 And if we were brainy instead of brainless, things would be quite different, but not much fun, huh?

Going through the daily routine of print work are a group of students in the newly-formed class. Their instructor, also shown in the above shot, is Mr. Howard Thomas.

Eighty Are Enrolled In New Print Shop

This year a printing shop has been added to the Vocational Department. Mr. Howard Thomas is the instructor. Thomas was also the instructor of the printing class in 1946 and 1947.

Eighty students are enrolled. The class meets for an hour each day. This class has been set up like a regular commercial printing shop.

Most of the school printing is being done by the shop. The work they are doing includes: Halloween Party circulars, library printing, various tickets, Cheerio passes, programs, posters, and work from the junior high schools.

Mr. Thomas stated that the shop is not too well equipped, since it has been closed for two years. The equipment came from Central Junior High School a good many years ago, Mr. Thomas disclosed. Also, Thomas states that the commercial printers, jobbers, and engravers have been cooperative—especially with the use of the Linotype machine.

Music Notes

By Shirley Leonard

Senior has quite a few celebrities in it's midst; television stars, professionals, composers, and all. A string quartet, or The Four Flats, as they are called, composed of Terry Gauden, Anne and Mary Kearny, and Katherine Bobbitt, played on television last Tuesday night. Carey Gibbs and Barbara Jones, the songbirds, sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and the Four Flats played "La Comparsita." At the same time Arthur Smith was playing his first concert with the Winston-Salem Civic Symphony. Our composer celebrity is Julia Deskins whose "Nocturne" is being played in High Point for the Junior Division of the Federated Music Clubs, Saturday, October 29. The people from our school who are going are Jack Gooch, Terry Gauden, Sam Sox, Jr., Julia Deskins, Pat Pinyan, Anne Qearny, Hettie

Lou Raiford, Fred Heath, Katherine Holt, and Shirley Leonard.

National Education Week is November 6 through the 12, and the school is responsible for three programs on the radio: bands, orchestra, and choir. These will probably be recorded so the students can hear it, too.

Our seniors of last year are doing very well for themselves, also. Gordon Nelson is at Julliard in New York, Bill Wright is at Duke and has been accepted in the Chamber Music Group there, and Mildred Hedrick, now Mrs. John Ramon Kyser, is a freshman at Westminster Choir College in New Jersey.

Yes, we're well blessed with celebrities. Most of them are undiscovered, too!

NIGHT SHIFT

I'll never get my home work done—It's midnight and I've just begun. Of course, it had to be postponed. When certain parties telephoned. Then too, I simply couldn't cope. With ancient history and Bob Hope. And by the time Rob was through, I had my hair and nails to do. Oh, evening duties are so dreary. I thank my stars for study period.

Laundryman: "These shirts are tough; they'll laugh at the laundry."
 Customer: "Yes, I know they've been coming back with their sides split."

Teacher: "Who supported the world on his shoulders?"
 Student: "Atlas."
 Teacher: "And who supported Atlas?"
 Student: "I suppose he married a rich wife."
