'Barefoot Battalion' Plays at Victory Followed By 'The Queen of Babylon'

BY ANGIE DAVIS

Do you have that tired, dragged-out feeling that goes along with tons of homework? If so, here is the best solution that can be found anywhere—hurry down to the VICTORY THEATRE and rest your weary bones by taking in one of the great shows coming soon.

"Barefoot Battalion"

Starting October 18 and playing through the 20 is "Barefoot Battalion," which deals authentically with a wartime episode in a country occupied by the Nazis. Its cast is made up entirely of non-professionals playing roles little different from those they enacted in their own lives.

On the 21 and 22 of this month, "Queen of Babylon," starring Rhonda Fleming and Ricardo Montalban, will be featured. The spectacle is the dazzling story of a slave girl crowned queen. Montalban plays Amal, a Chaldean warrior who seeks an end to the evil rulings of King Assure of Babylon.

Moira Shearer Stars

"Tales of Hoffman," starring gorgeous Moira Shearer, will be shown October 23 through 25. This show is a thrilling fusion of pantomime, music, and dance. As the LOS ANGELES TIMES says, "Tales of Hoffman is probably the most beautiful live motion picture ever made."

Perhaps the best is the one scheduled to start November 1. It is Marcel Phenol's "Letters from My Windmill." This is a French picture based on the letters Alphonse Daudet wrote to Paris when he was living in Southern France. The movie is actually divided into three true stories about the people of this region. The tales were actually written in a windmill where Daudet lived for quite a while. This is one of the most unusual movies to come along in ages; you shouldn't miss it at any cost. It is to be quite humorous and very human—Ad.

French Classes Form New Language Club

Second year French classes recently named officers who will plan special programs to be given once every six weeks during the regular class period.

Miss Estelle Mitchell and Mrs. Jessie Belle Gorrell, French teachers, have formed a French organization with their second year classes which will present plays, French slides, film strips, skits and games at the meetings. Spoken French will be required of every member during the meetings.

The French classes have already started corresponding with French students of similar age and ability.

Officers for each class are Judy Kellett, president of the first period; Katherine Polk, vice-president; and Ann Butler, secretary. The officers in the second period are Peggy Sink, president; Joe Hensley, vice-president; and Carolyn Pearson, secretary.

Sixth period officers are Ranny Dodson, president; Dennis Maynard, vice-president; and Ann Robinson, secretary. Those in seventh period are Jane Morgan, president; Peggy Wilson, vice-president; and Myrna Morgan, secretary.

Social Clubs Help With Fund Drive; Plan For Dances, Projects In Future

In 1947 the first social club at Senior High was formed and was called DDT.

The club now has enlarged from a few members in the club of 1947 to 20 members. Among these are their officers, Nance Lambeth, president; Jane Lynch, vice-president; Mary Lou Hutton, secretary; and Boots Antrim, treasurer. Also among those 20 are the new sophomore members, Becky Chambers, Carol Jones, Judy Harrell, Kay Remy, Mimi Ridenhour, Martha Jordan and Susan Caviness. Ann Sellars a student at Stuart Hall, is an honorary member of the club.

The club has been of much service in the past, helping in the United Fund Drive, TB and Heart Campaigns. Last year the club's main project was supporting a Negro nursery. They also sold doughnuts to obtain money for their annual dance at Christmas with the LSP Club.

The club's activities include two beach parties, one in the spring and the other in the summer, a progressive dinner, a plantation party and a fish fry.

Mrs. Warren is acting as the club's adviser this year.

At the meeting of October 12, the LSP's decided upon a project to be continued through the school year. They will take little things to the Cerebral Palsy School which are needed. At Christmas they plan to buy a shuffleboard for them, and at each holiday they will take a gift to them.

Club pins were ordered at his meeting, and a party for the near future was discussed.

The Bellettes at a meeting in the home of Elayne Battle decided to have a Halloween hayride October 27.

The club along with several other ones assisted in the United Fund Drive October 13.

As their project for this month, the BSC's helped in the United Fund Drive. They also sold doughnuts to raise money for their February dance. A Halloween party for the members and their dates is planned for October 27 at the Stafford's home in Sedgefield.

Les Soeurs had a fish fry Thursday, September 27, at Friendly Road Inn after which they went to the Carolina Theatre.

Following the movie Jane Flynn had an open house and the members remained there for a slumber party.

The club has a new adviser, Nancy Beason, a former Les Soeur herself.

Club pins were ordered at the last meeting for those desiring them, and a Plantation party was planned. Les Soeurs washed windshields for the United Fund Drive. At a meeting of the Venettes at Dolly Culp's home, a hayride was planned for the near future. The club participated in the United Fund campaign.

Spanish Club Names Weston To Top Post

Kay Weston, senior, was elected to serve as president of La Alianza Espanola at their first meeting of the year, Thursday, October 4, in room 313.

Other officers selected were Anne Stone, vice-president; Frances McCormick, recording secretary; Doris Guill, corresponding secretary; and Kitty Wagoner, treasurer.

The club is made up of second year Spanish students and seniors who completed their study of Spanish in the spring of last year. The two requirements necessary for admittance to the club are a high scholastic standing in Spanish and an outside interest in Spanish speaking countries and customs. No new members will be invited to join the club until the spring semester. Membership will then be open to second semester students, including sophomores.

Club members voted to investigate the possibility of adopting a Spanish song as the club song. Another major business matter discussed was the planning of a club project. This project will be definitely voted upon at the next meeting of the club, which will be next month.
