Carl Brooks, leading a nov-elly band, was awarded first prize in the Torchlight Talent Show, held Tpesday. Second prize went to the King's Men, Sentor High quartet, and Hope Owenby received honorable mention.

HI From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

Easter holidays begin today at noon and will continue through Monday, March 26. Classes will begin on Tuesday morning at the regular time.

NUMBER 9

VOLUME XXVII

Senior Class Plans Are Now Underway

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C., MARCH 23, 1951

Torchlighters Attend State Convention Held in Salisbury

The annual state convention of the National Honor Society was held in Salisbury on March 16-17. Oficial delegates from Senior High School were Bobby Brown, Marie Sizemore, Jerry Anne Moore and Norma Veney. Chapters were en-titled to send one official delegate or each ten members. Unofficial delegates from Senior Were Barbara Whittington, Connie Curry, Carolyn Lentz, Barbara Cashwell, June 1dol, Joyce Web-ster, Betty Jane Davis, and Jo Ann Moore. These students left with the official delegation at 8 o'clock on Friday morning, March 16. They the official group remained in Salis-bury for a business meeting on Saurday morning.

Tapping by Host

Tapping by Host The opening meeting of the con-brention, held at Salisbury's Boyden High School, featured a tapping by the host society. After a short gen-eral meeting, delegates were served unch at the school cafeteria. In the afternoon, a play was pre-sented by the Masque and Wig, Salisbury High School dramatics group. Discussion groups were then held, with each delegate attending wo discussion sessions. Marie Size-more, president of Senior's chapter, Torchlight, led one of these dis-cussions on the subject, "What Do the School and Community Expect of National Honor Society Mem-bers".

Banquet at Catawba

Banquet at Catawba A banquet was held that night in he dining hall of Catawba College. Dr. I. G. Greer of the University of North Carolina addressed the convention at this time. Following the banquet, recreation was held at the high school gymnasium. At the Saturday morning meet-ing, elections were held. Norma Veney, delegate from Senior, was a candidate for the office of state secretary. At this time, it was an-nounced that the convention next year will be held in Asheville.

High Life Earns Top Journalistic Rating

Senior's newspaper, HIGH LIFE, entered the Columbia Scholastic Press Association's 1951 contest and has received a first-place rating. rating.

rating. Newspapers are rated on content, writing, editing, make-up and ad-vertising. From a possible 1,000 points, a newspaper must receive between 850 and 1,000 to attain a first-place rating. The five ratings which a newspaper might receive are: medalist, first place, second place, third place, and fourth place. A medaist rating is awarded publi-cations from the first place group for outstanding qualities; however, not more than 10 per cent of these first place papers can receive this rating.

The 1951 contest was held in New York City on March 8, 9, and 10, at which time papers from the (Continued on Page Six)

Citizenship Honor Roll

Thomor Koll Names of students on the Gitizenship Honor Roll for the Senior Class, Lyndon Anthony and Janet Greene; from the Junior Class, Steve Leonard and Norma Veney; from the Sophomore Class, John Sava-tot and Virginia Redhead. One boy and one girl from each homeroom is nominated for this honor every six weeks. A ballot is then compiled and the final list is chosen by faculty vote.

Student members of the planning committee for the D.O. and D.E. annual Boss's Banquet are, from left to right, seated, Jean Mauldin and Mary Ann Johnson; standing, Jim Cockman, Wilbur Covert, Jack Lackey, Max Mitchell and Bob McIntyre.

D. O. and D. E. Classes Have Boss's Banquet

School classes in Diversified Occu-pations and Distributive Education. The Masonic Temple was the scene of the banquet, held at 7:30 P.M. on March 21. Approximately 250 students, employers and special guests, including several former D.O. and D.E. students, were present ent. A student planning committee, made up of presidents of the vari-ous D.O. and D.E. classes, made preparatinos for the event and out-lined the program. Committee members included Jean Mauldin, Jimmy Cockman, Bob McIntyre, Wilbur Covert, Bob Patick and Max Mitchell.

Amid colored eggs, papier mache Easter rabbits and a general at-mosphere of legerdemain, the eighth annual Boss's Banquet was held by students of the Senior High Magicians. This annual banquet provides an opportunity for the student and the employer to meet in social sur-roundings. Traditional in the D.O. and D.E. program, students from every class work together in the planning and execution of the af-fair. Vocational coordinators are Miss Luiclle Browne, Mrs. Grace Illman, R. Thorpe Jones and Mrs. Margaret Hodden.

