

Pictured above are the newly-elected marshals. They are all members of the Junior Class. They are (left to right, front row Joyer, (be, Charies Heft to , Wharton, Ann Flaherty Dottie Crews, and Ken Barber; (back row, left to Branch Crawford, Jackie Scott, and Barbara Prago.

Duke Scholarship AnnouncementMade gier B. Duke scholarship to Duke University has been made by the Angier Duke Regional Prize Committee. Nine prizes of $$ 750$ each are annually awarded to six men and three women.

The winners are chosen upon the basis of tests to be administered later in the school year. The prizes later in the school year. The prizes are awarded for only one year but they are renewable from year but they are renewable from yea years on the condition that holder maintain an average in the upper quartile of his class. Leadership is the basis for the original selection. The total value received by a winner for the entire four years is $$ 3,000$. To be eligible, the contestant must be a resident of the State or North Carolina regardless of where North Carolina regardless of where he or she prepares for college. A he or she prepares for college. A candidate may be a graduate o or private, located within or be yond the borders of the state. A candidate must be eligible for admission to the freshman class of A scholastic standing in the highest 25 per cent of his or her class must be attained at the close of must be attained at the close o his or her most recently completed semester.
The objective of this scholarship is to help develop leaders out of those students who show definite or potential qualities of leadership. The prizes are designed to stimulate character, personality, intellectual integrity, vitality, and imag tual integrity, vitality, and with a ination to become citizens genuine interest in society and an ability to influence and direct the course of affairs.
Greensboro Senior High Schoo has had three winners in the past four years. These winners are Zack Piephoff, Bob Greeson, and Eva Newlin.

School Calendar

October 5, Friday-Sophomore

Octions. 8 , Monday-Final elec-October tion.
October 11, Thursday - Student Council Assembly. October 16, Tuesday - Billy Graham.

Torchlight Election On Tuesday, October 2, Torch light chose its officers for the president and Norma Veney took the vice-president's post. Carol the vice-president's post. Carol Stroud was chosen secretary. Stroud was chosen secretary.
The meeting was held in 106 and plans were made for College ed as soon as the new members are inducted.

Causey in Charge

 Of Speaking Conlesi
All potential orators of Greens ro Senior High School should si up and take notice of the ensuinginformation. All the following coninformation. All the following contests to test the oratorical abilities of high school orators are to those who are interested. to those who are interested. this series is the "I Speak for is open to students now in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades It is under the co-sponsorship of the National Association of Radio and Television Manufacturers Asand Television Manufacturers As sociation. The sole purpose of this sociaten. The sole purpose or this thinking and talking about democ racy. Rules and other data on the contest can be obtained by seeing Miss Causey in Room 307 . seeing Miss Causey in Room 307. Another contést of this type is the High School World Peace and Speaking Program. Greensboro High School has been invited to participate in this contest. This contest is local in nature and may contest is local in nature and may the scholastic year. There is a registration fee of $$ 5$ for schools in istration fee of North Carolina. The winning contestant will receive a World Peace Gold Key. Anyone interested should contact Miss Causey, The other contest in this series is "What Is Freedom?" This contest is under the sponsorship of the Holmes-Darst Coal Corporation. The subject of course is, "What Is Freedom?" It Is open to all members of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. First prize in this contest is $$ 500$ cash with succeeding prizes down to $$ 10$. In addition to the cash prize, if the winner is picked from G. M. S., the Parent Teachers' Association will receive $$ 50$ as complimentary gift. All entries should be in no gift. All entries should October 15 .

Marshals Are Elected For School Functions
The junior marshals are responsible for ushering and greeting visitors at the high school funcions. In the high school functions. In the past the marshals have been elected in the spring have been elected in the spring; this fall, since there are many functions at which the marshals should Each of the junior home rooms elected two members. The follow-Home room 6: Anne Fullton and Home room 12: Bertha Mitchell and Bill May. Home room 22: Kate Wharton Home room 23: Barbara Prago and Tommy Pearce Home room 10 and Rodney Edwards.
Home room 302. ford and Howard Stanley Home room 304: Jackie Scott and Arthur Scott.
Home room 305: Joyce Lee and avid Kersey.
Home room 311: Dottie Crew nd Branch Crawford.
Home room 313: Jean Barricks Home room 315: Joanne Hutchin The duties of Hutton.
The duties of the marshals are to be present and on duty at al school functions. The main activity

Journalism Classes

 Attend N. C.S.P. A.Members of the Senior High chool journalism class leave today or the annual conference of the North Carolina Scholastic Press Association which is held at Chape Associa
Thill
The borne
The group, including Marion Os on, Martha Moore, Anne Ford ham, Patsy Eways, Beverly Shoff, Grey Egerton, Henry Ferrell and Steve Leonard, will be chaperoned By Mrs. Willia
The girls wi
The girls will stay at the Caro ian Inn while the boys will room in boys' dormitories.

