

Whirlie Wrestlers Capture State's Crown

GHS Cagers Defeated By Asheville Maroons For Conference Seat

While their wrestling brethren were sewing up the state grappling crown, the GHS basketeers dropped a 61-57 decision to Asheville in a vital play-off for the final spot in the AA state tourney which began here on Wednesday.

The game was a special play-off between the two teams who finished in a deadlock for fourth in the West. It was played on a neutral site at Salisbury.

By winning, the defending state champs came into the state tourney.

Forward Bruce Peterson again led the Asheville attack as he did in the 74-37 rout of the Whirlies played last Tuesday. Peterson garnered 20 points. Owen Johnson led the Whirlies with a like total of 20 points. Doug Albright scored 14.

The game was close all the way. Greensboro led at the end of the first quarter, 14-11. In the second period the mountain boys pulled ahead and lead at halftime 25-24.

Asheville pushed ahead by as much as 50-40 before the Whirlies could rally. Johnson and Paul Dyson sparked a drive that tied the score, 53-53.

After a 55-55 tie, Wilson, Peterson, and Weaver added 6 points and won in the last few seconds.

The Whirlies got only 19 field goals as compared with 26 by Asheville. Greensboro stayed in contention as they connected on 19 out of 30 free throws.

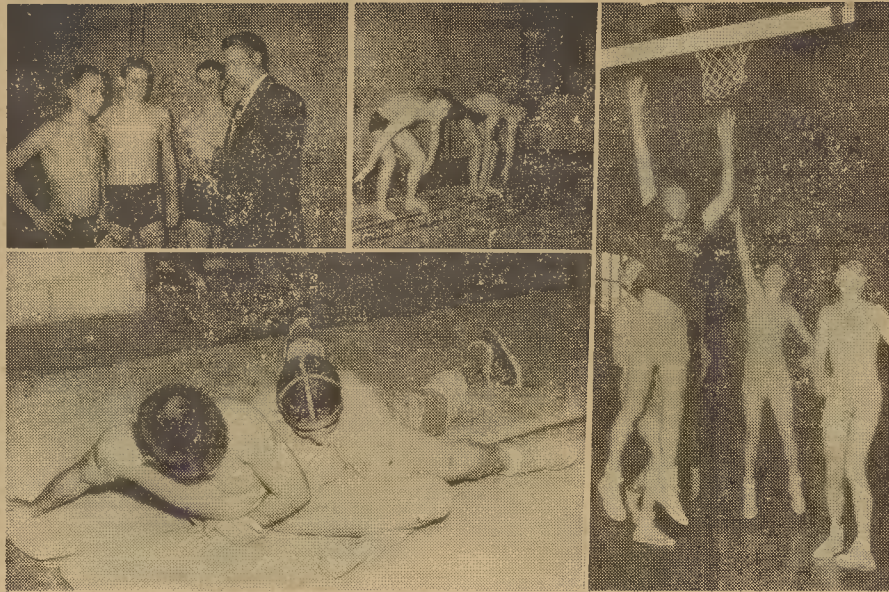

Intramural Basketball Draws Large Number For Annual Tourney

Seventy-one boys are currently taking part in the intramural basketball program which is under the direction of Coach Pat Earey.

There are 11 teams, ranging in name from the Warriors and the Knicks to the Rebels and Christians. The boys participating in these after-school events formed their own teams some two weeks ago and presented their squads to Coach Earey for entry. The winners of this intramural contest will receive medals as recognition for their victory.

The teams are engaging in a round-robin schedule. Two games a day are played each day starting at 4:30 in the boys' gym. Following is a list of the teams and the boys on their respective squads.

Forming the Warriors' team are Donny Harrington, Zeke McFayden, Bill Sheppard, Jerry Kinney, Jimmy Schoffner, Donald Dean and Johnny Britt.

Three major phases of Greensboro High School athletic activity are represented above. The wrestlers, Dwight Witty and Guy McGraw, practice holds prior to the state wrestling tournament here last Friday and Saturday. Members of the undefeated Whirlie swimming team, Bob Hubner and Ranny Dodson, set for racing start; the group discussing times with Coach Pat Earey includes Tom Hudgins, John Burwell, and Sidney Oliver. Unidentified members of the junior varsity basketball team are shown rebounding in an inter-squad game.

Bobby Taylor, Jim Everitt, Steve Schlosser, Gary Snider, Tommy Ogurn, and Richard Long make up the fighting cagers called the Knicks. Representatives of the Dukes are Larry Heath, Bill Godfrey, Roger Hobbs, Clyde Elkin, Frank Fritchman, Furman Busby and Don Dyson.

Participants on the States' team are C. D. Tripp, George Varsamis, Tommy Sain, Bob Taborn, Jimmy Kessler, and Spencer Gaylord. Buddy Watkins, Eugene LeBauer, Sam Le Bauer, Phil Causey, Shelley Morganstern, Pat Haley, and Paul Robinson form the Magician cagers.

Tar Heels are John Jester, Lou Glascock, Dave Wible, Ed Schenck, Don Rothrock, Bill Williamson and Manley Dodson, Sam Edwards, Ken Robinson, Derwin Pope, Jack Field, Benny Rainey, Bill Saunders and Bob Rivenbark compose the fighting Wildcats of the intramural sports scope.

