

Cheerleaders, Majorettes Chosen For '55-'56 Season

This year Senior High has added six new members to its cheering squad. Michael Gardner, Joan Moring, and Gail Kirkman are the three new Senior Class members; and Diane Dixon, Bradley Anderson, and Dorothy Mattox are the new junior members. These students were chosen from a group of 25 who tried out on September 8.

Returning veteran members of the squad, wearing one star representing one year of service, are head cheerleader Pat Haley, Phyllis Steed, Gail Perkins, and Phil Causey. France Welch is the only cheerleader returning with two years of service.

Miss Margie Gabriel is adviser to the cheerleaders who go with the football team at home and away from home. It is "Gabe's" job to direct and assist the cheerleaders at their practice sessions held every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon.

The attire of the "cheers" is white coulots topped off with navy blue sweaters carrying a giant white G. "School spirit is our business, and we hope to keep it at its highest peak," state the cheerleaders.

Majorettes' Chosen

As fall ushers in the football season, so do our strutting majorettes usher our marching band onto the field for football shows. These nine girls performing their twirling acts do much to add that final touch to the excitement of the season.

The group of girls is composed of one senior, Carole Horney, who is head majorette; six juniors: Maxine Callisher, Barbara Cook, Betty Kernodle, Agnes Tate, Harriet Wells, and Helen White; and two sophomores: Kay Chandler and Meyressa Hughes, Kay Meyressa and Barbara are the recently chosen newcomers. Mr. Joe Still, the new member of the band staff, coaches and directs the girls.

Carole, dressed in a navy blue uniform trimmed in white fur, leads the corps who are dressed in contrasting white corduroy uniforms also trimmed in white fur. For the information of those students (males) who are interested in vital statistics, three of the girls have blonde hair under those part white caps, three have brown hair and three are brunettes. The shining brown eyes of four of the girls and the sparkling blue eyes

Transfer Students Listed, Many From Out of State

Senior High has enrolled for the 1955-56 term over one hundred transfer students, twenty nine being from out of state.

Those students traveling the farthest distance are Constance G. Shoemith from Sanford, Maine, and Brenda L. Cagle from Guam, Mariana Islands.

The state represented by the largest number of transfer pupils is Virginia, with seven students. Five students come from South Carolina, two from Florida, two from Tennessee, three from New Jersey, and three from Pennsylvania. The District of Columbia, Georgia, West Virginia, Ohio, and New York are represented by one each.

Those students from Virginia are Rita Lou Burcham, Rocky Mount; Rhonda Baynard Miller, Richmond; Sonja Elizabeth Poole, Danville; Josephine Engle Banner, Pulaski; George W. Bradham, Jr., Alexandria; Shirley Anne Smith, Alexandria; and Carol Anne Smith, Alta Vista.

Representing South Carolina are James Warren Brooke, Greenville; Patricia Ann Thomas, Fort Mill; Morris Allen Cooper, Florence; Barbara Anne Bolding, Charleston Heights, and George Mills Scoggins, Jr., Spartanburg.

Betty Taylor, Jacksonville, and Dawn Marie Jacobs, Brooksville are from Florida.

Those from Tennessee are Philip Wimbish Lynch, Lebanon, and Tommy Dwight Sain, Harriman.

The other transfer students are Kay Frances Carson, East Orange, New Jersey; Jean Mitchell, Athens, Georgia; William Frederick Christy, Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania; William Howard Cannon, Cincinnati, Ohio, Joanne S. Horne, Huntington, West Virginia; Nancy L. Brothers, Manasquan, New Jersey; and George Warren Sampson, Sunnyside, New York.

David Carl Zimmerman, Blairstown, New Jersey; Virginia Vickory Beovich, Washington, D. C.; Thomas Sperry Marshall, Sunberry, Pennsylvania; and Clinton Gray Deim Marshall, Lockhaven, Pennsylvania complete the list.

Carl Coker, the most recent addition to the Senior High Faculty as the art instructor, is a native of Greensboro. After his discharge from the Air Force, where he served two years, he went to Albuquerque to the University of New Mexico, where he obtained his A.B. degree in 1952 and his M.A. in 1955.

Choirsters Select Boggs President For 1955-1956

Leon Boggs, senior, was recently chosen by the Greensboro Senior High Choir to head its slate of officers for the school term of 1955-56.

In addition to Leon, the other choir officers are vice president, Patsy Ray; secretary, Julia McNairy; and treasurer, Charles Quinn.

Miss Eula Tuttle, head of the Music Department, commented that "the choir's plans are indefinite as yet, but we have been asked to do several Christmas programs for various organizations." Each year at Senior High, four senior boys who are members of the choir, form a quartette called "The Queen's Men".

Miss Tuttle said that there are approximately 12 boys competing for the four positions. The boys will be chosen soon by a committee which will listen to the various boys sing and who will then pick the four best ones.
