GHS Faculty Chooses Good Citizens From Senior, Junior, Sophomore Classes

Good citizens for the third six weeks of the first semester are Peyton Neal and Jerry Mann, Senior Class representatives; Paula Sain and Add Penfield, Junior Class members, and Rodger Durham and Carol Eichorn, sophomores.

Peyton Neal, senior boy citizen, has been the book room manager for two years. He became a member of the Wheel Club as a junior and is now basketball announcer for the varsity team. He is the state governor for the Junior Civitan Club and will serve as chairman of Class Day later in the semester.

Jerry Mann, the senior girl citizen, is a member of the Venettes and president of the Future Teachers of America. She was tapped into Torchlight, National Honor Society and wears a gold star. She is also a member of the concert and marching bands and secretary of her home room.

Junior boy citizen, Add Penfield, is a member of the Key Club, JCL, and has been sports editor of HIGH LIFE for two years. He is vice-president of his home room and took part in the Thanksgiving Pageant.

Paula Sain, the junior girl, has been secretary of her home room for two years and is a member of the concert and marching bands, where she holds the position of assistant secretary. She is also in the ESA club and on the Youth Recreation Committee.

Rodger Durham, sophomore citizen, is president of his home room and a member of the Junior Civitan Club. He is in the concert and marching bands. Coming from Lindley, he was president of the student body as a freshman and a member of the honor society. He was also on the basketball and swimming teams.

Carol Eichorn, the sophomore girl, halls from Lindley also, where she was head cheer leader and president of the honor society. She was awarded the Johnson Memorial Cup and the Civitan Citizenship Award. As a sophomore, she is a member of the student council, the LSP Club, and JCL.

Victory Theatre Presents French Film, 'The Doctor'

BY KAY WALLACE

Five delightful and entertaining shows are going to play at the VICTORY THEATRE for the coming two weeks.

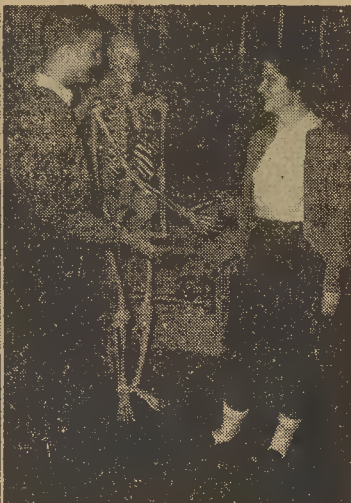

Today and tomorrow, "The Doctor," a French film about the morals and mores of men who carry a thousand intimate secrets under the seal of professional ethics of medicine, will play.

"Sex Outlawed" is a sensational glimpse into the future of the wonders of push buttons and abundant living. This movie of 1984 stars Edmond O'Brien, Michael Redgrave, and Jan Sterling and plays from Sunday, February 10 through Thursday, February 14.

Friday and Saturday, February 15 through February 16, "Female on the Beach" takes the spotlight. The stars are Joan Crawford and Jeff Chandler, who portrays a very exciting and intriguing love story.

Alfred Hitchcock produces another spectacle, "Rebecca," which takes place in present day England. Lawrence Olivier and Joan Fontaine play the starring roles in the movie which opens February 17 and continues through February 20.

Wednesday, February 20 through Saturday, February 23, "The Third Man" plays. Joseph Cotton, Valli, Orson Welles, and Trevor Howard have the leading roles. Joseph Cotton as an American writer goes to war-torn Vienna to take a job promised by a friend, who he comes to find out has been murdered.—Ad.

Something cooking may blow up soon—a skeleton performance of good citizenship! At left top, Jerry Mann and Peyton Neal, seniors, mix the ingredients, while at left bottom Paula Sain and Add Penfield Jr., juniors, serve it, and at right top sophomores Carol Eichorn and Rodger Durham have the backbone for service. It has been customary for the faculty to choose the good citizens for the third six weeks.
