New members of the club are Cathrine McLean, Joanne Phipps, Carol Stroud, Elaine Lanier, Joann Kreiger, Betty Jane Davis, and Barbara Johnson.

D. E. Club

The Distributive Education classes met at the Youth Center two weeks ago to organize their D. E. club, a unit of the National organization.

The following officers were elected: President, Frank Burton; vice-president, Charles Barbour; associate vice-president, Billie Jane Caudle; recording secretary, Betty Waldrop; treasurer, Ronnie Britt; associate treasurer, Nancy Deaton.

Publicity, entertainment, and the scrapbook committees were appointed. They are: Publicity, Nancy Deaton, Billie Jane Caudle and Christine Johnson; Entertainment, Jean Wells, Jimmie Davidson, Ronnie Britt and Bobbie Jean May; Scrapbook, James Covert, Barbara Killebrew, and Zay Anderson.

The club is planning a hay ride and a weiner roast for the first week in October. Field trips and parties will also be included in the year's plans.

Delegates are to be sent to the Regional Convention in Hickory on November 2 and to the National Convention in Asheville in April. The State Convention will be held in Greensboro in the spring with the local club acting as host.

Wheel Club

All Senior High School bus drivers have reorganized the Wheel club

Pictured above are two of the D. O. office-workers from Miss Brown's classes. They are Carleen Tate and Sarah Kellam. They are employed at Central Library office at Caldwell School and work from 1:00-5:00 in the afternoon at a salary of 50c per hour. Their work consists of typing, accession of books, use of duplicating machines, shelving books and other related library work.

under the guidance of Mr. Charles Taylor, and have made their plans for the coming year.

Leaders were elected, and are now planning their activities. It is said that this will become the most exciting club in Senior High School.

The first of every week was selected as meeting time, and the first of every month was set aside for parties.

The following members were elected for office, and will preside over the meetings this coming year.

Lindy Brown was elected President; Leon Siler, vice-president; Charles Jones, secretary, and Mr. Taylor, treasurer. The two social chairmen elected as Charles Gladwell, and Charles Johnson.

Soph Y-Teens

The Sophomore Y-Teens had their election meeting on September 28. The new officers of the club are: President, Louise Collins; first vice-president, Sandra Summers; second vice-president, Barbara Johnson; secretary, Shirley Taylor; treasurer, Julia Blanchard; publicity chairman, Barbara Showfety; social and hostess chairman, Virginia Sink.

The Y-Teens are having a square dance-weiner roast combination during Roll-Call week. All sophomore girls who are interested are urged to join during this week.

Nu Phi Me

Joanne Hendricks, president of the Nu Phi Me Sorority, has announced that the sorority is having the Coronation Ball October 22 at Pleasant Club.

'Bout the Youth House

By BOB MURRAY

The proprietor spread the word last nite that tonite after the Reidsville-Greensboro game he'll throw open the doors for members and all those people from the outskirts of the best metropolis N. C. Another important part of the message was the fact that Lindsay Davis and his Kids of Rhythm, the Rhythm Kids will "Knock and Rock" till early in the morning.

End of Message.

Before Coach Huffman took a back seat he asked me to try to explain to all G'boro that you're not only welcomed "muchly" at all the open houses but you get the same kind of greeting every afternoon from 3:30 to 6 p. m. Also on Saturday night there's always a feature. Sometimes we have movies, dances, floor shows, pool, etc. Even though you get all of this for a penny and a half a nite, elsewhere it would cost you way up in the sums I've never heard of. Those are, just a few of the many extra features that can be found there. Stressed also was the matter of having private club meetings, parties, dances, shows, or anything as you like. All you really have to do is pick a nite that's O.K. with "The Masked Marvel" and then come up and raise the roof. Gosh, just think of everything that's yours. Pool, ping-pong, juke box, private telephones to call her, and a cozy "session" room, to top all this off you've got a pampacked "snack bar" to get anything from hairpins to Bull fiddles. To tell the truth about it, the Youth Center has so many features that it brought a comment from Lining Burnet that went, "for my money the Youth House gives you more for your money than any place between here and Borneo. I know for I've just escaped! Laughing matters aside, it's great, and if you hurry you can get that thing that's good for one welcome year!" You'll be missing "stuff that's shoo nuff" and who wants to let that go by?

Tonite's a mighty good time to drop five for that Annual. So after collecting all you've made on the G'boro-Reidsville game come up and get yours and a half dozen more.

No truer words than these have been spoken. Only by making friends of our enemies will we ever really destroy them.

Miss York Plans For Home Ec. Activities

Miss Mary E. York, head of the Home Economics Department at Senior, announced some of the projects planned for her advanced home economics classes. This year, the girls will serve refreshments and act as hostesses at the monthly meetings of the Faculty Club.

Miss York states that the idea is being carried out in order to give the girls a practical application for the formal class activities.

English Class Draws Ideas of Freedom

Miss Sara Mim's Junior English class has been studying Bryan's "Antiquity of Freedom." While studying Bryan's writings, they have drawn pictures depicting their own conceptions of freedom with inspiration from those passages. Some of the sketches are humorous and some were drawn in a serious mood. One of the outstanding pictures shows an old man with a shot gun in one hand and a machine gun in the other. The pictures have been posted on the bulletin board.

"Have a good memory for faces, dear?"
"I have."
"Spendid—I've just dropped your shaving mirror."
