Picking The Pix

By Mary Wheeler

Hi, everyone! Gee, just think! There are only 8 more days until school will be over. We juniors and sophomores will really miss you seniors, but let's not dwell on parting. There's a swell movie coming Sunday at the CAROLINA THEATRE. THE SEA CHASE is the movie to which I'm referring.

This production is an adventurous drama on the high seas. It is the story of an "outlaw" ship and the people aboard her. John Wayne is seen as the renegade Captain whose own navy had wiped him off their map, and Lana Turner is the ship's cargo, a woman whose tempting mouth half the navies of the world wanted to shut.

The film action begins as the "outlaw" ship steams out to the harbor at Sydney, Australia under cover of night and moves to Pom Pom All, Valparaiso, and the far North Sea. The thrills of the film involve a readily trans-ocean pursuit, a mutiny, a storm at sea and the temptations of the renegade crew when the blonde woman comes aboard.

John Wayne, firmly entrenched as the leading box-office star, portrays the Captain of the ship. Wayne's recent hits include THE HIGH AND THE MIGHTY and HONDO. It is said that in THE SEA CHASE Wayne wears the same battered cap he wore in THE HIGH AND MIGHTY but with a different insignia. It is now the star's lucky cap.

Throughout the summer, I hope you'll keep posted on the CAROLINA THEATRE, the showplace of the Carolinas.

On behalf of the CAROLINA THEATRE, I congratulate the Senior Class of 1955.

on several committees in his community. He has preached and delivered addresses at a large number of colleges and universities, and has served as chaplain at Lake Chautauqua, New York, and Lakeside, Ohio.

GHS Teachers Plan Various Summer Jobs

Many GHS teachers like teaching so well that they have decided to have six or more weeks of it.

Miss Powell will be teaching at WCUNC and Mrs. Ayers will be teaching at ASTC. Also teaching at ASTC will be Miss Mildred Herring.

Miss Moore, Miss Blackmon, Miss Mims, and Miss Mitchell will be teaching in Greensboro summer schools. After summer school, Miss Mims will journey to the beach for a week and she hopes to go to New York for the plays. Miss Mitchell will be at Route 2, Cleveland, North Carolina, and Miss Mims will be at Route 4, Lenoir, North Carolina.

Mrs. Pierce is making her trip for good. She and her husband are moving to Macon, Georgia to live. They plan to spend their summer establishing their new home. They hope to make several week-end trips to the Georgia Coast and also to Myrtle Beach and the North Carolina coast prior to their move to Georgia.

Miss Margie Gabriel and Miss Dixie Poe Huske will spend a part of their time in summer camps. Miss Gabriel will be a counselor in land sports at Camp Narvita on Paradox Lake in the Andriodacks June 26 through August 24.

Miss Huske will be at Camp Don Lee, a Methodist camp for intermediates and juniors, June 7 through August 20. She will act as secretary.

Mrs. Newman is going to spend an unusual summer. After a week in camp and a seek at Washington, D. C., she will spend the rest of her time taking up clothes after losing 17 pounds being in charge of Class Day.

Mrs. Blanche Smith will journey to Windy Hill Beach for a week or two. After that she will remain in Greensboro.

Mrs. Smith won't be alone at Windy Hill, for Mrs. Pleasants will also be there.

Miss Joann Scott (H. R. 203) will work at Martin's Studio. She will be at her home at 807 Scott Avenue.

Miss Sarah E. Yarborough also wants to stay with education. Most of her summer will be spent working with the Educator's Association.

Mrs. Madlin plans to make a trip to New York State and a short trip to Canada to visit her family. She may do some private teaching.

Miss Matthews will be at her home in Pilot Mountain until her wedding, August 4. She will then be in Lakewood, Ohio.

Mr. Jack Luttrell will be at his home, Route 3, Boone, North Carolina, prior to and after his wedding of July 9.

DAILY DOUBLES

WHIRLIGIG finally came out last week after a long waiting period. This week's Daily Doubles are still looking at and signing the white and black book.

The cute junior girl has short brown hair and grey eyes. Having served on the Student Council in her sophomore year, she acted as secretary of the student body this year. Miss X was recently elected to serve on the council next year. During the spring tapping of Torchlight, she was admitted to the National Honor Society.

Miss X is a member of the Allied Youth and FTA Club, and is vice-president of her home room. She has attained honor grades since coming from Central and is a silver star wearer. Often Miss X can be seen driving her '47 black Mercury. Her hobby is water sports. "Boys that sit with their feet in the aisle" is Miss X's pet peeve.

After graduation next year, her college hopes are set for Salem. She plans to be a laboratory technician.

Hailing from Central, this dark and handsome junior has brown hair and brown eyes. Having served on the council for the last two years he was chosen in the last election to the council again.

During his sophomore and junior year, Mr. X was elected president of his home room. He is a member of the honor roll, the Key Club, DeMolay and Hi-Y. "Silly girls" a faithful member. "Silly girls" is his pet peeve, and fried chicken is his favorite food. Our mystery couple of the week met at Central while they were in the seventh grade. Last fall they dated for the first time to a dance. They started going steady May 2 and chose "Unchained Melody" for their favorite song.

You'll find their names in a popular ad.

Students Win Scholarships

(Continued From Page One) recipient to enter the teaching profession, is presented annually to a senior at either GHS or Curry High School by the aforementioned teachers' sorority. The winner must be a member of the Future Teachers of America Club.

Pat plans to attend Woman's College, where she will enroll in primary education. Last year's winner of the grant was Jean Bateman, a GHS graduate.

Two $150 honor scholarships to Greensboro College have been awarded to two GHS'ers. Rachel Allen and Judy Johns have recently been notified that they were the recipients of these grants. These awards are renewable for four-year periods provided the recipient maintain high grades.

Rachel plans to major in art, while Judy lists education as her major.

Betty Jane Stamey, senior commercial student, was presented a $100 secretarial scholarship by the O. Henry Secretarial Club of Greensboro. Miss Juanita Ramsey, president of the local organization, awarded Betty the grant during Awards' Day assembly Tuesday.

The 10 Sears Roebuck $100 scholarships presented annually to 10 GHS students were awarded to Steve Arthur, Rita Boggs, Barbara Callisher, Sally Durhan, Michael Hayes, Vivian Morgan, Norman Odyniec, Rob Pearce, Sue Simmons, and Wanda Slade at the recent assembly. These grants may be used at the college of the recipient's choice.

Mr. A. P. Routh, principal, presented Eugenia Hickerson the Torchlight Scholarship valued at $100 on behalf of the GHS Chapter. This grant is given annually to a member of the Senior Class by the GHS honor society. Profits from the spring variety show sponsored by Torchlight is used for this scholarship. Eugenia plans to attend Woman's College.

BOB COWAN PLACED THIRD in the state math contest which he took along with 990 other students from 64 high schools in North Carolina. The first place winner was a student from Shelby, and the second place recipient hails from Winston-Salem.

Monday night Max Miller was notified by Lieutenant General Emmett O'Donnell, Jr., that he was one of seven North Carolina boys to be selected to be in the first class of the United States Air Force Academy in Denver, Colorado. A new academy at Colorado Springs, Colorado, is being constructed, but will not be completed by July 11 when the boys are to enroll.

Max relates that he has accepted the appointment and has rejected the Navel ROTC grant.
