

GHS Orchestra Attends Meeting in St. Louis

Twenty-five members of the Senior High Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. J. Kimball Harriman, left Greensboro by train for St. Louis as part of the N. C. All-State Orchestra, Sunday, March 19, at 9:30 A.M. They arrived there Monday, March 20, about 3:30 P.M. While there the students are staying at the Majestic Hotel.

Those students from Greensboro who attended are: Jack Gooch, Ruth Shelburne, Julia Deskins, Ann Edwards, Carey Gibbs, Terry Ojlene Gaudin, Sallie Boren, Sam Sox, Jr., Pat Pinyan, Elizabeth McPheeters, Betty Mitchell, Hettie Lou Ralford, Anne Kearny, Kacky Holt, Henrietta Bell, Margaret Underwood, Fred Heath, Jamie Stanley, Shirley Leonard, Mary Jo Caudle, Margaret Pritchett, Mary Hudson, Maitland Freed, Arthur Smith, and Carolyn Turner.

Rehearsals were held in St. Louis before the performance for the musical Educators' National Convention on Tuesday morning and afternoon and Wednesday morning. Wednesday afternoon the All-State Orchestra played at Roosevelt High School.

Thursday afternoon the All-State Orchestra gave a performance at Cleveland High School. That night the members of the orchestra were the guests of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

The Concert for the MENC meeting was yesterday morning from 9:00-9:25 a. m. The performance included the following music: "March of Meistersingers" by Wagner, arranged by Herfurth; "Fugue in G Minor" by Bach, arranged by Demcrest; "Love Music" from "Boris Goudinow," arranged by Minorsky; "A Trumpeter's Lullaby," written and arranged by Leroy Anderson; "March Slave" by Tschalkowsky, arranged by Herfurth; and "Cripple Creek," written and arranged by Lama Stringfield.
