

Thanksgiving Classic Pits Whirlies, Bulls

Clark Representative In Piedmont Beauty Contest

Julianna Clark, a GHS senior, has been selected to represent Greensboro Senior High School at the Piedmont Bowl Beauty Queen Contest taking place in Winston-Salem on Saturday, December 4.

A 5 foot, 3 inch, brown hair, brown-eyed girl, Julianna was sophomore and junior maid of honor in the May Court and besides being in the concert band she is head majorette. Julianna serves on the Student Council as she did also in her sophomore and junior years and is a member of the LSP's. This fall J. C., as she is nick-named, is observing at Brooks.

Her only comment when asked how she felt at being selected to represent Senior was, "Wonderful!"

Julianna will be in the contest in competition with other girls from high schools all over the Piedmont. Players from the visiting teams will choose the winner who will be announced during half-time activities at the game. The dress chosen by J. C. to wear at the judging is pink net. She will carry flowers furnished by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. A banquet for all contestants is set for Friday, December 3, at 6 o'clock. At the game and dance afterwards Julianna will be escorted by a boy of her choice.

D. E. Classes Elect Harris, Carter, Matherly, Chandler 'Most Typical'

Distributive Education Classes have elected four students, a senior boy and girl and a junior boy and girl, for the "Most Typical D. E. Students" of the 1954-55 school year.

Elected for the senior girl was Barbara Harris. This is her second year taking D. E. and she works in the millinery department at Belk's Department Store. Her hours are from 2 o'clock until 6 o'clock Monday through Friday and all day on Saturday.

Hallie Chandler was elected as the junior girl. She is also employed by Belk's, but she works in the sportswear department. She works Monday through Friday from 2 o'clock until 6 o'clock and all day Saturday. This is her first year as a D. E. student.

James Canter holds the title for the senior boy. He is employed by the A&P on Summit Avenue. His hours are from 1 o'clock until 6 o'clock Monday through Thursday and until 8:30 Friday night. He works all day Saturday. His future hope is to be a store manager.

The Junior Distributive Education Class president, Billy Matherly, was chosen as the boy to represent junior D. E. students with the title of the "Most Typical D. E. Student." The A&P on Summit Avenue employs him from 1 o'clock until 6 o'clock Monday through Thursday, until 8:30 on Friday nights, and all day Saturdays.

These students were all placed in the jobs they now hold by Mrs. Margaret Hadden, D. E. teacher,

Annual Receives Top Rating From NSPA; Campaigns Total 1020

GHS's 1954 WHIRLIGIG has recently received the "All American" rating from the National Scholastic Press Association which judges the high school and college yearbooks and newspapers all over the United States.

This award being the highest that a publication may achieve was given to only six of the yearbooks in the entire United States. These six included Senior's yearbook.

Bettie Jane Upchurch served as editor of this edition of WHIRLIGIG; Kitten Barringer, associate editor; Sarah Hornbuckle, art editor; Barbara Jamieson, business manager; Susan Graham, present editor of the publication, served as literary editor, Miss Virginia Powell was adviser for the edition.

THE SCHOLASTIC EDITOR, the national magazine for all student publications, is now in the process of using seventeen of the photographs from the '54 Whirligig throughout their magazine as illustrations of outstanding shots. One of the engravings has appeared on the cover of the magazine.

Sally Durham, business manager of the '55 Whirligig has announced that during the recent sale of the yearbook, 1020 books were purchased. A goal of 1200 had previously been set.

Another sale will be held following the Christmas holidays for all students who did not purchase a book during the first sale. The price will be $5 instead of the previous $4.50.

Bose Ravenel, junior member of the business staff, has recently assumed his responsibilities as the new assistant business manager of WHIRLIGIG.

Two North Carolina colleges are hosts this Thanksgiving week-end to football classics. One is between the rival squads of Duke University and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The other which is generating more interest and enthusiasm at Greensboro Senior High matches two teams, the Whirlies and Durham, representing East and West in the statewide high school competition at spacious Duke University Stadium for the state championship.

"Let Us Be Thankful" Theme For Junior Class Thanksgiving Pageant

"Let Us Be Thankful" was the theme of the traditional Thanksgiving pageant which was presented this morning by the Junior Class in a special holiday assembly.

The production, written by Mrs. Julia Roe and Miss Ida Belle Moore, was narrated by Wayne Griffin. The story of Thanksgiving was depicted in six separate scenes, each dealing with a different phase of the celebration.

The first scene was Demeter, goddess of agriculture heralds. The part of Demeter was filled by Randy Burnett. In the same scene Carole Horney did a solo dance. Accompanying her in the routine were Carol Ann Levy, Fay Kivett, Paula Tuttle, Helen Sharpe, Cynthia Hughes, and Sylvia Gregory.

Scene two showed an Indian war dance, with Bill O'Brien, Buck Hoyle, Tom Hudgins, Doyle Moore, and Jimmy Phillips taking the parts. Thanksgiving in 1621 was depicted in scene three. Playing the part of Governor Bradford was John Gardiner; Miles Standish, Howard Hinshaw; Indian chief, Bill O'Brien; Pilgrim men, Jim Martin, Eddie Murrelle, and Ray Gilbert; Pilgrim women, Carolyn Paschal, Kitty Privett, Sue Spence Pat Gilley, and Betty Simmons.

