

Symphonettes Capture First Prize In Annual Torchlight Talent Show

First place winner in the annual Torchlight Talent Show Tuesday morning, March 12, in the auditorium was the newly organized GHS Symphonettes, a 16-member orchestral group, which played "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" and "The Way You Look Tonight." Singing "The Banana Boat Song," Jack Jessup, Charlie Quinn, Jimmy Powell, and Tucker Mason, composing the Queen's Men, secured second place, and honorable mention was received by the Two-Plus-Two drum act (minus one with the measles) consisting of Rick Aderhold, treasurer of Torchlight, served as master of ceremonies for the program, and Mary Lou Hutton, senior, gave the devotional.

Russell on Accordion

Other contestants were Rufus Russell, who played a medley of folk songs on the accordion, and Linda Sanders, giving a monologue of "Stella at the Picture Show."

The Teen-Rockers jazzed up the show with a number by Jerry Robertson on the bass, Wally Mid-

Talented GHS students and teachers were 'snapped' as they displayed their abilities in assembly last Tuesday. In the upper right picture Miss Eula Tuttle, fur and all, accompanies those "Monotonous Monotones." The chorus line, left to right include Robert Fredrickson, Frank Bandanella, Julian Smith, Lody Glenn, Pat Earey, and Claude Manzi. This group incidently was voted an honorary membership in "Flashlight."

The lower photo pictures the Symphonettes, the winning act. They are back row left to right, Harry Smith, Dave Miller, Rufus Russell, Susan Deviney, Nan Hedrick, and Bob Wilkerson. On the first row are Jerry Robertson, Janet Snider, Rhonda Dandliker, Julia Adams, Jan Phillips, Linda Harrison, and Paul Tobin. Paula Sain, Bob Miller, and Linda Cashwell are not pictured.

Cooper Null at the drums, Dennis Maynard at the tenor sax, and Jerry Robertson at the bass fiddle.

McNairy, Hipps, Hitchcock Judge
Judged by Miss Dorothy McNairy, principal of General Greene School and past Senior High teacher, Reverend R. Harold Hipps, assistant pastor of West Market Street Methodist Church, and Fred Hitchcock, chairman of the PTSA finance committee, the first and second place winners received prizes of $10 and $5 respectively. Members of the Symphonettes, including Rufus Russell, Rhonda Dandliker, Harry Smith, Bob Miller, Paul Tobin, David E. Miller, Linda Harrison, Julia Adams, Janet Snider, Susan DeVeny, Nan Hedrick, Jan Phillips, Linda Cashwell, Jerry Robertson, Paula Sain, and Bob Wilkerson, spent the sum on music.

kiff, the electric guitar, and Norman Carroll, the drums. A piano solo of a medley of popular songs was given by Paula Sain.

Deanna Daktor and Peggy Weant presented a hill-billy act to "Sure Fire Kisses"; Julia Adams, accompanied by Peggy Sink, performed a violin solo of "First Movement of Vivaldi's Concerto in A Minor"; and Becky Chambers sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," accompanied on the piano by Jeannie Turner.

Two Bonus Acts

Two bonus acts not in the judging were featured previous to the announcement of the judges' decision. Lynn Rankin, senior member of Torchlight, played "Bumble Boogie" on the piano, and the "Monotonous Monotones," a faculty ensemble, presented a novelty singing act. Miss Eula Tuttle, head of the vocal department, accompanied singers Robert Fredrickson, Julian Smith, Lody Glenn, Claude Manzi, Pat Earey, and Frank Bondanella. The last group was given honorary membership into Flashlight!

School Supply Headquarters
S. T. WYRICK and COMPANY

Office Equipment and Supplies

Telephone 2-4133
117 N. Greene St.

REDDY KILOWATT

REMEMBER . . . If you want to have more leisure, yet get more work done — get Reddy Kilowatt on the job. He's the No. 1 way to help you live better . . . electrically!

BURTNER Furniture Company

312 S. Elm St. Established 1909 900 E. Green St.
Greensboro, N. C. High Point, N. C.

Phone 8417

Phone 9861

Sportswear
Glady's Shoppe
BANNER BUILDING

BARTH'S MEN'S and BOYS' WEAR
2180 LAWNSDALE SHOPPING CENTER
HEADQUARTERS FOR IVY LEAGUE

SLACKS
JACKETS
SOCKS

D. E.'s Annual Convention Takes Place March 29, 30

March 29-30, at Woman's College, the 13th annual State Convention of the Distributive Education Clubs of North Carolina will take place.

Sophomores Dominate Senior's Special List

Continued From Page One

Hosts at the convention will be from Bessemer, with Greensboro having charge of the social hour to take place in the Virginia Dare Room in the Alumnae Building, in which all business meetings will also take place. Pleasant Gardens has charge of the registration, which begins at 10 a. m.

Saturday morning the election results will be announced. Also there is to be the constitution committee report, the election of state officers, and installation of officers.

The official delegates from Greensboro will be Don Hicks, senior, Der Hong Hanson and Ruth Padgett, juniors, and Bobby Jones and Mary Ann Matherly, seniors. Many D.E. students from Senior High will attend the convention, according to Mrs. Margaret G. Hadden, D.E. coordinator.

Bob Cunningham are the special students from room 1. From H.E. 200, room 24, and M200 come Martha Deal, Jimmy Finison, and Margaret Humphrey, respectively. Representing 201B are Martha Jordan, Rinda King, and Wanda Kinney, while from room 21 come Edith Lund and Carolyn Lyday.

Carol Overstreet, room 7; David Patrick, 200; and Clark Raynor and Shella Saper, 203B, also made special. Sandra Sharpe comes from 302, and Ruth Spaulding, from 304.

Other sophomores to make special are John Stevenson and Genie Sykes, room 15; Toni Thompson, room 12; Steve Vaughn and Ann Weinstein, room 27; and Nancy Wilkins and Judy Williams, H.E. 100.

Books — Greeting Cards — Stationery
Straughan's Book Shop, Inc.
116 W. MARKET ST. and SUMMIT CENTER

PHIPPS HARDWARE COMPANY

Visit Our Gift and Hardware Departments

215 North Elm Street

Phone BR 2-0179

COMPLIMENTS
Expected!

WITH OUR

Guildcraft fashion-styled glasses.
Optically correct, of course!

Stamper
OPTICAL CO.

206 NORTH ELM ST.

PHONE 3-9286