Evelyn Dermatis Wins Good Manners Award

Each year, "The Emily Post Blue Book of Etiquette" is awarded to

Band Concert Given For Kiwanis Club

On Thursday, March 15, the Greensboro High School Band pre-sented its annual spring concert. This year it was given in honor of the Greensboro Kiwanis Club.

of the Greensboro Kiwanis Club. Howard Carr, president of the Kiwanis Club, presented B. L. Smith, Superintendent of the City Schools, with a new one hundred and twenty-five piece outfit of uni-forms. Mr. Smith accepted the gift with these words, "This is the finest thing I have ever known a civic club to do."

Thenew uniforms are navy blue and white. The trousers are trim-med white. The trousers are trim-med with a two-inch stripe of white and the coat has silver buttons with a large white patch on each shoulder. On these patches are symbolized the statue of General Greene located at Battle Ground. The uniform also has white and navy ensign style hats with spats and white across the belts to be used for marching purposes. The concert contained the fol-lowing numbers, directed by Her-bert Hazelman, with David Arner as associate director: Russlan and Ludmilla Overture, Michael Glin-ka; Symphony in D Minor, Cesar Franck; The Conqueror March, Charles Teike; Kiss Me Kate, Por-ter-Yoder; Hora Staccato, Dinicu-Heifetz; Kentucky March, Gold-mai, Prairie Legend, Elie Sieg-meister; Italian Polka, Rachmani-noff; Rhapsody in Blue, Gershwin-Grofe. The band has been under the dinoff; Rhapsody in Blue, Gershwin-Grofe. The band has been under the di-rection of Herbert Hazelman since 1934, and under his drection it has risen to one of the top-rank-ing bands in the state. The band is now preparing for the annual spring competition at W.C.U.N.C. in which they will play against other high schools in the state.

Eva Newlin Wins Duke Scholarship

JURC SCHOLATSMIP Eva Newlin, senior here at G. H. S., is one of three girls in the state to win the Angier B. Duke scholarship, having a maximur value of $3,000, for four years' studies. Eva is the first girl from Senior High to receive this honor. Greensboro boys winning the scholarship have been Zack Piephoff and Bob Greeson. Eva, along with two other G. H. S. students, Betty Mitchell and Billy Crow-der, attended finals at Duke on March 16.

ManyCommittees Are Formed: Activities Begin To Take Shape

Begin to take Shape Since the beginning of the sec-ond semester, work on the activi-ties of Senior Week and graduation has been underway. Committee assignments were given to faculty members early in the semester, and they in turn chose students to work with them. Senior week activities will begin or Friday, May 25, with Class Day exercises. The traditional Class Day program will be held in the auditorium at the regular chapel period, and at this time, the Class reat and a summary of the class' activities will be given. This pro-gram is written and produced by members of the Senior Class. Miss Mozelle Causey is chairman of the Class Day committee, with Miss Eula Mae Tuttle acting as co-chairman. Student co-chairmen are Bob Murray and Barbara Hutton. Charlotte Colson and Tommy Hu-bert are in charge of the Class Prophecy. The Last Well and Test-ament will be composed by Evelyn Dermatis, Barbara Hutton, Betty Jones, and Jane Edawards. Connie Curry is in charge of the general script.

Script.
Other committee members are John David Ellington Abbic Keyes, Ruth Hawkins, Carl Brooks, Betty Jo Benfield, Betsy Wright, Betty Mitchell and Camille Schiffman. Other students will be added to the committee as they are needed. Miss Causey expressed the hope that each Senior will be able to participate in the preparation and presentation of this program in some way. The first meeting of this committee was held on February 28, when general plans are made.
Plans Made for Luncheon Will also be held on Class Day. Reservations have already been made at the Starmount Forest Country Clubhouse, and the Iuncheon will be bed there. Faculty co-chairmen of this comittee are Miss Dorothy Scott and Miss Margie Gabriel. Students working with them will be Bob Murray, Carl Brooks, Evelyn Dermatis, Connie Curry, Barbara Cashwell, Jerine Steifle, Pat Thorp, Janie Stanley, Julia Thomas, Jan Thomas, Margaret Underwood, Pat Newnam, Paul Berry, Jerry Smyre, Betty O'Connor, Frances Minor, Letha Jennings, Jane Dabbs, Barbara Wilson and Henrietta Bell. A theater party for Seniors will be held in the afternoon, following the luncheon. The Junior-Senior Prom, or Commencement Dance, will be held at the Youth Center that night. This is under the auspices of the Student Council, and all Senior High School students are included in this affair.
Baccalaureate Sermon Planned The Baccalaureate Sermon Planned. The Baccalaureate Sermon will be held at the First Breist Church, with the pastor, Dr. Claud Bowen, deivering the address. This service is rotated each year, taking place at the First Presbyterian Church, the West Market Street Methodist Church and the First Baptist Church and the First Baptist Church and the First Baptist Church in turn. Class officers will serve on the committee planning this.
The graduation exercises will be held in the Stenior High School students an unber of times, and was the guest or of a Methodist church in High Point will be held at the morning a