From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

VOLUME XXX

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREEN SBORO, N. C., OCTOBER 2, 1953

NUMBER 2

NROTC Examinations To Be Given Dec. 12

Application blanks for the NROTC examination to be given December 12 may be obtained from Mr. Routh now.

Information on the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps program and the requirements for application to the program are available to Senior boys. To be eligible for consideration for the regular NROTC boys must be between the ages of 17 and 21, unmarried, physically qualified according to Navy standards, and have a high school diploma. ploma. Physical requirements are exact-

Physical requirements are exactly the same as those required of candidates to the U. S. Naval Academy, with general specifications being 20/20 vision in each eye, normal hearing, heart and lung power. Height limits are from 5'6" to 6'2" for boys under 18 and 5'6" to 6'2" for those over 18.

Candidates accepted by the Naval Examining Section for the examination will be sent admission tickets to the testing center for the three-hour aptitude test to be held from 9 a. m. until 12 p. m., December 12.

Students who qualify in the apt-from 9 a. m. until 12 p. m., December 12.

Students who qualify in the aptitude test will be given physical examinations at Navy Recruiting Stations and will be required to file application for entrance into one of the NROTC colleges. Duke University and the University of North Carolina are the only schools with programs of this type in North Carolina. Examinations will be given in Asheville, Chapel Hill, Charlotte, Durham, Fayetteville, Greensboro, High Point, Raleigh, Rocky Mount, Wilmington, and Winston-Salem in North Carolina. Each year there are approximately 50 applicants to the program from Greensboro.

Homecoming Game

Homecoming Game

Sponsored for the homecoming event to be held October 9 were chosen earlier this week by members of the football team and student council.

Asheville High School will also send two sponsors and their escorts who will be presented to the public before the Greensboro - Asheville game next Friday night. Representing the alumni of G. H. S. will be Bill Greene and Ann Carlson, former president and vicepresident of the school.

During the half the Greensboro band will give a special homecoming show.

The 1953 marshalls are shown coming down the steps after their first meeting. They are left to right, first row, Charles Woods, chief, Sue Simmons, D. Ann Welch, Donnie DeSafto, second row, R. B. Arthur, Jean Sutherland, Bobbie Meeks, Rita Boggs, Jimmy Jordan, Tony Shiffman, third row, Janie Flaherty, Holly Diefell, Sue Johnson, Dava Cashwell, Lila Malone, Bob Grant, fourth row, Jerry Lee, Keith Stuart, Tip Noe, Susan Hege, Tom Talar, Gary Hester, and Artie Nellar. Absent when picture was made were Bnck Carson, Ann Pearce, and Frances Thompsan.

Betty Bell To Serve As FTA President

of the Benjamin Lee Smith Chapter of the Future Teachers of America at their first meeting, September

The other officers are Barbara Brown, vice-president, and Nancy Schlag, secretary-treasurer. Assistant-principal Lacy Anderson is the club adviser.

The Greensboro future teachers' club, a member of the national organization, was begun three years ago. Founded in 1951 with 30 members it has grown to a membership

The future teachers meet four times a year for general meetings at which time the program features speakers, movies, and panel discussions. Members also get experience in teaching by helping at Brooks School during their free periods.

83 Sought Top Class Positions Betty Bell was elected president In Sophomore Elections Yesterday

President's Berth Drew 6 Aspirants

Out of a Sophomore Class of 651 students, 83 were seeking office; six for president, eight for vice-president, nine for secretary, three for treasurer, and 57 for council representative.

Those running for president were: John Gardner, Bob Herford, Jimmy Brewer, Walker Lockett. Leon Boggs, and Bill Morrison.

Vice-president office seekers were: James Turner, Nancy Ann Stout, Bill Kellam, Mary Sharpe, Jimmy Stanley, Diane Schwartz. Shirley Smith, and Barbara Mon-

Jimmy Stanley, Diane Schwartz Shirley Smith, and Barbara Mon-

nett.
The office of secretary was sought by: Randy Burnett, Linda Barham, Ann Hudson, Helen Sharpe, Nancy Key, Julia McNairy, Janie Walters, Bunny Marshall, Marsha Felt, and Putsie Dunn.
Those running for treasurer of the class were Dan McConnell, Harwood Meyers, and Jimmy Martin.

Harwood Meyers, and Jimmy Martin.

Council representative drew the largest field of candidates. Those running for the eight posts were Jimmy Andrews, Ann Armstrong, Jessie Allen, Lisa Anderson, Laura Allen, Sue Denny, Ann Deal, Zade Turner, Bobbie Tice, Pasty Ray, Bill Hanna, Pat Haley, Mike Haley, Wayne Griffin, Louis Glascock, Patricia Gilmore, Joanne Haase, Hilda Haithcock, Jay Brame, Angela Butt, Barbara Jessup, Katherine Leonard, Sam LeBauer, Sally Jordan, Gail Kirkman, Eugene Le (Continued on Page Three)

Annual College Day To Be Held October 21

Seven Staff Members To Attend NCSPI

Seven members of the HIGH LIFE staff will leave next Friday to attend the North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute in Chapel

Martha Jester, Cordelia Goodnight, and Martha Burnet are official delegates to the meet. Also attending will be Marilyn Neerman. Harriett Perkins, Lynn Cochran and Mary Louise Shaw. They will be accompanied by Miss Paula Abernethy, HIGH LIFE adviser. The delegates will leave from school Friday and will return after the banquet Saturday night. While in Chapel Hill they will stay at the Carolina Inn.

