

D. E. Members Travel To Revolution Mills

Tuesday, November 15, the members of the Distributive Education Club went on a field trip to Revolution Mills after a dutch supper at the Mayfair Cafeteria at 6 p. m.

This trip, which concluded their study on textiles, was only one of many such trips that are made each year by the D. E. organization.

The members of the D. E. classes are engaged in selling in their part-time jobs. Many reminders are posted in the class room to keep the student aware of his responsibility.

One of the charts is entitled "Time For Everything." Its contents read: "Take time to dream—it is hitching your wagon to a star; take time to love and be loved—it is the privilege of the gods; take time to look around—it is too short a day to be selfish; take time to laugh—it is the music of the soul; take time to work—it is the price of success; take time to think—it is the source of power; take time to play—it is the secret of perpetual youth; take time to read—it is the foundation of wisdom; and take time to be friendly—it is the road to happiness."

The biggest picture in the room is a motto which advises: "Don't sell the thing, sell the results." The results are listed as pride, pleasure, profit, and protection. Another illustration says, "Here are five little words that have helped me through life—they are: 'Pardn me,' 'Thank you,' and 'Please.'"

The ten commandments of good business are "A customer is the most important person in any business; A customer is not dependent on us—we are dependent on him; a customer is not an interruption of our work—he is the purpose of it; a customer does us a favor when he calls—we are not doing him a favor by serving him; a customer is a part of our business—not an outsider; a customer is not a cold statistic—he is a flesh-and-blood human being with feelings and emotions like our own; and a customer is not someone to argue or match wits with."

The definitions of Courtesy are illustrated in a poster entitled, "Capture Your Customer's Interest." Another chart describing personality is labeled, "Build Your Sales."

Members of the Distributive Education classes are: Bruce Ammons, Paddy Bailey, Frank Cockman, Ellen Cole, Hallie Collins, Eldridge Greeson, Louise Gurkin, Jan Gwyn, Joe Herdon, Sherlon Hepler, Don Hicks, Alfred Hill, David Hill, Sue Kimel, Margaret King, Verilea Kivett, Barbara Lanning, Marvin Latta, Louela McCulloch, Billy Matherly, Mary Ann Matherly, Shelve Nabors, Dean Patterson, Carol Reece, Nona Routh, John

Russell, Betty Simmons, J. C. Smith, Nancy Smith, Betty Stanford, Clara Mae Stockton, Mike Stogner, Barbara Taylor, Charles Tippet, Jerry Varner, Beverly Warrick, Harvey Watkins. Donnie Weathers, Dan White, Sherwood Wilkins, Bobby Wilson, and Kenneth York.

Mrs. Margaret Hadden is the D. E. Co-ordinator.

Holiday Sales Classes Resumed By Hadden

"How do we figure sales tax?" "Is this suit all right to wear?" "How do we write our sales tickets correctly?"

These are just a few of the questions that were answered in the Christmas sales classes which were taught for those students desiring to work on week-ends and during the holidays. Mrs. Margaret G. Hadden, coordinator of Distributive Education, instructed the classes.

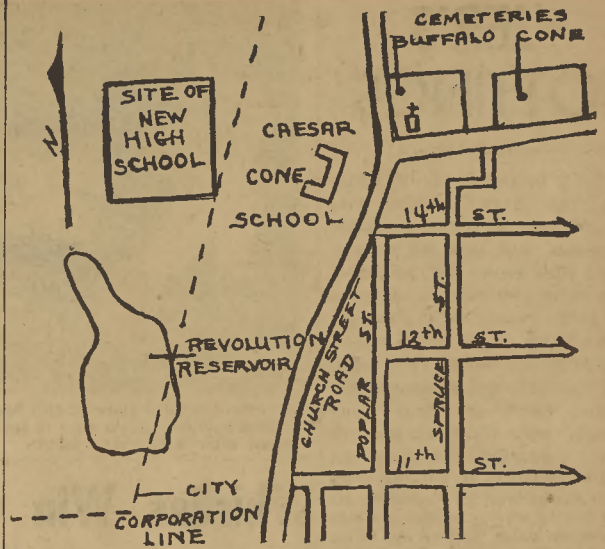

The sales classes included instructions on good grooming, store manners, how to serve the customer, merchandise information, how to make change and figure sales tax.

To help with the instructions, flash cards, film strips, sales demonstrations, skits, and films were used.

Each year the D. E. coordinator teaches the sales classes to help both the pupils and the stores.

"GHS students who work in business establishments are the best advertisement the school has to business," remarks Mrs. Hadden.

Stores have repeatedly urged that students who want to work enroll in these classes because it saves them considerable time in training the young employees.

Long range plans to relieve present crowded conditions at Senior High were officially begun with the authorization of land purchase on Tuesday, November 8, for a new high school located in the northern section of Greensboro.

County commissioners granted $137,143 from the school fund for 60 acres of property west of Church Street Extension and adjacent to the Revolution Reservoir. Superintendent Ben L. Smith stated that the school should be completed by 1960.

Silver Stars Received By 42 Honor Students

Forty-two members of Senior High have been listed as making the regular or special honor roll seven consecutive times. This entitles the student to receive a silver star as recognition of his grades, and also entitles him to exempt one examination if he carries four or five majors.

Five Senior Class members have received the silver star award. They are Betty Adams, Gayle Apple, Elizabeth Beal, Howard Hinshaw, and Amy Hutchinson.

Representing the Junior Class by making honor roll seven consecutive times are Rick Aderhold, Doug Albright, Elizabeth Antrim, Larry Brown, Ann Butler, David Craig, Alec Decker, Stratton Eldridge, Henry Flynt, Gilbert Frank, Hilda Garrett, Libby Garvin, Doris Dawn Guill, Bill Hanling, Elwood Hartman, Al Hathaway, Hal Haskens, Don Ray Hicks, Buck Hoyle, Tom Hudgins, Ruth Hunt, Jack Jessup, Judy Kellett, Ruth McCulloch, Jane McLennan, Jerry Mann and Dorothy Mattox.

Other Junior Class members are David Miller, Jerry Oakley, Jean Ogburn, Maranell Pearsall, Jim Phillips, Katherine Polk, Margie Rose, Judy Shallant, James Spence, and Kay Weston.

The following Seniors will earn silver stars if they make the honor roll on the next six week's report: Marjorie Bell, Patricia Foster, Janet Harris, Barbara Riddle, Betty Ray Stanford, and Betty Lou Wiles. Jane Lynch, junior, will receive a silver star if she makes honor roll next report period.

Since the silver star requirement calls for seven honor roll achievements, only the juniors and seniors are eligible. The sophomores will be eligible for this honor next year in the fall of 1956.
