

Sarah Hornbuckle recently won a prize in the County Art Festival for her textile print which she is showing in the picture above. With her is her art teacher, Mrs. Jeanette MacArthur.

Hornbuckle Prize Winner InCounty's Arts Festival

Sarah Hornbuckle, a GHS senior, took first prize in the Textile Division of the fourth annual Guilford 'County Fine Arts Festival, held in the Fellowship Hall of the West Market Street Methodist Church here in Greensboro.

Prizes were awarded in virtually every field of fine arts, and the work of the participants was on exhibit from Friday, April 15 through Sunday, April 17.

Entries were grouped in such categories as oil paintings, drawings, water colors, three dimensionals, textile designs, furniture and industrial, all in the amateur division. Professional exhibits in cluded music, oil paintings, three dimensionals, textile, jewelry, camera studies, and the special exhibit of Joseph W. Kings' portrait, Madonna of the Storm.

The festival was directed by the Fine Arts Festival Association of

The festival was directed by the Fine Arts Festival Association of Guilford County and The Greens-noro Woman's Club.

Judges were: Robert Lee Humber of Greenville, chairman of the executive committee of the North Carolina Art Society; Mrs. Sam Ragan of Raleigh, editor of the state P. T. A. Bulletin; and Rama Stringfield, Charlotte musician.

For the first time in the history of the festival, high school and college students were permitted to enter. It is restricted to the Guilford County artists, many of Pilot Life Insurance Co.

Made By Sophomores

William Shakespeare's play, "Julius Caesar" is a common name among sophomore English students who have recently finished their study of the play, are now beginning their study.

ginning their study.

Julius Caesar projects are required by some of the teachers.

Mrs. Margaret Garrett's first period English class completed their projects April 5.

These ranged from swords of Shakespeare's time to sculptured heads of Julius Caesar. Several students gave a soliloquay of certain selections written by Shakespeare.

Other projects were a model of

Other projects were a model of an amphitheatre where Shakespearian plays were given, portraits of Shakespeare, maps of Europe, a soap model of a garden of the 16th century, soap carvings of the heads of Caesar and Shakespeare and some dolls dressed to represent people of Rome. Projects of Miss Mims' fourth period class were due April 6. One of the most unusual ones was a flour, water, and salt map of Europe colored with vegetable coloring.

FESMIRE'S MEN'S WEAR

SUMMIT SHOPPING CENTER

"Finest In Young Men's Wear"

YOU'RE INVITED, GALS COME ON OUT TO BENLEE'S

WOMEN'S FASHION APPAREL

Now Open in the Summit Shopping Center Featuring: DRESSES, LINGERIE, HOSIERY

Sportswear and Playclothes

FASHIONS YOU LOVE

NAMES YOU KNOW ---

BENLEE'S

SUMMIT SHOPPING CENTER

Members Of Rainbow 121 Seniors Contemplating Hold Bazaar, Supper

Hold Bazaar, Supper Order of the Rainbow for Girls held a bazaar and spaghetti supper on April 13, at the Masonic Temple from five to seven p. m. Through the month of March and the early part of April, members met and worked on various handwork to be sold. Things such as aprons, ceramic and shell earrings, homemade candies, cakes, cookies, place mats, table cloths, and bridge sets were all made and sold at a reasonable price. Meetings were held weekly at the homes of Betty Thorp and Sylvia Willard and all members who were able, attended them to help out with the project.

Profits, which ran approximately one hundred dollars, will go towards charity and service projects. A portion of the money will be used to help finance a beach trip, which is planned for the second week in June.

All Rainbow girls are required to attend one church service together in honor of their founder Mark W. Sexton. The Greensboro assembly sat in a body on April 17 at the Asheboro Street Baptist Church, where Rev. A. L. Parker is pastor.

In a meeting March 28, Miss Linda Marsh, Worthy Adviser, announced that the North Carolina Grand Assembly would be held June 26-28. The state meeting will be held in Asheboro during the meetings.

An initiation of 34 girls will be held on May 2 at the Masonic

An initiation of 34 girls will be held on May 2 at the Masonic Temple.

Orchestra Gives Season Concert

Under the direction of Mr. J. Kimball Harriman, director, the Greensboro Senior High School

Greensboro Senior High School
Orchestra presented a spring concert to the student body on April in the school auditorium.
The program consisted of six numbers, three of which the orchestra will play tonight at 8 p.
m. in the music contest at Aycock Auditorium.
The other two numbers which

The other two numbers which were played for the student body were "Berceuse" by Maganini, and "The Dance of the Comedians" taken from the opera "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana.

Mr. Robert Frederickson, assistant orchestra director, conducted the orchestra director, conducted the orchester in "The Barber of Seville Overture" by Rossini. This number was played by the orchestra at a concert in Boone, North Carolina.

Appearing last on the student

Carolina.

Appearing last on the student program was a Rodgers and Hammerstein favorite, "South Pacific." The melodies included in "South Pacific" were: "Some Enchanted Evening," "Bloody Mary," "There Is Nothin' Like a Dame," "Bali Ha'i," "I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Outa My Hair," "A Wonderful Guy," "Happy Talk," "Honey Bun," and "This Nearly Was Mine." "June Is Bust'in Out All Over"

Trip To Washington, D.C.

Girls Number 74

athletic director.

Girls Number 74

Girls planning the trip are Fran Ahalt, Jerry Allen, Rachel Allen, Sandra Bentz, Rita Boggs, Mary Anne Boone, Lynn Boren, Margie Boren, Emily Bowles, Anne Bryant, Joyce Byars, Mary Ruth Carlton, Kitty Connor, Deane Darnell, Carol Dillon, Deanna Dickson, Ann Dumaresq, Jo Anne Ellington, Frances Evans, Barbara Fjeld, and Pat Frazier.

