Six Of Latin Students Elected For Contests

Papers submitted by second year students John Gardiner, Eve Purdom, and Dick Robinson and first year students Jean Ogburn, Janie Walters, and Elwood Hartman were elected to represent Senior High in the annual state-wide Latin contest.

The local examination was held on May 6 in room 6 under the supervision of Mrs. Mary B. Madlin, Latin teacher here at GHS.

Approximately 25 students participated in the hour-long test which is sponsored by the University of North Carolina.

The papers submitted will be judged in state-wide competition by the Classics Department faculty at the University. First place award to each division is $10. A scholarship of $150 to the University will be offered to the winner of the senior division.

Translations, syntax, word study, proverbs, and identification of characters were the basis for the exam.

First year participants were David Craig, Mary Lou Hutton, Janie Walters, Pete Wyrick, Jack Jessup, Tom Meyers, Margie Ross, Al Hattaway, Sue Brooks, Jane Lynch, Ruth Hunt, Tom Hudgins, Jean Ogburn, Naomi Stout, Elwood Hartman, and Allen Thomas.

Civitan Club's Award To Go To P. Brooks

Senior Phyllis Brooks received by an election of her class the annual Civitan Club Best Citizen Award.

Chosen on the basis of service, character, and leadership from students selected by home room teachers, Phyllis was a guest of the Civitan Club at a luncheon on Friday, May 13. This luncheon, honoring all the winners of the Civitan Award in Greensboro junior high schools and high schools in the surrounding area, took place at the King Cotton Hotel.

Serving on the Student Council this year, Phyllis acted as chairman of the scholarship committee. She served as literary editor of the recently published WHIRLIGIG. And last year was made a member of Torchlight.

Also honored was Susan Graham who read her prize winning essay on the "Privileges and Duties of an American Citizen."

Susan edited the WHIRLIGIG this year and was also a member of Torchlight.

APPROXIMATELY 38 MEMBERS of the library staff attended a weiner roast Tuesday, May 10, at 6 o'clock at the home of Miss Mildred Herring, (librarian).

Miss Herring and Mrs. Katherine Ayers, assistant librarian, treated the members of the staff to this weiner roast as a token of their appreciation for the work which the staff has done this year.

The weiner roast was held in the back yard of Miss Herring's home at 618 Scott Avenue.

Miss Rowena Montague, a member of the Senior High faculty, was also present at the weiner roast.

Purdom Wins NY Trip From Lodge For Essay

Eve Purdom, a junior at GHS, has been recently declared a winner of the "What The United States Means To Me," contest along with Marilyn Voss of Curry. The winners were announced at the local Odd Fellows Lodge meeting on May 2 at 7:30.

Eve, who wrote a 300-word paper, was notified in April that she, along with nine contestants from GHS, Curry, Guilford High, and Bessemer High, were finalists in the contest. The finalists from GHS were Judy Bittenger, Jack Hatfield, and Nancy Kev.

For winning the contest, Eve will go on a trip to New York on June 15 along with other winners from Kentucky, Virginia, and Maryland.

Marilyn Helms, also from GHS, will be making the same trip, but as a winner of another contest.

The Odd Fellows Pilgrimage to the United Nations is an annual affair.
