

HIGH LIFE

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

VOLUME XXXIII

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL, GREENSBORO, N. C., MAY 10, 1957

NUMBER 15

Greensboro Students Win Physics Contest

Larry Brown, senior, won first place in the 1957 state high school physics contest, J. Stanley Johnson, GHS physics teacher, has announced.

All four of the top positions in the exam, which was given under the auspices of the University of North Carolina, went to GHS students. Along with Brown second place was awarded to Waldo Hinshaw, junior. Honorable mentions, the next two highest honors, went to Harwin Dickey and Howard Carr, both seniors.

The exam, which consisted of 30 questions, lasted for one hour.

Several Seniors Receive Valuable College Grants

Word has been received here that a number of GHS's graduating seniors have either received outstanding scholarships or certificates of merit.

Myrna Autry has been selected to receive the Burlington Mills Foundation nursing scholarship. Chosen from a field of Senior High applicants, Myrna will receive $500 for her freshman year at the University of North Carolina School of Nursing. If she keeps her grades high, she may then renew her scholarship through her four-year study, thereby receiving a total of $2,000. This particular scholarship will be awarded to her by a Bur-Mill representative at the Awards Assembly Tuesday, May 14.

Hudgins Wins Grant
Receiving scholarships to Davidson College is Tom Hudgins. He along with 26 other high school seniors who won similar scholarships, will enter that college next fall under this scholarship.

National Merit Scholarships have been won by Robert Willett and Elwood Hartman. Qualifications for this scholarship were merit, leadership, and need. These boys, listed with 1800 other winners, will attend the college of their choice next fall.

Jerry Mann and Doug Albright will be attending Duke University

Holderness, Other Officers Installed May 7

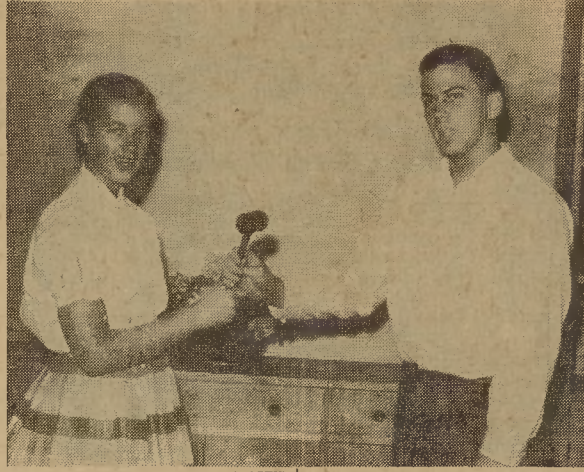

Sandra Holderness, newly elected student body president, along with the other recently elected officers was installed in office before the student body in assembly May 7.

The Student Council report of the year's activities, given by Sandra (this time in her capacity as secretary of the student body) began the program.

With Bill O'Brien, student body president, in charge, the swearing-in ceremonies then began. First on the list was Roy Michaux, succeeding James Spence as Senior Class president. The remaining rising Senior Class officers were then recognized but not given the oath of office.

Student Council representatives from the rising Senior Class were administered the oath of office.

Class of 1958 Youth Council representatives were next introduced to the student body.

Scholarship Plaques Given To Home Rooms For This Six Weeks

Senior, junior, and sophomore home rooms have received the last scholarship plaques of this school year.

The sophomore home room winner was room 302 with an average of 84.58, and room 203B came in second with an average of 84.52.

Home room 301 won the junior scholarship plaque with an average of 87.83. Second place was won by 305 with an average of 87.50.

Home room 306 had the highest average of the senior home rooms with 87.73, while room 3 had the second highest average of 87.32.

Sandra Holderness, recently installed president of GHS, is pictured above receiving the gavel, the symbol of her office, from Bill O'Brien, out-going president. Sandra is the first girl ever to be chosen for this office.

Jerry Robertson was sworn in as Junior Class president, taking the reins from Wallace Williams. Rising Junior Class officers were then recognized.

Class of 1959 Student Council representatives were administered the oath of office, and Youth Council representatives were presented to the audience.

Next Bill began installing school officers. Linda Cashwell replaced Libby Garvin as Youth Recreation Committee Chairman. Bobby Baynes was replaced as traffic chief by Roger English. Both of these officers will be occupied by seniors. Jey Deifell gave up his position as treasurer of the student body to Pete Banner, and Susan Caviness succeeded Sandra Holderness as secretary. These officer will be occupied by juniors.

