

Seniors Present Pageant

(Continued from Page One)
Jennings as Isiah, and Bob Carlson, Lawrence McCranie, Harold Cable, Roger Pugh, and Ray Knight portraying the part of five Hebrews.

ney Oliver; stage microphone amplifier, David Beacham; and moving props, Ray Gilbert Ed Murrelle, David Patton, and Jim Martin.

The Annunciation included Mary and Gabriel represented by Rita Boggs and Jo Ann Ellington, respectively.

Miss Lottie Burnside supervised make-up and was aided by Janet Loops, Ann Dumaresq, Mary Ann Boone, D. Ann Welch, and Shirley Hinson.

Strains of "Ave Maria" filled the auditorium as the tableau of Mary and Elizabeth was presented with Margie Boren characterized as Elizabeth.

Assisted by a few members of the Senior Class, Miss Maude Carter, and Mrs. Kate Everhart were in charge of costumes and properties, respectively.

One scene featured Richard Johnson as the Scribe; James Ray, the Town Crier; and five Nazarenes portrayed by the cast of the five Hebrews.

The typical Manger Scene included Joseph and Mary with Bob Grant appearing as Joseph.

The tableau of the Shepherds and the Angels starred Brokie Lineweaver, John Schultheis and Jerry Matherly, as shepherds and Eugenia Hickerson Holly Deifell, Clara Alexander Phyllis Brooks, Phyllis Lynch, D. Ann Welch, Lynn Boren, Anne Pearce, Barbara Lindley, Marjorie LeRoy, Sylvia Murphy, Barbara King, Pat Frazier, and Deane Darnell representing the Host of Angels.

Wise Men

Jerry Lee, Tip No, and Roy Southern were cast as the Three Wise Men in the tableau of The Wise Men led by the Star and The Three Wise Men Bringing Gifts.

Herod and the Scribes as a scene featured Banks Ritchie as Herod, Richard Johnson and David Montgomery as the two scribes, Taylor Doggett and Fred Gurkin as the two soldiers, and Donald Williamson as the slave.

Featured in the grand finale as Moderns were Martha Burnet, Rachel Allen, Charles Younce, Artie Neller, and Max Miller. Alex Burnet, Judy Edwards, Mary Jane four little children. Following Ann Hickerson, and Deac Liles were the Dumaresq's reading of the recitation the audience participated in the concluding number — "Joy to the World."

Speech Choir

The 27 students composing the Speech Choir which appeared in graduated form before a large stained glass window were Arthur Balderacchi, Marc Brewer, David Campbell, Norman Oydnic, Keith Stuart, Sandy Tillman, Deane Darnell, Judy Groome, Barbara Harris Becky Motley, Joanne Plott, Nancy Seay, Betty Jane Stamey, Nancy Lou May, Barbara Callisher, Joan Chandler, Joan Darling, Deanna Dickson, Ruth Greenburg, Martha Hobbs, Virginia Honea, Sarah Hornbuckle, Lila Malone, Shelia Vincent, Jerry Paschall, Ed Lashley.

Special Effects

Securing special lighting effects which included dimmed orange tones of sunset twilight effects, were Edwin Wall and David Thomas.

Stage manager was John Stass in charge of the curtain was Sid

JCL Has Program In Annual Meeting

Junior Classical League members held their Christmas program in room 101 at 3:30 on December 13.

Members of the club opened the service by singing "Adeste Fideles." Following the group singing, Graham Talbott read the Roman Saturnalia, which honors the god Saturn, corresponding to our Christmas.

The sing of "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" preceded the lighting of the Christmas candles by club officers, Caroline Sikes, president; Marcia Felt, vice-president; Nancy Key, secretary; and Angela Butt, treasurer, who declare, "Io, Saturn," meaning "Hail, Saturn," as each candle was lit.

Following the lighting of the candles was the singing of the traditional "Silent Night." After this Camille Merriman, portrayed the Christmas Story in English and Jerry Danford reads the Christmas story in Latin taken from Luke 2. The soft strains of "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem" were heard in the background.

Jane Lynch, accompanied by Elizabeth Sutton, offered a vocal solo of "O Holy Night", preceding the Christmas prayer, "For Those Who Have No Christmas", by Nancy Key.

This service was ended with the strains of "Joy to the World".

Six Senoir High Students Chosen Best Citizens

Students representing the three classes were chosen for the Citizenship Honor Roll for the second six weeks grading period as was announced in the Tuesday, December 7, assembly.