Acting the part of Abraham Lincoln, when he proclaimed Thanksgiving a national holiday was Nestus Gurley. Josefa Hale was portrayed by Eve Prudom. Moving up to present day, Thanksgiving—1954, the characters were John Horney, as grandfather; Ruby Hohn, grandmother; Mike Powell, father; Amy Hutchinson, mother; Dan White, big brother; and Penny Hines and Kay Kuykendall, daughters.

The final scene brought out further the theme of the production, "Let Us Be Thankful," with Hor-wook Myers cast as the pastor. The choir consisted of Peggy Ross, Shirley Smith, Ruby Hough, Carol Ann Levy, Carol Horney, Helen Sharpe, Bill Kellam, James King, Ellagene Johnson, Joyce Gift, Grady Phillips, Johnny Neese, Jimmy Andrews, and Jane Robertson, Faye Kivett, and Edwin Sapp. The faculty adviser in charge of properties was Mrs. Martha Hundley, assisted by Bill Hanna and Mike Haley. Miss Mary York took over the job of costuming, aided by Louise McGee, Diana Harmon, and Eve Purdom.

Make-up was supervised by Miss Mozelle Causey and junior members of her dramatics class. Those working with her were Barbara Jessup, and Lisa Anderson. Miss Rowena Montague was in charge of the programs. Barbara Tice and Diane Schwartz also worked on this committee.

The organ which supplied the music and was played by Mr. Jack Butarell was furnished by Moore Music Company. The turkey was courtesy of Emile Hodge.

Duke Candidates Meet

Students wishing to be candidates for the Angier B. Duke scholarships to Duke University met in the Conference Room of the library on Thursday, November 4.

From the State of North Carolina eight scholarships will be given to boys and three to girls. The grants are valued at $1,000 per academic year and can be renewed provided scholastic and leadership qualities are continued at the university.

Prizes are awarded on the basis of secondary school scholastic record, college aptitude as shown by tests, extra-curricular activities, participation in church and other activities along with leadership ability, personality, appearance, stability, poise, and vitality.

People eligible from Senior are those in the upper fourth of the Senior Class. Application blanks are available in Mr. A. P. Routh's office. These must be filled out and at Duke offices by December 15.

F. T. A. Club Assisting

Last issue of HIGH LIFE carried an article concerning members of the Future Teachers' Club who are assisting at Brooks. In order to correct any misunderstanding, HIGH LIFE wishes to explain that the girls do not do any actual instructing but are only assisting the regular teachers.

after they started taking the course.

D. E. "Most Typical Students" are shown above at their jobs. Billy Matherly and James Canter are the boy representatives and Barbara Harris and Hallie Chandler the girls elected.

Mr. Robert B. Jamieson, completing his twenty-first year as head football coach at Greensboro, has unveiled a 1954 football squad which stands at the top in the Western conference. The Greensboro Whirlis now venture on to the eastern field of battle to meet Durham, the conference champion from the East.

This decisive battle, previously scheduled for the Durham High School field, is now to be played at Duke University on the afternoon of Friday, November 26, according to an announcement by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association.

Both the Whirlies and the Bulldogs are on top with regard to conference standing. The only blemish on the 9-0-1 season record for Greensboro is a 6-6 tie with the AA team from Reidsville.

Durham's only setback this season was at the hands of these same Greensboro Whirlies. The earlier encounter ended 30-12 with the Greensboro double-wing attack making the difference in the two championship clubs.

Durham is recognized more readily than Greensboro as a state power after their 1953 performance which netted for them not only the eastern title but the state co-championship honors shared with Winston-Salem Reynolds.

Outstanding dates in Greensboro's football history include 1942 when the Whirlies captured the state crown and 1946, the season which ended with eight wins and two ties.

Senior High's 139-piece marching band will accompany their team to Durham. Their halftime show will include excerpts from the most popular programs presented at home games throughout the year. The cheerleader squad led by Mary Ann Boone will lend their support to the occasion.

Mr. L. W. Anderson, assistant principal at GHS, has announced that chartered buses will be available to students planning to attend the game on Friday.

December 2 Date For Navy Band Performance

Monday, December 2, is the date that the United States Navy Band will give their concert at the Greensboro Senior High School.

Two performances will be given. At 2:30 the band will perform before the students of GHS. At 8 p. m. a public performance will be given.

The band under the direction of Com. Charles Brandler makes two tours a year. These tours are made with the permission of President Eisenhower. On the tours the band has been as far west as Arizona and New Mexico. The concert in Greensboro is the last stop before returning to Washington.

In the program, the band will feature several soloists and singers. They feature a soloist in every section of the band.

Bruce Young, a graduate of Senior, is now playing in the band. While at Senior, Bruce was a member of the percussion section and drum major.

Tickets for the performance will be on sale Monday and Tuesday, November 29 and 30 only. Students wishing to see the show will have to get their tickets from their home room teachers on these days. The price of the students' ticket is 50 cents each and the price for the adult tickets are $1.00 and $1.50.