Golfers Begin '55 Season With Win Over Reynolds

By Jim Martin
"Let's all go to the GGO!" That's the subject which all of the Greensboro golf enthusiasts are interested in this month. Bus, around GHS the golf team has already gone into action. Coach Bob Jamieson has a tough schedule for the Whirlie amateurs to tangle with at home and away from home. Starmount

Forest Golf Course is the home course for the locals, and many of the golf team members are well acquainted with it from past experience.

Big, left-handed Ed Sweetman, an old veteran and winner of the 1954 Golf Trophy, is proving to be very tough competition for the number-one man on the team of the Whirlie opposition. Ed was victorious in his first match and also won the medalist honors with a score of 76 against Winston-Salem in the same contest.

Other golf returnees are R. B. Arthur, Gene Smith, Ed Morrissett, Jack Reeves, Tom Wagg, Mike Weaver, Steve Talley, Jim Martin, and Guy McGraw. An outstanding new-comer is Bradley Anderson, a sophomore who ranked in with the Whirlie cagers this season.

Hugh Blair, Bob Byrum, Fred Gillespie, Hal Haskins, and Larry Brown are also new to the Whirlie list of golfers. They are seeing much action on the Greensboro Country Club Course playing challenge matches.

On April 1, a Whirlie team of six proved to be too much for the Winston-Salem duffers. The Whirlie pros gave 2 1/2 to 6 1/2 defeat to the Reynolds High shanks who were playing on their home course. Here are the results: Sweetman (G'boro) defeated Dixon 2-1, Arthur (G'boro) defeated Bennett 3-0, Morrissett (G'boro) defeated Allen 3-0, Marr (W-S) over Reeves 2 1/2-1/2, and Anderson (G'boro) tied up John Marr at 1 1/2-1 1/2. The members of the team played in the position number in which they were named.

G'boro Baseballers Claim 5-1 Record; Outwait Burlington For 2-1 Decision

Greensboro, capitalizing on the effective pitching of Wilson Carruthers and ten base hits, outwaited Burlington for a 2-1 decision last Friday.

After Burlington took the lead in the fifth inning with one run, Greensboro centerfielder C. W. Bolling clouted a home run over centerfield. Greensboro squeezed in another run during the inning for the 2-1 lead.

The spasmodic bursts of hitting during this inning then broke up what was developing into a pitcher's duel.

Paul Sams and Tom Nance led the locals in the hits department with two each. Burlington was paced by first baseman Miles with three hits.

Trek With Tracksters

Look familiar? Of course he does. Add a helmet, shoulder pads, and a pigskin tucked under that arm and you would swear its Senior's consistent halfback, number 32, Lou Glascock.

Lou has donned his racing togs along with approximately 35 other trackmen to initiate the '55 season.

Versatility personified, Coach Lody Glenn, has switched from the grappling hopefuls to the track team. He has had the boys running everywhere for over two weeks.

Louis, along with Ed Schenck and Paul Amons, monopolizes the hurdles department — both high and low.

Perhaps the teams' real star is lanky Dave Scurlock, famed all-state member of the Whirlie basketball team. Dave holds the state record in 188-yard event from last year.

The tracksters are pointing toward honors at the state meet to be held later this spring in Chapel Hill.

Coach Julian Smith's baseballers have started off the '54-55 season in fine fashion, having already amassed an unblemished record of four wins against no losses. Gastonia, last year's league champion have already felt the effect of Smith's squad, getting mauled 9-6 in the opening game of the season.

That game between the two clubs opened their conference season. Since then, the Whirlwinds have whizzed by three other teams with Burlington the only Western AAA member.

Carruthers, Ritchie Pitch Wilson Carruthers, fiery pitcher, took complete control of the Burlington game from atop the mound as he came through with his second superb performance of the year. He pitched the home team to a 2-1 win, running the Whirlies' streak to four in a row.

"Woody" allowed just five hits, three more than 7-5 winning effort against Reidsville.

Banks Ritchie continued to show his prowess over highly-tanted Gastonia, leading the Whirlies to a 9-6 victory. Last year, the three lettermen shut out the Green Wave 1-0.

At The Bat

Dominating the batters this year is no one player. Shortstop Paul Soms, second baseman Norm Odyne, outfielders Dave Thompson, C. W. Bolling, Richard Hall, Tommy Nance, are the main starters in that department. Bolling to date, holds one main distinction—of having the only homer among the crew.

Swimmers Victorious In Annual Duke Meet

Greensboro's swimming team closed out their 1955 season on Saturday, March 26, with their fourth major victory of the season at Duke University.

The Whirlies conquered three rival North Carolina teams—High Point, Raleigh, and Chapel Hill—to add the 16 annual Duke trophy to their growing collection from all over the South.

Tony Schiffman, the man with the winning habit all season, chalked up two more firsts in the 100 and 200 yard events. In the morning qualifying heats, Tony topped his own state record set this year by three seconds.

Of the 89 entries in the all day meet, Greensboro claimed six firsts. Bob Hubner, Greensboro's consistent sprinter, started the meet off with a win in the 50 yard free style. Schiffman's 200 yard victory was followed by a victory by Bob Sawyer's in the 100 yard backstroke. After the second Schiffman first-place, the Whirlies won both relay events.

In the girls' events, High Point took two out of four firsts. Phyllis Glynn, Greensboro's breast-stroker, provided the only first for the local girls.
