thomas Ginis, Rebecca Frazier, Wilhelmina Motley, Bill Zuckerman, and John Utley. The subject for the first part has to be on some phase of the Constitution, and for the second part students have to make an extemporaneous speech.

"How Civic Clubs Can Best Serve Youth" is the title for the second contest also scheduled for next week. Students that are taking part are: Joan Huggins, Steve Agapion, Bill Zuckerman, Margaret Van Court, Jackie Miles, Alice Hardin, Treva Adams, Bob Carlson, and Sheow Fu Seen.

Although plans have not been completed yet, the Soil Conservation contest will be sometime in March.

On February 12 Lining Burnet went to Raleigh to speak in the contest on the "Republican Party and Its Future." Lining won third place and received a ticket to the banquet which closed the Lincoln day celebrations.