

GHS Band To Play For Student Body

On April 15, the Greensboro Senior High Band will present to the assembled student body a preview of the music for the forthcoming State Contest to be held in the latter part of April. Selections for this program include warm-up march, "San Lorenza" by di Silva, Wagner's "Prelude and Love Death" is next followed by Mendelson's "Overture for Band." "España Rhapsody" by Chabrier and "An Impression of George Washington's Bridge" by Schuman conclude the list of Contest music. "An American Week-end" by Marrissey will also be performed but it is not included in the music for the Contest.

For several years the Greensboro Band has received "Superior," the highest rating possible, in the State competition. The band chooses the warm-up march and one other selection. The remaining pieces to be performed are selected by the judges from the four named by the band.

Daily Doubles

By Lois Pond

The Daily Doubles this week met last January and started going steady April 23. She is a member of the orchestra and president of homeroom 206; he is a member of the band, Order of the Arrow, and vice-president of homeroom 206. They like to spend their spare time going to the movies and watching T. V. Their favorite food is popcorn. Her pet peeve is people that creep down the halls when she is in a mad dash to get to class; he has no comment. Who are they?

The couple in the last issue of High Life was Mary Ellen Rierson and Bob Phillips.

Negativists Triumph In Triangular Debates

On April 1 DeArmon Hunter and Ann Falk, the negative team of Greensboro Senior High, defeated the Winston-Salem R. J. Reynold High School's affirmative team in a contest at High Point in the annual triangular debates held between High Point, Winston-Salem, and Greensboro.

The topic for debate was "RESOLVED: That All American Citizens Should Be Subject to Conscription for Essential Service in Time of War."

Each speaker in the debate was given a twelve minute time limit on his speech, besides a five minute limit on the rebuttal.

High Point's negative team beat Greensboro's affirmative team of Dave Wright and Barbara Massey at Winston-Salem.

In the next few days the negative teams from the three competing cities will go to Woman's College where district eliminations will be held. The winner from this meet will then advance to Chapel Hill to compete in state finals.
