Students In The Spotlight

FORBES RAMSEY

BETTY BELL

JOHNNY CARROLL

Four Greensboro Seniors Noted For Achievements

Four G. H. S. students have been recognized in the past weeks for outstanding work in their respec-tive fields: Forbes Ramsey has ap-peared on a nation-wide television school in the annual D. A. R. citi-zenship contest; Barbara Massey received a $1000 national first prize for or atory; and Johnny Carroll went to France as an Civil Air Patrol exchange cadet. Forbes Ramsey, a senior was se-

Patrol exchange cadet. Forbes Ramsey, a senior was se-lected by the local television sta-tion and school authorities to rep-resent Greensboro on the nation wide program "Youth Takes the Stand". This program concerns the problems of teenagers, and a panel composed of high school students tries to solve them. Forbes left Monday by airplane and arrived in New York that night. This was an all-expense paid trip and, he received $50 savings bond along with an album of Edward R. Murrow's recordings of "I Can Hear It Now." Forbes is a member of the de-

Forbes is a member of the de-bating team. Playmasters, Mono-gram and Key Clubs and is presi-dent of the Senior Y.

National Winner

National Winner "Highway Safety and How to At-tain It" was the topic which won a $1000 scholarship for Barbara Mas-sey from the Knights of Pythias. Barbara won this scholarship to the school of her choice after com-peting with seven other students from all parts of the United States at the national contest in St. Louis, Missouri.

First High Life Free

In accordance with the pol-icy of the paper, this issue of High Life is distributed free of charge to each student and faculty member in the school. Staff members will open the annual subscription drive Mon-day, September 21. Rates will be 50 cents per semester.

One week before the national contest Barbara was at Girls' Na-tion in Washington, D. C., where she was elected Supreme Court Judge.

Foreign Travel

Foreign Travel Johnny Cárroll, G. H. S. senior, traveled over 6000 miles during his three months vacation. Johnny left Charlotte July 17 on board a U. S. Air Force plane en route to Washington, D. C. In Washington he met the four boys from California. Vermont, Michi-gan, and Kentucky with whom he traveled to France. Johnny flew from there by way traveled to France. Johnny flew from there by way of the Azores Islands and Frank-fort, Germany to Brussels, Belgium. After leaving Brussels the quin-tet flew to Paris, where they stayed five days. While there they visited the famous Eiffel Tower, the Arc de Triomphe and even the famous Moulin Rouge.

(Continued on Page Eight)

Tuttle, Madlin Named New Class Advisors

Miss Eula Tuttle, choir and glee club director, has accepted the re-sponsibility of adviser to the Senior Class. Mrs. Dorothy Darnell was adviser to the class during their sophomore and junior years.

sophomore and junior years. Newly appointed Sophomore Class adviser is Mrs. Mary Madlin, head of the Latin department. She will remain with the class through graduation. Junior Class adviser is Miss Es-telle Mitchell. This is her second year with this class. Duties of the clas advier are pri-marily to help the officers of the respective class ur(lertakes.

be 50 cents per semester. After winning the state competition at Winston-Salem last year, Barbara entered the regional meet at Lakeland, Florida on July 4 and captured top honors there. This was the first time the Greensboro Order of Knights of the Pythias had entered a con-testant in the oratorical meet. Ac-cording to Barbara, the same speech, with a few modifications, was used at all three events. Dramatics Major Barbara plans to use the scholar-ship at Northwestern University which is in Evanston, Illinois. She will major in dramatics. Miss Mozelle Causey, dramatic coach, and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. St. Louis trip the second week in St. Louis trip the second week in

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C., SEPT. 18, 1953

13 Teachers Join Faculty 8 Departments Receive Replacements High Life Staff As Staff Increases to Meet Need To Attend NCSPI

Members of the HIGH LIFE staff will attend the North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute at Chapel Hill, October 9-10.

Official delegates to the convention are Martha Jester, editor. Cordelia Goodnight, associate editor, and Martha Burnet, proofreader. This institute is sponsored each year by the School of Journalism, the DAILY TARHEEL, and the N. Department of Public Instruction

Delegates and staff members will stay at the Carolina Inn. Haryy Sylvester, novelist, short story writer, and former foreign editor for the and former foreign editor for the Voice of America program will speak at the opening session on Friday, October 9, at 7:30 p. m. A reception and entertainment will follow the session. Saturday morning and afternoon will be devoted to panel discus-sions on the improvement of news-papers and yearbooks. Meetings which will be held at 10 a. m. on Saturday are Editorial Writing, Sports Writing, and Year-book Problems and Solutions. Fea-ture Writing and Writing and Sell-ing Ads will be discussed at the 11 a. m. meeting, and Newspaper Makeup and Yearbook Procedure at the noon session closing the con-vention. Ma Walter Paschall journalist at the noon session closing the con-vention. Mr. Walter Paschall, journalist and radio commentator, will speak at the closing banquet, to be held at the Carolina Inn, Saturday night. Other panel leaders will include Mr. Weimar Jones, President of the N. C. Press Association, who will discuss editorial writing; and Mr. Charles Lee Smith of Edwards and Broughton High School in Ra-leigh, who will demonstrate the planning of a yearbook.

