

HIGH LIFE

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

NUMBER 12

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C. MAR. 23, 1956

VOLUME XXXII

Anderson Wins First In Annual Competition At N. C. Writer's Club

L. W. Anderson, assistant principal of Senior High and president of the Greensboro Writers' Club, was a first place winner in the writing contest which is conducted annually by the North Carolina Writers' Club.

Mr. Anderson's story was entered in the children's division, and was written principally for a child of pre-school age. The story, entitled "Snuffy, The Grown-Uppy Puppy," revolves around a 6-year-old who worries about what will happen to his dog while he is in school.

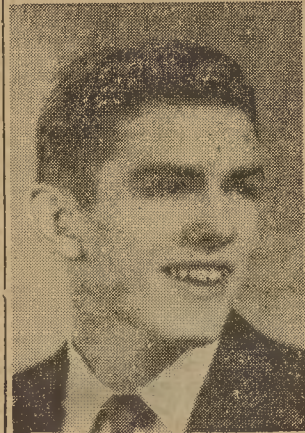

Last year Mr. Anderson's story, based on a boyhood experience, took first place in the non-fiction section. Previously he has won in the short story division of the contest.

Mr. Anderson feels that everyone should have a hobby and his is writing. He says, "I have been writing as a hobby for quite some time. As yet I have not acquired any money for it."

O'Brien And Ray Candidates In GHS Key Race; 114 Students Run For Offices In Annual Elections

Vying for president of the GHS student body in the coming annual spring elections April 6, are Bill O'Brien and Karl Ray, boosted by their respective campaign managers, Jim Martin and Leon Boggs.

Vice-president of the school will be a match between Buck Hoyle, whose campaign manager is Gail Kirkman, and Tom Hudgins, supported in his campaign by Manley Dodson.

KARL RAY

Sandra Holderness and Laura Pearce are running for the office of secretary. Lisa Anderson is Sandra's campaign manager and Jean Ogburn is Laura's.

Competing for school treasurer are candidates Jay Deifell and Meyressa Hughes. Dave Plyler is managing Jay's campaign, while Meyressa's manager is Eve Purdom.

Candidates for traffic chief are

Bobby Baynes, with Robert Hewett serving as his campaign manager, and Cecil Little, whose campaign manager is Marcia Felt.

Seeking president of the Youth Council, an office recently voted to be represented on the Student Council, are Libby Garvin and Pete Wyrick. The former's campaign manager is Camille Merriman and the latter's Zade Turner.

Senior Class presidential candidates are David Craig and James Spence. Their respective campaign managers are Jerry Farber and Michael Gardner.

In competition for Senior Class vice-president are Rick Aderhold, Judie Bittinger, Elwood Hartman, Dorothy Mattox, and Robert Willett.

Elizabeth Antrim, Sally Bruce, Randy Dodson, Margie Rose, and Carroll Walker are running for the office of secretary.

Vying for treasurer of the Senior Class are Butler Bennett, Al Hattaway, Mary Lou Hutton, Jane McLennan, and Jerry Mann.

Presidential candidates for the Junior Class are Kenny Miller, whose campaign manager is Russell Duvivant, Edgar Sockwell, whose campaign is being managed by Willford Lineweaver, and Wallace Williams, supported by his campaign manager Dave Beschler.

Jim Eskridge, Judith Lea, Joe Matherly, and Prissy Wyrick are competing for the office of vice-president of the Junior Class.

Secretarial candidates are Jan Phillips and Paula Sain, while Nancy McDowell and Harry Smith are seeking the office of treasurer.

Members of the rising Senior

(Continued on Page Six)

BILL O'BRIEN

Senior Dick Robinson Is Winner Of Grant From Morehead Fund

Dick Robinson, senior, was selected March 7 as winner of the $5000 John Motley Morehead Scholarship to the University of North Carolina.

Before he was chosen, Dick went through stages of elimination. The first stage was here at Senior High. Where two candidates were selected by Mr. Ed Hudgins, local representative of the scholarship committee, to appear before the regional board in Winston-Salem.

After completing the district finals, Dick and five other finalists went to Chapel Hill, representing the district. During the weekend of March 4, 32 North Carolina high school students were interviewed by the Central Committee, composed of faculty members, administrators, and trustees of the University.

On the following Tuesday, March 6, all of the finalists were guests of the University at a buffet luncheon. Immediately afterwards a list was posted of those candidates who were to appear before the Trustees on Wednesday morning. At this stage about 16 candidates were eliminated.

The candidates had a brief interview with the trustees on Wednesday morning. That afternoon Wednesday March 7, the winners were announced by John Morehead, the donor of the award.

The Morehead Scholarship, based entirely on merit and past records of accomplishment, is for four years and totals $5000 or $1250 per year.

ELWOOD HARTMAN HEADS NEW STAFF IN EXPERIMENTAL ISSUE'S PUBLICATION

Elwood Hartman, rising senior, will fill the top position of editor in next year's publication of HIGH LIFE, heading a staff which will consist of Bonnie Adelstein and Judy Shallant, rising seniors, as assistant editors; Frances McCormick, rising junior, managing editor; Mary Lou Hutton, rising senior, business manager; and Mary Jane Higgins, rising junior, advertising manager.

