

Ragtime Jubilee Is Given By Choir and Orchestra

The Ragtime Jubilee, a minstrel presented by the Senior High Choir and Orchestra, was given in two performances last Thursday afternoon and Friday night.

This most delightful minstrel was filled to capacity with song, dance, and verse, skillfully rendered by the Seniorites.

The end men (commonly described as joking darkies) kept not only the audience roaring, but the cast itself.

One of the most entertaining features of this production was the "Hot Cha Opera in Z Flat Minor" (notice the key, please). With the variations of foot movement, facial expressions, and the numerous arm-swinging hot-chas, this opera may well be said to have gone over hilariously with everyone.

The flappers really kept the audience's mouth flapping with the Varsity Drag, Black Bottom, and the Charleston. Ah! those spit curls!

Bob Stigall held the audience's attention with his strictly professional-like piano solo, "My Hero" from the "Chocolate Soldier."

Petite Kat Wall and Elaine Leonard gave a fine interpretation dance to the tune of "Shortnin' Bread," ably aided by the singing of the choir.

Ruth Hawkins added her bit of operatic genius with her rendition of "Wonderful One."

Lacy Fogleman and Jim Moser did more than justice to "Old Man River" and "Dinah," respectively. "Make Believe" by Lane McGregor and Paul Berry added that wonderful bit of romantic spice to the entire spectacle. And the entire cast gave a marvelous performance that was appreciated and applauded by all GHS'ers attending. Miss Tuttle deserves a big pat on the back for the grand directing job she did to promote a success, that will remain long in the memory of the students.

Here's hoping that all of you GHS'ers have the best Christmas ever, and we'll see you all next year!