Other girls include Ann Fry, Jean Gregory, Barbara Haney, Norma Hanner, Barbara Harris, Judy Hester, Martha Hobbs, Martha Holley, Peggie Holmes, Virginia Honea, Doris Irvin, Margaret Jessup, Judy Johns, Sue Johnson, Sylvia Kimbro, Susan Leonard, Marjorie LeRoy, Barbara Lindley, Phyllis Lynch, Jean McCraw, and Betty McFarland.

Others

Betty McFarland.

Others

Susan McGlamery, Virginia McKinney, Lila Malone, Jean Medlin, Bobbie Meeks, Kay Moore, Sylvia
Murphy, Pat Ogburn, Anne Pearce,
Sylvia Pettigrew, Joanne Plott,
Mary Lou Purvis, Doris Rayle,
Nancy Robertson, Joanne Saleeby,
Jeanne Scoggins, Dorothy Short,
Wanda Slade, and Jeanne Smith
are also scheduled to travel with
the group.

are also scheduled to travel with
the group.
Concluding the list of girls are
Standa Snuggs, Ann Spence, Anne
St. John, Betty Jean Stamey, Carmen Stanley, Gerry Steed, Kay
Stewart, Maureen Stewart, Celia
Strader, Jean Sutherland, Ann
Taylor, Paddy Sue Wall, and Marthe William. Wilkins.

Boys Listed

Boys Listed
Senior Days contemplating the trip are David Bell, Jimmy Biltsoly, Bob Carlton, John Clendenin, George Craddock, Bob Day, Donnie DeSanto, Taylor Doggett,
Brantley Edwards, Bob Grant,
David Grissom, Henry Hamilton,

was played by the orchestra as an

was played by the orchestra as an encore.

GHS's orchestra is the only orchestra from North Carolina playing grade six music. "Grade Six is superb," states one member of the orchestra. Three bands are also in grade six; they are Greensboro, Lenoir, and Raleigh.

The three numbers which will be played by the orchestra tonight will be judged by Otto Krausharr, Miami Senior High orchestra director; Frederick Fennell, Eastman School of Music, Cleveland, Ohio; and Joseph Skornicka, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, supervisor of music.

EDMOND'S DRUG STORE Summit Shopping Center

PHONE 4-1586

Complete Drug Service

PHIPPS HARDWARE COMPANY

215 N. ELM PHONE 2-0179

REACH AND SPAULDING SPORTING GOODS, HARDWARE SHOP EQUIPMENT, APPLIANCES

Second Floor Gift Shop

ORANGE CRUSH BOTTLING CC.

Bottlers of
ORANGE CRUSH, VIRGINIA DARE GRAPE
AND OLD COLONY BEVERAGES 1423 Westover Terrace

CAMPBELL'S GRILL

for thick, creamy milkshakes all kinds of sandwiches and quick, efficient service

1620 FRIENDLY ROAD

One hundred and twenty-one seniors, 74 girls and 47 boys, are scheduled to journey to the nation's capital, Washington, D. C., on Thursday morning, April 28, at 6 a. m. from the parking of Sears Roebuck Retail Store.

Chaperones for the jaunt have been selected from the GHS faculty. Senior home room teachers chosen to go are Miss Estelle Mitchell, Miss Penelope Bogart, Miss Marjorie Gabriel, Mr. Clifford Long, and Mrs. Jean Newman. Others to help chaperone are Mr. Lacy Anderson, assistant principal, and Mr. Robert Jamieson, athletic director.

Girls Number 74

Arthur Wins Opportunity For $1000 Scholarship

For $1000 Scholarship

Senior High's Steve Arthur was told Wednesday, April 13, that he was one of two Guilford County students chosen by the Carolina Steel and Iron Company for competition for one of the ten $1000 college scholarships in civil engineering.

The scholarships are awarded by the American Institute of Steel Construction of which the Carolina Steel and Iron Company is a member.

Assistant traffic chief here at Senior, Steve will take college board exams next month determining if he will be one of the 10 winners. Those with the highest scores can go to any one of the 129 colleges in the United States that offer civil or architectural engineering.

There are about 60 other pupils from all over the nation being sponsored by various other steel and iron companies.

Each year two Guilford County students are chosen for competition on a nation scale by the Carolina Company. Two boys have won the grants in the past, Charles Waynick and Rowland Wisseman.

Cates Other Representative
The other Guilford County representative is Alton P. Cates, Jr., a senior at Guilford High School.

The winners of the National competition will be announced in July.

Mr. N. P., Hayes, president of the local concern sponsoring the competition will be announced in July.

Mr. N. P., Hayes, president of the local concern sponsoring the boys, stated, "Our industry is constantly on the alert for good engineers. Through scholarships we can help young people who are interested in that field get the necessary education."

FINKWEN

(Continued from Page Four)
Best ball went to the Whirlies 2½-½. R. B. Arthur (G'boro.) defeated Newlin 3-0; Montinger (Burlington) defeated Gene Smith 2½-½. Best ball went to Greensboro 3-0. Bradley Anderson (G'boro.) defeated Copeland 3-0. Jack Reeves (G'boro.) defeated Jennings 3-0. he best ball went to the Greensboro linkmen 3-0.

GREENSBORO DRUG COMPANY

C. M. FORDHAM DEWEY FARRELL

230 W. Market. DIAL 6147