GHS Installs Officers For Term of 1949-50; Bob Carlson Speaks

New student officers for 1949-50 were installed Tuesday, May 10, in a ceremony conducted by Bob Carlson, student body president.

First the new officers were sworn into their posts. Kemp Clendenin, as president of the student council; Nancy Beal, vice-president; Henrietta Bell, secretary; and Bill Ferguson, traffic chief.

Others Take Offices

Installed as the new senior officers for next year were Sheow Fu Seen, president; Edith Trosper, vice-president; Joan Bignon, secretary; and Elizabeth McCulloch, treasurer. New officers for the rising junior class are Jerry Bryan, president; Norman Schlosser, vice-president; Julia Thomas, secretary; and Billy Eller, treasurer.

Council representatives for the rising junior and senior classes also took their oath of office.

Carlson Expresses Thanks

When the new members of the student council took their places, Bob Carlson thanked the retiring council, A. P. Routh, Mrs. Estelle LeGwin, and the whole student body for a successful year.

"I enjoyed working with them, and it will be hard to find another as good," Bob said as he revealed his feelings about the council.

Objects Obtained

A report of what the council had done during the year was given. Those accomplishments were outlined to be concessions at basketball games, an annual cabinet for council material, gravel in front of the boys' gym, a new flag, stationery, and they sponsored a barn dance and tried to promote better spirit between the faculty and the pupils.

"We've tried hard to re-establish the annual, and good people will be chosen for the staff. It will take lots of hard work and enthusiasm," Bob announced as he turned his long year of work for the annual over to the new council and next year's student body.

From his own experience Bob said, "If you put something into your three years at high school, you really hate to leave. Your school life and friends will reflect on your future life."

Advice Is Given

Speaking to the juniors and sophomores, he said that students should take more interest in school affairs and their fellow students; they should make more friends, pay more attention to school life, and not put all their time into extra-curricular activities.

"The future council will do a fine job, I'm sure, because they are good kids and can work hard," Bob reassured the juniors and sophomores.

In closing he said, "It's been an experience that I wouldn't trade for anything."

Pleasants Wins First In State Physics Test

Report of the high school physics contest of 1949 brought news because Greensboro Senior High had more winners than any other school in the state.

Bill Pleasants was one of the four students to tie for first place. The other winners were from Greenville, Durham, and Wilmington. Honorable mention or second place was given to Marion Mason, Richard James Painter, Fredrick W. Scales, Jr., Sidney Smith, and William Vaughn Wright.

This test was given April 15, 1949, by Mr. Stanley Johnson, teacher of physics. Thirty-five schools participated, and 430 students took the test. The four students tying for first place were from different schools, and only eight schools had winners.

Pins To Be Presented To Seven Members

Word recently came from Quill and Scroll International Honorary Society that the seven High Life staff members who sent in stories for approval were accepted for membership in this well-known organization.

It has been about three years since Senior High had such a club. Miss Catherine Pike, an English teacher, was the adviser at that time.

In a special assembly, the Quill and Scroll pins will be presented to Julia Ann Doggett, Alice Hardin, Anne Rudd, Yvonne Schweistris, Treva Adams, Gordon Battle, and Tommy Neal.

Candidates may be elected from the newspaper, yearbook, magazine, or handbook staffs, but they must

Officers Are Selected; Hardin Is President

Officers for the Quill and Scroll International Honorary Society were elected last Monday.

Named as president was Alice Hardin, while Julia Ann Doggett was selected vice-president and Anne Rudd, secretary-treasurer. Samuel J. Underwood is the adviser of the club.

Exam Exemptions Given To Gold, Silver Star Wearers

As the school year comes to an end, and exams are in sight, 30 seniors and 25 juniors find themselves with the privilege of exempting exams. To wear a silver star one must make the honor roll seven consecutive times; a silver star wearer taking four majors may exempt one exam. To wear a gold star a student must make the honor roll 13 consecutive times. A gold star wearer taking four majors may exempt one exam, while one taking five majors may exempt two exams.

There are five seniors who take five majors and are thus entitled to two exemptions. They are: Oscar Paris, Chippy Johnson, Julia Ann Doggett, Bobby Michael, and Treva Adams. Gold star wearers with one exemption are: Dick Painter, Tommy Paine, Jean Thacker, Jackie Miles, Lois Rosencrans, Jean Sharp, Sidney Smith, Anna Beeson, Bill Wright, Delores Whisonant, and Harry Young.

Those seniors with silver stars who are exempting one exam are: Gordon Nelson, Barbara Oakley, Magdalene Carter, Carolyn Gibson, Rebecca Fondren, Mildred Hedrick, Marianne Stanley, Bertha Tilley, Josephine Langley, Peggy Craven, Geraldine Fletcher, Herman Rierston, Ray Showfety, and Jane Wells.

GHS Students Receive Honors at Art Exhibit

Gold ribbons and first prizes were awarded to three Senior High students at the A.A.U.W. art exhibit on May 12. The winning students were: Sidney Smith, water color; Leonard Allred, pencil sketch; and James Palmer, abstract design in tempera. Other Senior High students who had honorable mention and whose paintings were exhibited were: Frank Hough, Eugene Foy, Jean Mills, Roger Lowe, Beverly Coble, and Geneva Minor. Roger had an oil painting, and Beverly had a fashion drawing. Both Geneva Minor and Bobby Wagner had abstract designs for ceramic plates.

There were six gold star wearers and seven silver star wearers in the senior class who had no exemptions because they were taking only three major subjects.

Senior Issue To Have New Type of Paper

Big plans are in the making for the last issue of HIGH LIFE which will come out on Class Day, June 3.

Money Is Needed

Each senior is asked to pay 25 cents extra to make this issue a second to an annual. In return he will receive two copies of the paper.

This money will be used to pay for a better paper—one that will not brown with age. By using this DeSota English Book type paper the pictures will be clearer.

Pictures To Be Larger

With hopes of having larger pictures and personality sketches of all students who have returned their blanks, the staff also plans to have pictures of various school activities. The Last Will and Testament and the Prophecy will be included as usual.

It is important that each senior pay his 25 cents now. If this extra money cannot be obtained, then the completion of all of these plans will not be possible.

All library books must be returned on or before June 1

Best Citizens Named After Teachers Meet

Best Citizen Awards went to two students from each class for this six weeks grading period. They were nominated for the honor by students and elected by the faculty.

223 Attain Places on Honor Roll; 60 Students Take Special Honors

Having announced the fifth sixth weeks grading period of 1948-49 school year, Mrs. Blanche Smith found 223 people making honor roll. Included in this number were 60 making special honor roll.