After a short speech Buck Hoyle turned over his position as vice-president and his job of presiding in assemblies to Peggy Sink, rising senior.

Last on the program was the installation of Sandra as president. After Bill administered the oath of office, Bill O'Brien symbolically surrendered the gavel to Sandra, who then gave a short acceptance speech.

74 STUDENTS ON SPECIAL HONOR ROLL AS JUNIORS LEAD SOPHOMORES, SENIORS

Special honor roll students for the second grading period of the second semester totaled 74, which included 23 seniors, 28 juniors, and 23 sophomores.

Home room 102's special students are Bonnie Adelstein and Boots Antrim, and from 202 is Larry Brown. Other seniors who made special are, from 101, Stratton Eldridge, Mary Pat Elig, and Diana Evans; from 307, Henry Flynt, Gilbert Frank, and Hilda Garrett; and from 204, Elwood Hartman and Al Hattaway.

Representative from room 4 is Ruth Hunt, while Judy Kellett and Nancy Lambeth come from 303. Jane McLennan, Gary Massey, Jim Phillips, and James Spence are special students from 300, 306, 3, and 13, respectively.

Room 8's specials are Florence Weaver, Kay Weston, and Joan Weinstein, and room 313's are Kay Wood and Pollyann Young.

Room 23's Representatives
Mary Lee Adams, Helen Allen, Brenda Alvis, and Anne Baldwin, room 206, are juniors making special. Others are Brenda Borders and Denny Broadhurst, 201A; Janet Coble and Connie Coltrane, room 5; Peggy Earle, 14; and Joanne Horne and Meyressa Hughes, 301.

Robert Johnson and Charles King represent room 201M, and Frances McCormick and Lynn McGregor are from 317. Coming from 23 are Carolyn Manuel, Jean Medearis, and Rhoda Miller, and Betty Rose is the special student from room 9.

Concluding the juniors making special are Peggy Sink and Max Snodderly, 203A; Edgar Sockwell, Angelyn Stokes, and Don Stokes, room 2; Frances Taylor, 22; and Anne Wilson, Anne Wolfe, and Prissy Wyrick, room 16.

Mildred Blakey is the lone sophomore from room 311 to make special, and Brenda Britt represents room 17. From the band room come Susan Caviness, Lucille Coltrane, and Sandra Coe, and from room 1 are Marty Cone and Bob Cunningham.

Completing The List
Jimmy Finison, room 24; Rodney Hill, room 6; and Rhoda King and Wanda Kinney, 201B also made special. Mike Morton, Carol Overstreet, David Patrick, and Sheila Saper come from rooms 60, 7, 200, and 203B respectively.

Remaining sophomores are Ann Shadoin, 302, Sue Stanley, 304; John Stevenson, 15; Tomi Thompson and Susan Tilley, 12; Steve Vaughn and Anne Weinstein, 27; and Judy Williams, H. E. 200.

Work Begun On Next Year's Annual

Sue Levine To Edit WHIRLIGIG During 1957-58; Hewett, Sink Head Business Staff Of Yearbook

Staff members for the 1957-58 WHIRLIGIG have been chosen and announced by Miss Virginia

Powell, adviser, with Sue Levine, this year's assistant editor, heading the staff as editor-in-chief.

Nancy Hewett, who is now Junior Class editor, will serve with Sue as business manager and Peggy Sink, rising senior, as assistant business manager.

Managing Editor
The posts of managing editor and literary editor will be filled by Pat Howell and Angelyn Stokes, respectively.

Other positions were named as follows: engraving editor, Mary Lee Adams; assistant engraving editor, Wayne Hicks; photography editor, Janice Thompson; and assistant photography editor, Ann Wolff.

Organization Editors
Working jointly as organization editors are Sandra Coe and Lila Wolff, while Nancy Williams has the title of feature editor.

Also paired together are Donnie Elliott and Janet Coble who will be caption editors for 1958. Bobby Dorsett will be in charge of sports, while the class editors will be Ann Robinson and Jan Phillips for the Senior Class and Susan Noah and Carolyn Dahlfues for the Junior Class.

Completing the staff are the sophomore editor and advertising salesmen who have not been chosen of yet. Most of these posts will be filled by incoming sophomores.

Plans for the 1958 edition have already been worked out by the rising staff members.

Newly elected WHIRLIGIG staff officers are left to right) Sue Levine, editor; Peggy Sink, assistant business manager; Nancy Hewett, business manager; Angelyn Stokes, literary editor; and Pat Howell, managing editor.