

Music Notes Senior Appointed To West Point

By (Bess) Bach

"What can I give her for Christmas?" That's a common question this time of year, so let me try to help you answer it now. A gift that will give anyone lasting enjoyment is "The Rogers and Hart Song Book," which is truly worth its $7.50 value. This beautifully illustrated book contains such hits as "Summertime."

"Hits Through the Years," three separate books of hit tunes of yesterday, contains the music to such hits as "Pretty Baby" and "It Had To Be You," and sells for only $1.25 a copy at Moore's Music Company.

You will also find any sheet music your heart desires in Moore's complete sheet music department. The words and music to two of this year's popular Christmas songs, "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus" and "The Song Angels Sing" can be found there.

Everyone enjoys singing hillbilly songs, (although it's hard to beat Kelly Maness and his Piedmont Pals), and Moore's has some good arrangements of hillbilly tunes that are easily learned.

Moore's has a complete recording studio where you can make any type of recording you desire. Milton Alderfer will be glad to assist you with your recordings.

A piano is always an added attraction at a party, for everyone enjoys gathering around to sing, especially with someone like V. A. Redhead playing. Anyone who has high hopes of receiving a piano for Christmas will be thrilled with a Betsy Ross or an Acrosonic piano. These, along with many other famous name pianos, can be purchased — you guessed it — at Moore's!

Any musical instrument makes a good present. If you don't believe me, just ask Lila Ann Tice what she's giving Jim Tunstall for Christmas.

For a Musical Merry Christmas, visit Moore's!

Jimmy Armstrong, a member of the 1953 graduating class, has received announcement of an appointment to West Point Military Academy.

JIMMY ARMSTRONG

After conferring with Carl T. Durham, North Carolina representative, in Chapel Hill last November, Jimmy learned of his appointment only recently.

He will report to Fort Bragg on March 2, 3, and 4 to take rigid physical and mental examinations. If he receives passing marks on both tests, he will enter the academy July 7, 1953.

President of the Senior Class, Jimmy has made an outstanding scholastic and activity record in his high school career. A member of Torchlight, Key Club, president of the Sytt Club, and drum major of the high school band, Jimmy finds time to sandwich a paper route between his activities.

Allen Fry: "Since I met you I can't eat, can't sleep."

Mary Anne Thomas: "Gracious! Why not?"

Allen: "I'm always broke."