118 Memberships Bring Waddell Solomon 38 Ford

Waddell Solomon is the recipient of the 1938 Ford given as first prize by the Youth Center in their recent membership drive. He sold 118 memberships.

Second prize winner Michael Weaver won a cashmere syeater. D. Ann Welch also was the recipient of a cashmere sweater. Runners-up in the drive were Kelly Maness, Julie Redhead, Billy Stewart, and Fritz Apple. Those who sold as many as 25 memberships received one free.

Michael Temko, president of the center, announced that over 500 people have joined during the campaign. Those who still want a membership may buy one at the Youth Center.

James Lester Elected President of D. E. Club

James Lester, senior, is the new elected president of the D. I club.

Other officers are Carolyn
Lowdermilk, vice-president; Betty Caviness, secretary; Patsy Leivey, treasurer; Herman Stevens, Mary Jon Greeson, Carolyn Hester and Chalmers Brisson, publicity com-

Junior organization officers are Jerry Varner, president; Kitty Conner, vice-president; Barbara Ingle, secretary; and Beverly Newnam, treasurer.

53-54 Class Marshals Selected By Juniors

Charles Woods To Head Group

To Head Group

Marshals for the year 1953-54 were chosen by the Junior Class on September 17.

The marshals themselves chose their chief, Charles Woods, at their first meeting on Tuesday, September 22. His two assistants will be Bobbie Meeks and Gary Hester.

Each home room selected a boy and a girl to marshal. They are: R. B. Arthur and Rita Boggs, room 317: Buck Carson and Dava Cashwell, room 10: Donnie DeSanto and Holly Deifell, room 23; Bob Grant and Jane Flaherty, room 200; Gary Hester and Susan Hege, room 5: Jimmy Jordan and Sue Johnson, room 14; Jerry Lee and Lila Malone, room 203; Artie Nellar and Bobbie Meeks, room 8: Thomas Noe and Ann Pearce, room 301; Tony Schiffman and Sue Simmons, room 206; Keith Stuart and Jean Sutherland, room 27; Tom Tolar and Frances Thompson, room 100; Charles Woods and D. Ann Welch, room 305.

This group will usher at most of the school functions such as band concerts, May Day, and graduation. At night the girls wear white evening dresses and the boys suits. In the day time the girls as well as boys wear suits.

Miss Penelope Bogart is the new adviser for the group. She succeeds Mrs. Catherine Pierce, last year's director.

Fire Prevention Week To Be Observed Oct. 4-10

"FIRE FEEDS ON CARELESS DEEDS" is the slogan chosen for Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10.

DEEDS" is the slogan chosen for Fire Prevention Week, October 4-10.

An annual event throughout the nation, this week is to emphasize more than ever the need for fire safety. In accordance with this, Senior has elected 47 fire captains to serve throughout the year.

Their main duty is to furnish the homeroom which they represent with any information concerning fire, prevention and safety. They also help in evacuating the building quickly and efficiently during fire drills.

Those elected by the homerooms were Philip MsGwier, Robert Covert, Waddell Solomon, Louis Glascock, Michael Hayes, Richard Yow, Bobby Miller, Dennie Howland, Buck Carson, Forbes Ramsey, Doug White, Bill Hunter, Jimmy Wible, George Cox, Elliott Hole, Billy Lewey, Brad Stone, Kay Banner, Horwood Myers, Roy Southern, Erwin Wade. Larry Holland, Perry Teague, Eddie Fitchett, Craig Gibbons, Bill Tillman, Bob Blanchard, Tom McIver, Don Hemphill, Joe Rockwell, Joe Kerley, Alan Pultz, Dick Robinson, Charles Quinn, Ben Sloan, Don Wall, David Murphy, Charles DeBruhl, Jay Brane, Jerry Neilson, John Albough, B. W. McFarland, Kip Bachtell, Buddy Berrier, and Bill Gamble.

Goodnight To Head Journalism Society

Cordelia Goodnight was elected president of Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, at the first meeting of the year.

Other officers are Martha Jester, vice-president; Bettie Jane Upchurch, secretary; Stewart Colson, treasurer; and Kitten Barringer, project chairman.

Publications staff members nominated membership in the society have been asked to submit samples of their work to be graded by a board of judges. Members are selected on the basis of their scholastic records as well as their creative abilities.

Plans for the coming year include the possible revival of the school literary magazine, HOME-SPUN.

Miss Lucille Browne Named to Post Of Guidance Director in City Schools

Miss Lucille Browne, for a num-er of years D. O. director at Sen-r High, has been designated as a Director of Guidance in the ublic Schools of Greensboro, y the Greensboro Board of Educa-on.

the Director of Guidance in the Public Schools of Greensboro, by the Greensboro Board of Education.

Special emphasis in her work will be placed on the junior and senior high schools, both white and colored. Miss Browne's most definite job will be working with the principals, teachers, and students in any type of guidance activities with those guidance activities which tend to make changes from one school to sanother easier for students.

Even though Miss Browne is working with the following schools—Aycock, Central, Gillespie, Lindley, Proximity, Senior High, Dudley, High, Lincoln, and Price—she will call room 64 in the vocational building at Senior High, headquare to be used for resource materials, counciling purposes, committee and planning meetings, and for any other purposes which the teachers and students colleges consulted and planning meetings, and for any other purposes which the teachers and stents desire.

Greensboro is one of the first cities in the state to have a guidance center to be used for resource materials, counciling purposes, committee and planning meetings, and for any other purposes which the teachers and stents desire.

Greensboro is one of the first cities in the state to have a guidance cities in the state to have a guidance center to be used for the first cities in the state to have a guidance ci