Photos Being Taken For 53-54 Whirligig

Student photographs for the 1953-54 Whirligig are now being taken by the Redmon Studios in he staff room.

nesday, September 9 with appoint-ments during study halls whenever possible. Sophomores were next in line, and the photographer will be here approximately one more week

Sophomore and junior girls wore white or pastel sweaters with pearls at the neck, and all boys were asked to appear in white annual editor, the percentage of students who have made appointannual editor, the percentage of students who have made appoint-ments is well over that of last year, and the staff is confident that this will also affect the sale of books. Individual appointments have been made through the h o me-rooms, and special problems such as absences are being handled di-rectly through Miss Virginia Pow-ell, Whirligig adviser. Activity, club, and miscellaneous pictures will be taken later in the remester by student photographers and by Martin's Studio of Greens-boro, according to Mary Helen Shelburne, photography editor. Members of the business staff will open the sales campaign about the middle of October. The cost of the books, as in past years, will be $4.50 per copy. Barbara Jamieson, business manager, states that in or-der to meet the budget set up, it will be necessary to sell 1100 copies of the Whirligig.

Among the 71 members of Senior High's teaching staff are 13 new teachers filling positions in printing, home economics, diversified occupations, chemistry, business education, art, biology, math, English, vocal music, and library staff. Mrs. Margaret Malone is again secretary to Mr. Routh. Mr. Edwin G. Cooper, who teaches printing hear at G. H. S. Sophomore Election teams to us from California where

Calendar

Plans for the so p h o m or e elections have been completed by the council committee head-ed by Jimmy Powell. The fol-lowing schedule has been set up for the election of class officers, and council represent-atives: Sept. 16---candidate blanks issued issued Sept. 23-final date for the re-turn of blanks Sept 28-presentation of can-didates Sept. 29, 30-registration-be-fore, after school, and at both lunch periods. Oct. 1-voting

Neerman Correspondent For Greensboro Paper

Marilyn Neerman has recently been appointed correspondent of the city schools for the Greensboro Record.

Circulation and Exchange Editor of High Life, Marilyn assumes the work of City School News report-er in addition to her regular school activities.

Marilyn's duties as a junior member of the Record staff con-sist of compiling into the daily article news which is mailed to her by the elementary and junior high schools in the greater Greensboro area. There are approximately 15 schools on the list. According to her schedule, each school is given a deadline for copy to be printed one day each week. Office hours for calling in small or late articles are 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Marilyn succeeds Martha Jester, present editor of High Life, as cor-respondent.

Barbara Massey is the reporter for Senior High news. In ad-dition to notifying the Record re-porter when there is a news story, she writes feature stories and hu-man interest articles.

comes to us from California where did newspaper work. He attended Syracuse University and the Carnegle Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Cooper's hobbies are swimming, newspaper vork, and dramatics.

NUMBER 16

in Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Cooper's bobbies are swimming, newspaper work, and dramatics. Uur new home economics teach-er, Mrs. Frances Bruce, is a grad-uate of the University of Tennes-see. She also attended Winthrop Colege in Rock Hill, S. C. Col-lecting children's books is her favorite pastime. Another new arrival is Mr. A. B. Raester who teaches Diversified Occupations. Last year he taught at Gray High School in Winston-Salem. His home workshop keeps him busy during his spare time. He is a graduate of Eastern Illi-ous State College. Miss Sarah Yarborough, who is sugar and golf when show our chemistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chemistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chamistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chamistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chamistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chamistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chamistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chamistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chamistry teacher, enjoys bridge, swimming and golf when show our chemistry the sale show our chabama Polytech-nic Institute is Mrs. Jack T. Hern-die Institute is Mrs. Jack T. Hern-the School in Alabama Polytech-is a crouce Frazier, new biology teacher. While Internation vers a she was anember of the May Court. Met Snikley Sherring in the libra-ry is a graduate of Wake Forest, last year he was the librarian at weight M. Brinkley is particularly upressed by the friendliness of the students. An en wath teacher, Mrs. Vir-(Continued on Page Eight)

(Continued on Page Eight)

ta sur III

Philippe Cahen, Parisian guest of the Sidney Cones, is shown above talking in French with Barbara Brown, third period French 3 student. Miss Estelle Mitchell is acting as interpreter for the two. Philippe, who spent three weeks in the U. S. recently, spoke to the classes in both English and French. He likes best about America "the ice cream" and could think of no immediate criticisms of the country. "Les mes-demoiselles sont tres belles," volunteered the 18-year-old Philippe. After three more years of school in Paris, he plans to return to Bos-ton, Massachusetts and the Harvard Business School.

Junior pictures were begun Wed-to complete senior pictures.

shirt, tie, and coat. Senior girls will have pictures made in white blouses open at the throat. According to Bettie Upchurch,