Elwood, who advanced from Journalism I at the beginning of second semester, has received his newspaper experience as a reporter on the staff. As editor he will make all final decisions and be responsible for the coordination of all phases of the paper.

Having had experience on her school paper in California before she came to Senior six months ago, Bonnie, together with Judy, will back up Elwood by planning make-up, headlines, and cuts.

Frances, recently arrived from Central where she was editor of the school newspaper, also rose to the staff at the beginning of the second semester. Her new job will consist of assigning news stories for the first, third, and eighth pages.

Mary Lou will hold down the position of business manager for the second year. It is Mary Lou who stretches the budget and keeps an account of all money for advertisements.

Responsibility for the 200 inches of advertising in HIGH LIFE each issue and ad make-up will fall on Mary Jane.

This group, along with the rest of the rising staff will actually begin their duties next September but have published this HIGH LIFE as an experimental issue.

Other members of the staff are listed in the masthead on page 2.

GHS Closes March 29 For Easter Weekend

School will be closed Friday, March 30, and Monday, April 2, for the Easter holidays. A. P. Routh, principal of GHS, has announced. Senior's students will return to their regular classes Tuesday, April 3. *

Hutchison Is May Queen; Durham Maid Of Honor

Amy Hutchison, senior, has been elected Queen of the May Day Festival, this year to be Wednesday, May 2, and has as her attendants, maids of honor Peggy Durham, representing the Senior Class, Jane Lynch, from the Junior Class, and Marsha Bumpass, of the Sophomore Class.

Amy, who will wear a white formal dress, will be escorted by Houston Groome, president of the student body. Senior Maid of Honor, Peggy Durham, will also wear a white formal and will be escorted by a senior, Mark Foster.

Maids of Honor

Junior Maid of Honor Jane Lynch, escorted by Dick Robinson, president of the Senior Class, and Marsha Bumpass, sophomore Maid of Honor, escorted by John Jester, president of the GHS chapter of Key Club International, will attend the queen and will wear dresses of American Beauty Red.

Senior attendants wearing pink are Joan Moring escorted by Bradley Anderson, and Bobbie Jean Williams escorted by Jimmy McNairy. Dressed in yellow will be Madeleine Holley accompanied by Mike Haley. Wearing blue will be Ann Poole and Fran Welch escorted by Leon Boggs and Phil Causey, respectively. Dressed in green will be Gracie Duncan conducted by Louis Glascock.

Junior Class Attendants

Attendants from the Junior Class are Harriet Wells wearing yellow and accompanied by Shelly Morganstern, and Nancy Lambeth, dressed in aqua, escorted by Bill O'Brien. In lavender will be Camille Merriman and Libby Garvin conducted by Carl Tate and Bobby Baynes, respectively.

Sophomore attendants wearing blue will be Anne Wilson and Kitty White accompanied by Dave Wible and Roy Michaux, in that order. Jim McGregor will escort his twin sister, Lynn, who will be wearing a dress of aqua. Anne Baldwin, dressed in green, will be conducted by Wilson Carruthers.

Zade Turner, Gail Kirkman, Michael Gardner, and Buck Hoyle are in charge of the May Day committees. They have chosen as the theme of the festival that of a circus. Featured during the program will be a brass band; clowns, wild animals, freaks, and other ringside entertainment.

Combined Bands To Give Free Concert March 28

Wednesday, March 28 at 8 p. m. the Activities and Concert Bands will present an admission free concert to show appreciation to those who have bought tickets to previous concerts.

The first half of the program will consist of the 78 members of the Activities Band playing, "River Jordan" by Whitney; "Bombasto March" by Farrar; "Schubert's Unfinished Symphony;" and "Broadcast from Brazil," by Bennett.

The second half of the program will consist of the 110 members of the Concert Band and an Ensemble. The Concert Band will play "Russian Easter Festival Overture;" "Rimsky" by Korsakov; "La Gazza Ladra Overture" by Rossini; "First Movement of Piano Concerts" in G minor by Mendelssohn with soloist Beth Stout and "With Sword and Lance March" by Starke; and the Ensemble made up of Bill Sides and Rufus Russell, oboes; John Gardiner and Mary Lou Wall, clarinets; Dan McConnell and Agnes Tate, bassoons; Elagene Johnson, contrabass clarinet; Shelly Morganstern, Carl Tate, Carol Weitzel and Barbara Mitchell, French horns playing "Serenade for Thirteen Wind Instruments," by Mozart.

Each member of the bands will get 10 tickets to give to the people who have bought tickets from them for previous programs.

Wednesday, May 2, Amy Hutchison will reign as May Queen and will have as her three Maids of Honor, shown standing clock-wise around her, Marsha Bumpass, sophomore, escorted by John Jester; Peggy Durham, senior, escorted by Mark Foster; and Jane Lynch, junior, escorted by Dick Robinson.