Members of the Celtics are Paul Sams, Billy Hammer, Johnny Murphy, Jasper Swofford, Phil "Bo" Whitt, and C. E. Jacobs. Davis Wilson, Bob Guffey, Forrest Ferrell, Dennis Maynard, Senny Shoffner, and Bill Hodges form a squad with the title of Bears.

Representatives of the solid-South and tagged with the name of Rebels are Tommy Smith, Wallace Williams, Baxter Smith, Cary Matthews, Herbert Dumaresq, and Max Snodderly. Ending the line of intramurals are the Christians composed of members Eddie Butler, Jimmy Wrenn, Arnold Waynick, Mickey Cook, Jackie Bruner, and Arthur Beck.

Fish Win Duke Invitational Over Four Other Schools

Coach Pat Earey's swimmers competed in two events last week, winning one and dropping the other.

The mermen came home victorious in the Duke Invitational at Durham, defeating four other North Carolina high school teams. The Whirlies took five out of the nine first places. Raleigh was the runner-up. Bob Hubner, Tom Hudgins, John Burwell, and Ranny Dodson took individual first places.

In the other meet, the Whirlies were swamped by the UNC frosh 59-27. Former Whirlie Tony Schiffman led the Tar Babies as he took two first places. Bob Hubner took one first place for the Whirlies.

Summaries of the Duke Invitational:

50-yard freestyle: (1) Hubner, Greensboro; (2) Moore, Chapel Hill; (3) Johnson, Raleigh.

100-yard breaststroke (1) Fink, Chapel Hill; (2) Talaferro, Greensboro; (3) Giltesch, Charlotte.

200-yard freestyle (1) Hudgins, Greensboro; (2) Jamerson, Chapel Hill; (3) Whelchel, Charlotte.

100-yard backstroke (1) Gullette, Raleigh; (2) Smith, Wilmington; (3) Duke, Raleigh.

100-yard freestyle (1) Burwell, Greensboro; (2) Kalkhurst, Raleigh; (3) Jamerson, Chapel Hill.

Boone Places Second With Goldsboro Third

With four boys winning individual championships, Coach Lody Glenn's grapplers won the North Carolina wrestling crown by edging the Boone matment 103 to 102 here last Saturday.

Bert Wilder in the heavyweight class, Sammy Bright in the 175-pound class, Charlie Whedbee in the 165-pound classification, and Benny McKee in the 120-pound class, were the four Senior High boys who annexed individual state crowns.

Wilder won the final event and thereby gained enough points for the team triumph. The Whirlies succeed the High Point Black Bison as state champs.

In addition to the four boys who won championships, Dwight Witty, Kent Carter, and Harvey Daktor each fought his way to the finals before losing decisions. David Levy at 112 pounds and Lou Cavan at 127 pounds won consolation crowns.

Here are the final standings for the tourney.

1. Greensboro 103
2. Boone 102
3. Goldsboro 88
4. Salisbury 52
5. High Point 27

The summary for the championship matches:

120-pound class: Benny McKee (Greensboro) decisioned Bobby Reynolds (Boone).

138-pound class: J. W. Welborne (Boone) decisioned Dwight Witty (Greensboro).

145-pound class: Allan Van Dyke (Boone) decisioned Kent Carter (Greensboro).

154-pound class: Gayle Speaks (Statesville) decisioned Harvey Daktor (Greensboro).

165-pound class: Charlie Whedbee (Greensboro) decisioned Larry Hulin (Asheboro).

175-pound class: Sammy Bright (Greensboro) decisioned Jack Harrell (Goldsboro).

Heavyweight: Bert Wilder (Greensboro) decisioned Bill Cook (Cramerton).

EDMOND'S DRUG STORE
Summit Shopping Center
PHONE 4-1586
Complete Drug Service

H. AND H. CLOTHING COMPANY
LADIES' and GENTS' READY-TO-WEAR
GREENSBORO, N. C.
CASH OR CREDIT

Well, if it isn't Mr. Easter Bunny just a polishing away on those Easter Eggs, and you know what that means. Easter's almost here! And if you want that Easter Portrait ready on time, it must be made soon. Be sure to contact J. Harold Smith Studio for your portraits and frames for this Easter Season

J. HAROLD SMITH STUDIO
1736 Battleground Avenue
Greensboro, North Carolina
Phone 2-1497

BLUE BIRD CLEANERS

1613 MADISON AVE.
Orchid Service

HOUSTON GROOME Invites You To Visit Him At CORNATZER and MOCK
For the Latest
Suits, Sport Coats, Slacks, Sport Shirts, Dress Shirts and Sweaters

SANDWICHES ————— SOFT DRINKS
SENIOR HI CROWN SERVICE
1300 WESTOVER TERRACE
PICKUP ————— and ————— DELIVERY
H. F. Lawrence ————— Harry Caldwell

S Y K E S
SHOE SHOP
Shine Parlor

We Dye Shoes
105 N. Greene St.

Shirts - - - THE
WAY YOU LIKE THEM

LANE'S
greensboro's finest cleaners