

GHS's faculty chose Carol Eichhorn and Jerry Robertson, seniors; Helen Stanfield and Alfred Walke, juniors; and Diana Wellons and Gary Brittenham, sophomores, as good citizens for the first six weeks grading period of the second semester. Each home room chooses a boy and a girl to compete for the honor. To be eligible one must not have a conduct grade lower than a B and no failing grades. Then the teachers select a boy and a girl from each class. The winners are recognized in assembly and given a silver pin.

Faculty Completes Voting Of Citizenship Honor Roll

Greensboro Senior High School's faculty has selected the Good Citizens for the first six weeks grading period of the second semester.

Carol Eichhorn

Carol is president of Torchlight, GHS's honor society, secretary of the Civinette Club, a member of the choir, an office assistant and was selected the DAR Good Citizen. She also makes regular honor roll.

Jerry is president of the student body, a Key Clubber, a member of the choir and orchestra. He plays the bass in the Mad Lads Band. He also makes regular honor roll.

Helen Stanfield

Helen is a choir member, and is in the Future Teachers of America Club. She makes special honor roll regularly.

Alfred is a Junior Civitan, sergeant-at-arms of the Philomathian Hi-Y Club, a football player, a member of the Monogram Club, and a manager of the basketball team.

Sophomore Good Citizens

Diana is a member of Civinette Club, is in the orchestra, works on the WHIRLIGIG staff and makes regular honor roll.

Gary is on the swimming team and makes regular honor roll.

Eligibility

Each home room is responsible for selecting a boy and a girl to compete for the honor. To be eligible one must not have a conduct grade lower than a B and no failing grades. The faculty then selects a boy and a girl from each class. One group is chosen for each six weeks.

Recognition

The winners of the Citizenship Honor Roll are recognized in assembly where they are given silver pins which they for for the next six weeks as a symbol of the Good Citizen honor. This is one of the fe whonors at Senior for which almost every member of the student body is eligible.

Principal Presents Keys To Art Awards Winners

Scholastic Art awards were presented by Mr. A. P. Routh to Senior High winners February 10 in the assembly.

The contest was entered by a great many students from all over the state. There were 1,000 entrants all together. Of the 1,200 entrants that were judged, 125 were picked as gold key winners. The television station WFMY sponsored this contest and picked one of the art pieces to be their Christmas card for 1959. The winner of this honor was June Rubin.

June Rubin also won three gold keys, and was picked as one of the five state finalists to go on to national competition.

Jennifer Stewart won a gold key; Annette Love won a Gold Key and an honorable mention for her art work; Steve Frank won a Gold Key and so did Jo Anne Collier. Jerry Sawers received both a Gold Key and an Honorable mention while Kathy Weir received a Gold Key.

These pieces of are work are being displayed at Elliott Hall, Harolds Restaurant, and the Junior Museum.

Carolyn Marks Edits News For Greensboro

Carolyn Marks, senior at Greensboro Senior High School, has been appointed editor of city school news for the GREENSBORO RECORD.

Carolyn is replacing Geanie Black, junior, who edited the news during the past semester. The position involves collecting, editing, typing and proofreading news from the junior high schools throughout the city.

The column appears in the RECORD every week, Monday through Friday.

Carolyn is a member of Torchlight, managing editor of HIGH LIFE, and is on the debating team and belongs to Quill and Scroll.
