

Student Council Officers Installed in Assembly

The new student council officers for the school year of 1952-1953 were installed by the out-going president, Bobby Clark, at an assembly held on Thursday, May 8, 1952. The first half of the program was presented by the boys' chorus under the direction of Bob Stigall and Fritz Apple in the absence of their director, Miss Tuttle.

After the installation of the new vice-president, the out-going vice-president, Lane McGregor delivered her farewell address. The student body gave her a standing ovation in recognition of the service she rendered in the capacity of vice-president. Bobby Clark, the retiring president, made his final address to the student body after handing the gavel to his successor, Bill Greene. The student body honored him in the same manner and he left the stage in a round of applause, denoting the thanks of the students for his term as school leader.

Ben L. Smith, Superintendent of the Greensboro Public Schools, presented the Citizenship Awards for the preceding six-weeks period to the following students: Lane McGregor, Rene Zapata, Pat Gregg, Bill Greene, Paul Hennen, and Jo Lynn Jamerson. Mr. Smith stated that it is a high honor to be recognized by students and teachers alike for being an outstanding citizen. He said that America was founded by daring citizens, and her future depends upon future citizens of equal valor.

Lane declared in her address to the student body that at the beginning of her term the "student body was a sea of faces, but each face has become an individual that I have learned to love." The retiring president, Bob Clark, stated "that the Student Council had a successful year, and will have an equally successful one next year, if you, the student body, will back up Bill as you have me."

After the performance of the boys' chorus, Doug Hall led the assembly in a song session. Mr. Johnson judged the different classes, and determined the sophomores as the winners.

The devotional period was led by Mrs. Randolph, the Bible teacher.

Bobby Clark, retiring president of the student body, is shown congratulating the newly elected president for 1952-1953, Bill Greene. After installing Ann Carlson as the new vice-president, Lane McGregor delivered her farewell address and received a standing ovation by the student body for the fine service she rendered to the school during her term as vice-president.

Final Driving Class To Finish On June 10

The students of Greensboro Senior High School should feel very fortunate to have so much co-operation from the citizens of Greensboro in connection with our driving course.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsors the driver's class and the city of Greensboro employs Mr. Dixon who is the teacher for the class. Ingram Motor Company lets the class use a new Ford car for the lessons. Much teaching material is needed and used, so the Kiwanis Club has given that to the class. Gas and insurance are a must. A local gas station and insurance company furnish us with these items.

The fifth and last driving course this year begins on Monday, April 23 through approximately June 10th. Because of the shorter period of time each class will be composed of the regular four.

The people who are taking the course this last time are as follows:

- 9:00-10:00—Sylvia Collins, Carolyn Hester, Shirley Stockard, and alternate Pat Dillon.
- 10:00-11:00 — Patricia Snyder, Della Mae Phillips, Laraine Gregory, and alternate Betty Sawyer.
- 11:00-12:00 — Phillip McGwire, Billy Ellis, Richard Yow, and alternate Donald Varner.
- 1:30-2:30 — Jean Mitchell, Pansy Overcash, Margaret Rierson, and alternate Helen Johnson.
- 2:30-3:30 — Anne Thornlow, Delores Robinson, Eleanor Tidwell, and alternate Joan Prince.
- 3:30-4:30 — Carol Stroud, Nancy Beeson, and Barbara Jamison.
