

Edna Ferber's 'Giant' Showing At Carolina

By Jane Thompson

Now playing through January 26 at the CAROLINA THEATRE is George Stevens' production, "Giant." This motion picture was taken from the book of the same name by Edna Ferber.

"Giant" is the story of Texas and the people that live there. Bick Benedict, portrayed by Rock Hudson, is the ruler of a vast empire of land and cattle, and Leslie Benedict, portrayed by Elizabeth Taylor, is his wife. James Dean plays the ambitious Jett Rink, whose dreams for riches are fulfilled in an oil strike.

At first the story is centered around the Benedict ranch. Reata, Jett Rink, an extra hand, acquires a piece of the Benedict territory from the will of Luz Benedict, who was Bick's sister. Jett quits his job at Reata and begins a frantic search for oil on his new land, which is believed worthless. A wild oil strike leads him to the top, but his triumph is darkened by spite.—Ad.

Barons, Dance Ensemble, Perform at Many Socials

Whether you like your music cool and crazy or sweet and low, the Barons have got what it takes to please you. Being organized since September 1955, the band is one of the most popular amateur groups in the vicinity.

The six-piece ensemble includes Bobby Johannesen on the bass clarinet; Dennis Maynard on the tenor sax; Sandy Tucker on the trumpet; Jerry Robertson playing the bass fiddle; David Watkins on the drums; and Ranny Dodson on the piano.

The band was organized by Ranny, David, and Jerry, who first played in a trio before adding the other three instruments to make a rounded band.

The Barons have played at many functions in the past; among the most recent are at a Greensboro College dance, the Rainbow Supper Club, the Moose Club, and Salem Academy in Winston-has appeared in guest roles on the United States Steel Hour and Studio One. Mitchell starred in "Death of a Salesman" on the stage and played in "Gone With the Wind."

Salem.

Ranny, who praises his group highly, says about them:

"Each boy is great on his particular instrument.

"Bobby Johannesen is so good for improvising that we hardly ever need to buy any music for him. Dennis Maynard is exceptional on the sax for creating moods. Sandy Tucker adds a professional touch with his expert horn.

"On the drums, David Watkins gives out with a natural rhythm that keeps our numbers moving. Jerry Robertson is the youngest member of the band, but he has one of the best techniques in double slapping on the bass that I've seen in a long time.

"Me, I just play the piano."

The band recently bought new outfits. They now wear snappy green and black watch plaid jackets and black tweed trousers. Black bow ties and cummerbunds complete their outfits.

The band is available for any social function, and anyone wanting to engage them should contact Randy Dodson, the leader
