HIGH LIFE

'Advantages Of Private Medical Care' Subject For N. C. Medical Essay Contest

North Carolina's Medical Society as announced the plans for an ssay contest, with a college schol-rshlp, along with other prizes, to e awarded the writer of the best ssay about "The Advantages of has announced the plans for an essay contest, with a college scholarship, along with other prizes, to be awarded the writer of the best essay about "The Advantages of Private Medical Care."

Private Medical Care." The contest, authorized by the Medical Society of the State of North Carolina, is being sponsored by the Public Relations Committee of the Society, and is approved by the State Department of Public Instruction Instruction.

It is open to all students en-rolled in accredited high schools of North Carolina with the excep-tions of sons and daughters of physicians and winners of first place awards in prior Medical So-ciety essay contests.

First prize for the best essay will be a $600 scholarship, payable to any college or university select-ed by the winner. Prizes will also be awarded to second and third place winners.

To enter the contest, a student must write and submit to A. P. Routh, in the case of Senior High, an original essay of not more than 1500 words on the topic "The Advantages of Private Medical Case." Care.

Essays should be written on one side of letter-size paper (8½x11) and, if typewritten, double-spaced. Information will be furnished for use in the contest.

The contest opens January 1 and closes February 26, 1956. Es-says may be submitted anytime between these dates.

between these dates. There will be a committee of three teachers who will, on Feb-ruary 26, select the two best es-says. These two essays will be forwarded by Mr. Routh to Ben L. Smith, superintendent of public instruction. He will in turn have a committee select the two best essays from those submitted from this area, and these will be sent to the Medical Society for the final decision. final decision.

The winning contestants will be announced about April 20. No es-says will be returned, and all will become the property of the Socie-tr. ty.

The Public Relations Committee The Public Relations Committee may choose to invite, at its ex-pense, the winning contestant to be its guest and to present the winning essay at the annual meet-ing of the State Medical Society, to take place at Pinehurst, April 20 through May 2, 1956.

The three winning papers will be forwarded to the Association of American Physicians and Surgeons, Chicago, to compete in the nation-wide contest sponsored by judged.

УКЕ

La Alianza Espanola Has Annual Program

Fifteen members of La Alianza Espanola had their annual Christ-mas program last night at the Polio Hospital, where they gave a Mexican Christmas celebration.

Faye Fuquay, president of La Alianza Espanola, and Allyne Gar-ton, vice-president, were in charge ton, vice-president, were in charge of the program, a representation of Las Posadas, the traditional way of celebrating Christmas in Mexico and in Spain. It represents the journey of Mary and Joseph into Egypt and their looking for room in the inn. They try several places, but are refused. Finally they are invited into someone's home home.

The club gave the hospital pa-The club gave the nospital pa-tients a nativity scene, and also took along a pinata, a clay jar filled with candy. This is broken and then everyone attempts to get some of the candy. The club members also sang Spanish Christsongs mas songs. The 16 members of La Alianza Espanola who went to the hospital were: Alleyne Garton, Carolyn Paschal, John Lund, Kent Carter, Tony Martinez, Tommy Martinez, Carroll Lupton, Sue Spence, and Lou Spence. The other members

Scholarship Plagues Go To Honor Rooms For Grading Period

Mrs. Joann Taylor's senior home room, 304, has a scholarship aver-age of 86.78 and heads the junior and sophomore home rooms as winners of the Scholarship Plaques for the second grading period.

Room 304 has the highest aver-age, 86.78, of any home room at Senior for the second grading period and wins the Scholarship Plaque for the Senior Class. Mrs. Martha Hundley's home room 24 is runnerup with an average of 86.68. Room 304 has the highest aver-

86.68. Robert A. Frederickson's home room 307, wins the plaque for the Junior Class with an average of 86.06 while the runnerup is home room 300, which is supervised by Miss Sara Mims, with an average of 84.90. The sophomore winner is Miss Dorothy McNairy's room 206, with a scholarship average of 84.69. The runnerup is Miss Ann Moore's home room 27, having an average of 84.53.

For Merit Scholarships

From the 26 members in the From the 26 members in the upper five per cent of the Senior Class who took the first National Merit Scholarship test, eight were notified on December 1 that they are national semi-finalists. These eight people are David

Eight Are Semi-Finalists

December 13, 7 p. m. at the Mayfair Cafeteria. Following the dinner, Larry Harris opened the meeting by reading the Christmas Story from the Bible. After a devotional talk by Beth Stout, Laura Little led the club in prayer, and Diane Dixon gave a Christmas story. Manley Dodson then recited a poem. Singing for the club was the Girls' Quartet, consisting of Ann Poole, Quartet, consisting of Ann Poole, Bunny Marsnall, Sylvia Talley, and Barbara Riddle. The group sang "O Little Twn of Bethlehem," followed by Ann Deal's singing, "O Holy Night." Bobbie Tice, who led the club in prayer, adjourned the meeting. Playing Santa Claus to under-privileged families was the second project of the Bible Club this se-Bescherer, Angela Butt, Barry Frahm, Betsy McKeel, Julia Mc-had their last meeting Tuesday,

Nairy, Eve Purdom, Diane Schwartz and Sara Toenes. The next step for these eight peo-ple will be to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College En-trance Examination Board in Win-ston-Salem on January 14. At least half the semi-finalists will receive certificates or scholarships.

Senior High School's Bible Club mester, Each class, whose members make up the Bible Club, was assigned a different family, names of which were not revealed. The job of each class was that of playing Santa Claus to the chil. dren of their assigned family. The classes gave the little girls dolls. while the little boys received Davy Crockett guns. Clothes, nuts, fruit, and candy were included in the packages for the families, along with other articles for members of the entire family.

Bible Class Has Christmas Meeting;

Plays Santa Claus To Underprivileged

Members Of Family Life Complete Term Projects

Mrs. Ruby Cooper's family life classes have brought in their projects for the first semester. Many students did a bulletin board earlier in the year on alcohol and the right and wrong road to marriage. The classes have also studied narcotics and the habit-forming drugs. Many booklets and pamph-lets have been distributed among the classes for further informa-ticn on dating, marriage, drugs, alcohol, and other interesting sub-jects that the classes have taken up.

Photo by Cordle

Miss Judy Schaffer

wearing a wool jumper of black watch plaid by Ilene Ricky and a white orlon sweater by Helen Harper, selects a gift from Ellis Stone's Boutique Shop. She knows that this is the perfect place for purchasing a pollyanna present because each gift is less than $5 in the Boutique Shop.

Ellis Stone

Boutique Shop Street Floor

Miss Schaffer's Wardrobe from Jr. Dept., Fashion Floor

and all GHS Students WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS Get Your Christmas Corsages at SCRUGGS FLORIST 2158 Lawndale Drive Dial 3-8230 RC makes you OAKES MAGIC SHOP feel like The Little Shop NAL CROWN with 1000 Tricks You can do for Fun COLA 1003 W. Market St. FOR ART and DRAFTING SUPPLIES See Southern Photo Print and Supply Co. "Everything for the Engineer, Architect, Artist"

ADD PENFIELD and WBIG SPORTS STAFF with Thanks to Coach Bob and Co.

Open 9 A. M. Til 10 P. M. Sundays Included DAN'S SUPER CUBR MARKET 3912 West Market Street Specializing in FRESH FRUITS and VEGETABLES Grade Meats and Fancy Groceries