GHS students went to the polls Wednesday, April 15, and elected Carol Smith, present student body secretary, to the top office of their student government for the school year of 1959-60.

Carol defeated Penny Taliaferro, treasurer of the student body, in the election in which 803 students voted, out of a student body of 1700.

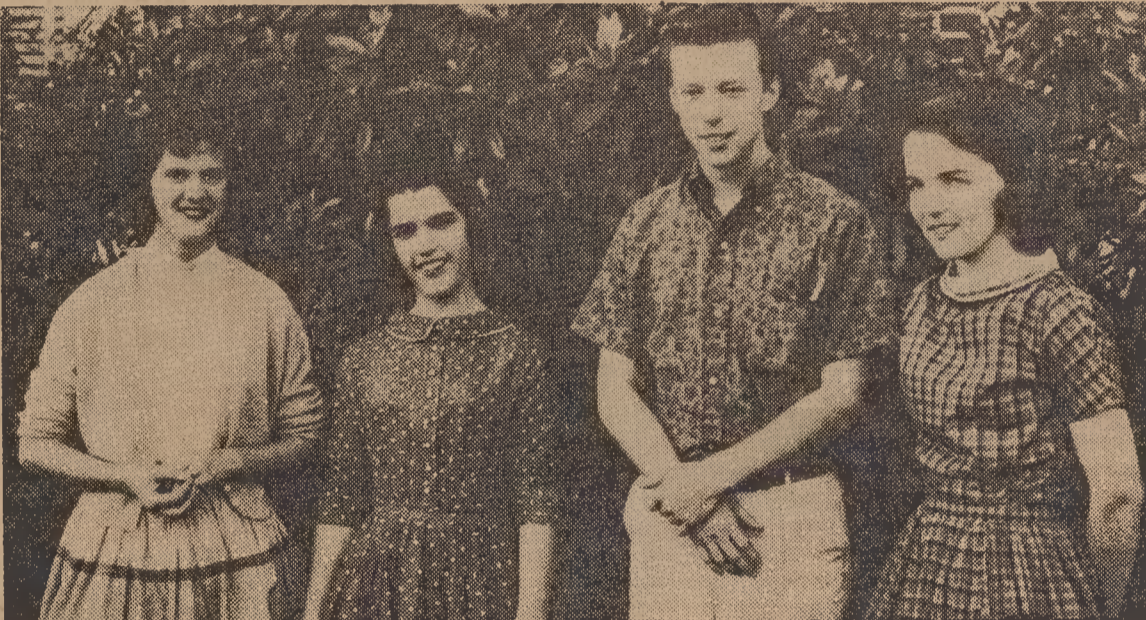

Other student body officers will be Suzy McNeely, vice-president; Roddy Stout, secretary; Virginia Harmon, treasurer; Tootie Blair, traffic chief; and Janie Leigh Wall, Youth Recreation Council chairman.

'Miss Guilford' Entries To Include GHS Beauties

Contestants announced for the Third annual Miss Guilford County Pageant, planned for May 15, 1959, included two Senior High School girls—Kay Smith and Carolyn Marks.

The contest, sponsored by the Guilford College Jaycees, has had two previous winners — Mrs. Patricia Burke, of 1957, who placed in the top 10 in the North Carolina Pageant division, and Nancy Ellen Hackney Jones who was the second runner-up in the 1958 North Carolina pageant.

Miss Guilford County will be selected from a field of 12 contestants, who will be judged on three different divisions — talent, evening gown, and bathing suit. Three minutes will be allotted for talent, one for bathing suit competition and three for evening gown. The pageant will begin at 8 p. m., and the winner will be announced that evening. This is the official preliminary contest which precedes the Miss North Carolina Pageant in June of 1959, at Durham, North Carolina.

Contestants for the pageant were selected from Greensboro Senior High School, Page High School, Guilford High School, Woman's College, Greensboro College and Guilford College.

The winner will receive a $200 wardrobe and a $250 scholarship to the school of her choice.

The two girls have already been approved by the entire committee and are making plans for the big night.

Kay is a member of the choir, was nominated BEST DRESSED superlative, and is a member of the LSP club. Kay was a member of the Home Coming Court and is a Senior Representative on the May Day.

Carolyn is the present co-chairman of the '59 Class Day. She is the Managing Editor of HIGH LIFE and HOMESPUN. She is secretary of Quill and Scroll and a member of Torchlight.

Registration was conducted April 13 and 14. Due to an error in the ballots, the president, secretary and treasurer of the Senior Class, and the president and treasurer of the Junior Class were not chosen until Thursday, April 16.

The president, vice-president, traffic chief, and recreation chairman are always rising seniors; the secretary and treasurer are rising juniors.

Because no more than two candidates were announced for any of the student body offices, the traditional nominating convention was not conducted.

Sophomores and juniors also selected four offices for each of their classes and representatives to the Student Council and Youth Recreation Council. Sophomores elected nine and juniors seven delegates to each council. Special elections will be conducted for incoming sophomores in the fall.

Well, now that elections are over things are getting back to normal around the campus. Congratulations to the winners and the losers! The winners, of course, have their offices, while the losers have gained much in participation in the elections.

Mr. Morrow and his committee surely are doing a fine job planning May Day. There's still plenty of room for anyone who wants to help.

I'm happy to announce that the Duke Ambassadors Dance Orchestra will play for our Spring Prom. They are a 16-piece orchestra, including a girl vocalist, and are really good. Tickets for the Prom will go on sale in about two weeks and may be purchased from any Student Council member. The price for admission this year is $.75 per person.

The end of the school year is near, and there are only about six weeks of school left. Let's really bear down on those books and make the best of it.