Officers To Assist In Homeroom Programs

The home rooms have elected Officers of room 309 are: presi- year. There are 41 home rooms, and each room elected a president, vice-president, and secretary-treas-tha Se Suddlefield; secretary, Mar-gall vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. It is the officers' duties to help in the administration of the home room program

Senior Homerooms
Among the seniors, Grey Egerton has been elected president o home room 200 Other officers in clude vice-president, Gene Douglas; secretary, Janet Frederick; and treasurer, Everett Ellingwood. treasurer, Everett Ellingwood.
Functionaries of Functionaries of room 4 are:
president, Bobby Gladwell; vicepresident, Bobby Gladwell; vice-president, Rene Heyward; and secretary -treasurer, Shay Harris.
In room 206, Doris Phillips wil fill the position of president. She will be assisted by Sam Pierce vice-president; Becky Phoenix, sec retary; and Martha Pierce, treas retary; and Martha Pierce, treasurer.
Officials in room 106 are: presiOfficials in room 106 are: president, Bob Jackson; vice-president Barbara Kennerly; secretary, Anna Huffines; and treasurer, Martha Jester. following students were The my Smith, president; Tommy der, secretary; and Ray Rumsey In room 10, Bill whedbee, pres ident, will be assisted by vicepresident, Mary Wisseman; secretary, Mary Lee Wells; and treasurer, Rene' Zapata.
Mickey Chamblee will serve as Mickey Chamblee will serve as president of room 27. Toby BrockKathryn Clegg, secretary; and David Brawn, treasurer.
Functionaries of room 25 include Clint LeGette, president; Cather ine McLean, vice-president; Steve Leonard, secretary; and Bob Laughan, treasurer.
President Bill Michael will preside over room 301. Assisting him will be Jimmy Melvin, vice-pres ident; Mary Jane Moring, secre tary; and Tommy Neese, treasurer

Senior Band Plays for

 U. N. C. - State GameThe Greensboro Senior High Marching Band left at 11 A.M. Sat urday morning, September 22, to attend the Carolina-State footbal game at Chapel Hill, N. C. The marching band, directed by Mr Hazelman and assisted by Mr Hazelman and assisted by Mr.
David Arner and Mr. George Toenes, had been invited by the directors of the State and Carolina bands to present a show at the half-time period. Each member of the band was attired in complete marching outfits, belts and spats. The new drum major, Archie Anform, as were the six snappy majorettes.
The half-time show, which lasted approximately six and one-hal minutes, consisted of leter forma tions honoring the respective schools and the playing of the alma mater song for each school. The band, composed of one hundred and twenty members, did a tricky boogie step as it played the "Boogie March" while crossing the field March" while crossing the field between the school songs. It did not join in playing the "Star Spangled Banner" with the State and Carolina bands in the pre-game ceremony, but did have the distinction of being the only band which performed during the halfwhich perfor
The band traveled in three Carolina Trailways buses. Band memlina Trailways buses. Band members carried their lunches with them and ate together before them and ate together before marching to the section which had been previously reserved for them. After the game was over, the band left immediately for Greensboro.
gall.
Among the junior home rooms, Tommy Crowder will serve as president of room 311. Other officials are: vice-president, Dickie Chalk; secretary, Ann Carlson; and treasurer, Branch Crawford, Officers in room 102 include Ann Falk, vice-president; Barbara Farley, secretary; and Jo Ann Eberenz, treasurer.
In room 315, Buster Jenkins was elected president. Other are: vice-president, Ann Hunter secretary, Francis Hosley; and treasurer, Ann Hobbs.
Functionaries of room 305 are: Joe Keller, president; Joyce Lee vice-president; Geraldine Lee, sec rary; and Sherold Klein treasurer. Ann sherold Klein, treasurer Ann McKay, president, will preside over room 12 She will be assisted by: vice-president, Wayne assisted by: vice-president, Ma , treasurer, Shirley McIntyre.
The following students were elected to office in room 23: Unita elected to office in room 23: Unita vice-president; Judy Newnam, retary; and Notra Pegram, treas

President John Sauvajot will preside over room 304. Other officials include: vice-president, Arthur Scott; secretary, Jackie Scott and treasurer, Gary Sheffield. 313 are: Bob Bell, president; Jimmy Armstrong, vice-president; Bob by Boggan, secretary; and Kenneth Barber, treasurer. Elected to office in room 302 are president, Delaine Turner; vicepresident, Robert Thompson; an The following functionaries hav been elected in room 22: president Eddie Yost; vice-president, Sara Walters; secretary, Chris Velonis and treasurer, Alice White Sophomores' Officers Sophomore home rooms have also elected officers. Among these Ann Alexander will act as dent of room 24 . Other officials are: vice-president, Kaye Banner ecretary, Carol Atcheson; and In room 202 the following stul Ints were elected to office: Betty Bell, president: Bob Blanchard vice-president; Cynthia Burns, sec etary; and Sonny Bishop, treas President Barbara Brown will e assisted by Stewart Cass, viceresident; Betty Carson, secretary, and Suzanne Chambler, treasurer Functionaries in room 307 include: president, Marian Corneson; secretary, Barbara Connor and treasurer, Phil Crockett. The following students were lected to office in room 1: presiJimmy Ery Davis; vice-president, Jimmy Egbert; secretary, Helen Davis; and treasurer, Mary Louise Davis.
Sandra Hamby will act as pres dent of room 14. Anne Fordham will perform the duties of vice-president, secretary and treasurer In room 203 officials include: president, Gloria Gilmore; vice president, Jean Griggs; secretary. at Harrison Officers of room 100 are: president, Charles Highfill; vice-presiDal Hicks; and treasurer, Clair Filgedick.
The following students will serve in room 204: Bob Jackson, president; Barbara Kennedy, vice-pres Tommy Kirkman, treasurer.
(Oontimued on Page Three)

