

Torchlight Receives 21 Spring Inductees

Torchlight, Senior's chapter of the National Honor Society, held its Spring Tapping ceremony, February 26. Sixteen Seniors and five Juniors were selected on a basis of Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character.

Anne Wrenn began the ceremony by stating the aims of Torchlight, and was followed by Shay Harris, Dave Wright, Richard Ledbetter, and Carolyn Welch, who spoke on the four phases of the perfect personality, respectively.

Society Challenged

The members of the Honor Society were then challenged to seek out those worthy of being members of Torchlight. These candidates were selected by separate ballots of the students, faculty, and finally, by the members themselves. In order to become a candidate, one must have at least a 90 average throughout his high school career.

The following seniors were tapped: Barbara Beavers, Janet Brooks, Moody Burt, John Butt, Franklin Davis, Sara Ann Hickerson, Christine Hill, Becky Phipps, Carolyn Royal, Emily Sowerby, Nancy Stafford, Ronnie Stanley, Doris Thompson, Rose Waynick, Mary Wiseman, and Valerie Yow.

The five juniors selected were: Ann Carlson, Pat Gregg, Joe Le-Bauer, Joyce Lee, and Virginia Redhead.

Mims Accepts

The students mentioned above were then accepted as members of Torchlight by Miss Sara Mims, faculty advisor, on behalf of the faculty. They were then given the Torchlight Oath by Anne Wrenn, president. This oath is to uphold the aims of the organization and to the entire school. This should be practiced to the best of each member's ability.

Dave Wright is shown after tapping a student for membership in Torchlight, National Honor Society. Twenty-one students were accepted for membership in this society on March 4.
