Sara Toenes, Senior, Wins French Contest

Sara Toenes, senior, claimed top place in the annual State High School French Contest given last May.

Her prize was a scholarship of $150 which she will apply toward tuition for Woman's College.

Winners were announced in June by officials of the University of North Carolina's Department of Roman Language and the Extension division sponsors of the competition.

Participants were French students from all over the state. Barbara Jessup, senior, was also a winner and Phyllis Brooks, a graduate of 1955, received honorable mention. A total of 38 high schools from throughout North Carolina entered 552 students in the contest.

In the same vein of language contests, Senior boasts also a top winner in the 1955 State High School Spanish Contest. Senior Faye Fuquay was the second place winner in the Spanish competition sponsored by the University and received a metal for her prize.

Traffic Squads Begin To Assume Positions

Senior's thirty members of the traffic squad have assumed their permanent positions and are identified on their posts this year by blue and white arm bands.

Chief squad member Manley Dodson, elected to the position last spring, is responsible for this addition to the appearance of the thirty members of the organization.

Dodson is assisted by the two runners-up for this school post, Charles Pemberton and David Wible. The three have stated they feel the grounds and halls are well patrolled. Dodson has stressed the policy of keeping everyone off the grass between buildings and has added squad members in several places to enforce the rule.

The squad for the first semester includes Louis Glascock, Wayne Griffin, Bill Hanna, John Horney, Paul and Dick Robinson, John Jester, Mike Stogner, Ray Thomas, Mark Foster, Jim Andrews, Bob Hewett, Bill Williamson, Grady Phillips, Wesley Hayes, Horwood Meyers, Don Rothrock, Buddy DeBruhl, Pete Freeman, John Gardner, Bill Lewey, Larry Hoyle, Jack Weaver, Ed Schenck, Jim McNairy, Chic Forbes, and Bill Franklin.

Dodson stated that the list may be revised in the second semester.

Faye is a student of Miss Maunida Wales and Sara completed two years of French under Miss Estelle Mitchell.

Miss Wales says of the contest winners, "They are such splendid students we want them to know we are proud of them."

Each year Spanish and French students are given the opportunity to enter the contest in either first or second year divisions.

Three students also had honorable mention in the state Latin Contest. They were John Gardiner, Dick Robinson, and Eve Purdon, all seniors.
