

HIGH LIFE

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

VOLUME XXVII

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C., DECEMBER 15, 1950

NUMBER 5

Christmas Pageant To Be Given

Yuletide Dance To Be Held at Youth Center

Council Sponsors Annual Event; Michael, McPheeters and Velonis Are Chairmen

Tuesday night, December 19, Senior's annual Christmas Dance will be held. This dance, sponsored by the Student Council, is to be staged at the Youth Center from 8:30 to 2:00. Admission to the affair is $.50 "stag or drag."

Elizabeth McPheeters, Bill Michael, and Chris Velonis are co-chairman. Elizabeth stated that all G.H.S. students, faculty members, and recent alumni are cordially invited G.H.S. students may take dates who are from other towns. The "hop" will be semi-formal. Boys are urged not to send flowers to their dates. Music is to be provided by the complete Jaycee Orchestra.

Due to new and stricter regulations of the Fire Department, the theme of "Winter Wonderland" can not be carried out as fully as originally planned. No crepe paper is allowed and all shrubbery used must be fresh and has to be removed the day after the dance.

Making up the figure will be representatives of the school's various organizations. They are as follows: The Student Council, Whirligig, High Life, Band, Orchestra, Choir, the two Girls' Glee Clubs, Boys' Glee Club, D.O.-D.E., Torchlight, Speech Club, Dramatics Club, Library Club, Weel Club, Y-Teens, Key Club, Monogram Club, Junior and Senior HiY, Sophomore HiY, and the following social clubs, C.D.L., D.D.T., G.W.I., Le Sours, L.S.P., Nu Phi Mu, San Souci, Venettes, W.S.T., and V.B.A.

Mrs. Estelle LeGwin is the faculty adviser for the dance. The sponsor for the Parent-Teacher Association is Mrs. Jim McGregor.

Special Programs Are Presented by WGPS-FM

WGPS-FM, like all other city school units, will wind up the 1950 season on December 19. Broadcasting will resume on January 3, 1951.

December 15, 18 and 19 will see many special Christmas programs on WGPS. Scheduled for December 15 is the famous John Charles Thomas in a program of the world's best loved Christmas carols. Also featured with Mr. Thomas will be the Caffey College Choir.

Monday and Tuesday, December 18 and 19, will see special programs of Christmas music on the "Foremost in Music." Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" will be presented by the Greensboro Little Theatre on Tuesday, December 19. To add to all this, Dave Wright has several Christmas features lined up.

Marie Sizemore Will Portray Mary; Andrew Bristow To Be Joseph

The traditional Christmas story will be told in a pageant, to be held in the Greensboro High School auditorium on Tuesday morning, December 19. The program will not be given at the regular 9:00 o'clock chapel period, but will be held at 11:00 o'clock. This change in time has been made so that parents and other outside guests may attend the program with less inconvenience.

The pageant will depict the spiritual side of the Christmas season, telling the Biblical story of the birth of the Christ Child. It will be given in pantomime form, supplemented by a narrator.

Characters Chosen

Members of the cast are from the Senior class, and any Senior member of the seventh period study hall was eligible to participate in the production. Marie Sizemore will take the part of Mary, while Andrew Bristow will portray Joseph. Betty Mitchell will be the Angel Gabriel. A choir of 20 of the heavenly host will also be used in several scenes.

Wise Men will be Tiny Burtner, Bob Johnson and Charles Casey. The part of the shepherds will be taken by Norman Schlosser, Jerry Bryan, Vance Scoggins, Bill Luper, Joe Wilhelm, Rene Zapata and Elliot Solomon.

Mary's mother will be portrayed by Carolyn Lentz. Lyndon Anthony is to be the innkeeper. Bob Murray will take the part of a rich man, and Jim Moser will be his servant. Scribes will be Ralph Barnes and Berman Royal, while George Ribonson and Clifton Metz will be Roman soldiers. The part of Herod the King will be taken by Mike Floyd. Bob Murray will be the minister.

Women in the scenes will be Jan Austin, Margie Fowler, Elaine Leonard and Patsy Rierson. Children from the nursery school, held in the cafeteria building, will also take part in some of the scenes. The reader throughout the entire program will be Jack Ogburn.

Music Furnished

Music for the program will be furnished by the orchestra, under the direction of J. Kimball Harriman and Robert Fredrickson, and by the choir, under the direction of Miss Eula Mae Tuttle. Two special innovations are to be in store for the students. These will come as complete surprises to the audience, and have never before been used in the Senior High School Christmas pageant.

Faculty Participation

The pageant is being given under the direction of Mrs. Nellie Blackburn and Miss Sara Mims. Mr. Jack S. Luttrell is in charge of the various props, the lighting and the special effects.

True Christmas Spirit

Among those donating to a worthy cause are Charles Casey, E. N. Hale, Jackie Aulbert, Rosalind Fordham, Carol Ann Lee, Jerry Goldstein, and Skippy Montgomery.

Dallas Wallace Receives Appointment to Annapolis

Dallas Wallace, a former student of Greensboro Senior High School, has had the honor of receiving an appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy. He joined the Navy after graduating in the class of 1949, and he received his appointment to Annapolis through Congressman Carl T. Durham. Dallas is now midshipman fourth class and is also a member of the academy's marching band.

Dallas Wallace

Valuable Oratorical Contest Is Available to Juniors and Seniors

One of the biggest contests open to juniors and seniors this year is an international oratorical contest, "Live Safely . . . Live Happily." The award for the international winner of the contest is $4,000.

This award will be a $4,000 scholarship which will be presented to the high school junior or senior who delivers the best oration on the theme, "Live Safely . . . Live Happily." This award will be set up in a trust fund for the winner. To the school that produces the winner, $1,000 will be awarded to be used for any purpose the school principal chooses.

There will be international, regional, state and local contests. In each contest there will be three judges. Each judge will base his decision on both the composition and delivery. The judge will not see the oration in its written form, but will make his decision, both as the composition and the delivery, as the oration is given by the contestant.

No exact dates have been set except for the regional and international contests. However, a winner must be chosen from Senior by February 3.

CONTEST RULES

1. Contestants must be either juniors or seniors.
2. The oration must be the original of each contestant. The same prepared oration must be used throughout the contest.
3. The oration must require not less than 10 minutes nor more than 12 minutes.
4. The contestants will memorize his oration but may use cards for reference while giving the address.

Mutual of Omaha will provide transportation for regional winners from their homes to New York for the international contest. For further information concerning the contest contact Miss Mozelle Causey in room 307.

Stage Crew Members Are Announced

Mr. L. W. Anderson, Dean of Boys, announces that the stage crew members for 1950-51 have been chosen. Mr. Anderson is the faculty adviser.

It is the job of the stage crew members to regulate the lighting sound effects, and props, connected with the assemblies and productions. The following boys have been selected: Buddy Barker (stage manager), Sam Sox, Robert Dever, Joseph Hall, Jack Carter, Jay Royal, Everett Ellinwood, Moses Scarborough, Garland Coble, Frank Matthews, Bob Bell, Billy Luper, Buddy Haynes, Jack Coleman, Jim Utley, Jimmy Spears, Sam Price, Harry Haynes, Milton Aderfor, and Bobby Kriegsmann.