Senior representatives are Phyllis Brooks and Bob Cowan; junior, Faye Fuquay and Wayne Griffin; and sophomore, Elizabeth Sutton and Bill O'Brien.

Phyllis is corresponding secretary of Torchlight and a member of Quill and Scroll. The Student Council and Youth Center Council can claim her as a member. Twice before, in her sophomore and junior years, she received the citizenship pin.

Now in Chicago with the band, Bob is traffic chief of GHS. In the recent Torchlight assembly he was tapped into the society.

These two seniors share the superlative of "Most Likely to Succeed."

Wayne is another one of the good citizens in Chicago playing in the band. As in his sophomore year, Wayne was elected to the Student Council by his classmates.

Sharing the junior spotlight as good citizen is Faye. She is secretary of the newly formed Spanish Club, and during her two years has been constantly a special honor roll student. Outside of school, Faye is treasurer of her youth group at the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

Sophomore Bill O'Brien was elected president of his class and also treasurer of the library council. Bill belongs to the Order of the Arrow, a special scouting group.

Sophomore Bill O'Brien was elected president of his class and also treasurer of the library council. Bill belongs to the Order of the Arrow, a special scouting group.

Soph Secretary Secretary of the Sophomore Class is Liz Sutton. In addition to being an honor roll student, Liz is a member of the Junior Classical League, the club for Latin students.

Each home room is responsible for selecting a boy and a girl to compete for the honor. To be eligible one must not have a conduct grade lower than a B and no failing grades. The teachers then choose a boy and girl from each class. These people are given silver citizenship pins worn during the next six weeks as recognition.

Tonight Marks End Of Loft Open Houses

Tonight's Christmas open house held in the Youth Center after the basketball game with Gastonia marks the end of all activities there.

The lease for the Loft runs out at the end of December, and no recreation is planned there over the holidays. The dance tonight is sponsored as usual by the P. T. A. and the City Recreation Department. Tickets are on sale by youth council members here at school for 25 cents each. No tickets are sold at the door.

Since this is the last event scheduled at the Center, Brokie Lineweaver, president of the council, says it is planned as one of the biggest open houses held there. He urged, "I want to see everybody up there after the game to give the Center a big farewell."

The closing of the Youth Center does not, however, mark the end of open houses. Beginning in January the affairs will be held in the girls' gym after all week-end games.

On Friday, December 3, another dance was held after the game with Tri-City. Co-sponsors for this were the same as for the celebration tonight.

Clyde Watson and his orchestra supplied the music and the snack bar was operated by the Gamma Gamma chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority. Members of the clubs chaperoned along with representatives of the Kiwanis Club.

34 SENIORS

(Continued From Page One)

kins; room 10, Ruth Hunt, Terry Johnson; room 309, Jane McLennon; room 300, Jerry Mann, William David Miller; room 1, Jerry Oakley, Jean Ogburn; room 103, Judy Shallane, Roger Shepherd, Libby Smathers; room 7, James Spence; room 313, Bob Willett.

Mrs. Blanche Smith averages the senior and junior grades to determine if they have made special or regular honor roll. Mrs. Jessie Gorrell averages the sophomore grades.

THE LOTUS RESTAURANT

AMERICAN AND CHINESE FOOD
105 South Greene St.

We Prepare Chinese Food To Take Out

CAMPBELL'S GRILL

for thick, creamy milkshakes all kinds of sandwiches and quick, efficient service

1620 FRIENDLY ROAD

BURTNER Furniture Company

312 S. Elm St. Established 1909 900 E. Green St. Greensboro, N. C. High Point, N. C.

Phone 8417

Phone 9861

SEASON'S GREETINGS

BELK'S

DEPARTMENT STORE

TIPPET'S VARIETY STORE

ANYTHING YOU NEED
1106 ASHEBORO STREET

SUMMIT FURNITURE & GIFT SHOP

Summit Shopping Center
Distinctive Home Accessories

Stop and Shop Store

1230 S. ELM
Phone 7076

JIMMY PHILLIPS

GINNA SPARLING

IKE LINDLEY'S ESSO

1820 BATTLEGROUND

"For The Finest In Service"

S Y K E S SHOE SHOP Shine Parlor

Quality and Service

We Dye Shoes All Colors

105 N. GREENE

Irving Park Delicatessen

1628 BATTLEGROUND AVENUE
CURB SERVICE

Delicious Sandwiches

Fountain Service