

Library Fees Due
Pay Now!

Ninety-One Seniors, Thirty-Eight Juniors List Mid-Term Examination Exemptions

Miss Mildred Maddox, chairman for the mid-term exam exemptions, has announced that the total list shows 91 seniors and 38 juniors released from an exam.

Out of 25 exemptions in the English 8 department, 21 students have exempted Miss Joyner's examination. Those seniors are Pat Adams, Peggy Colmer, Sondra Childress, Cricket Connor, Thomas Cribbin, Mary Ann Crocker, Tara Dinkel, Betsy Eubanks, Lynn Field, Polly Friend, Lind Kirksey, Susan Moffitt, Patsy Parker, Jerry Sawers, Larry Sawers, Helen Stanfield, Judy Stone, Sue Wade, Ann Waters, Pete Weltner, and Lynn Westmoreland.

Bill Barrier, Marty Palmer, and Joyce Payne have chosen Miss Maddox's English exam for their exemption. Chuck McDonald is the only person who exempted Mrs. Newman's test.

There are ten exemptions in the math department with six of them being in Miss Moore's trigonometry class. Trig exemptors are Mary Ann Crocker, Chuck McDonald, Sammy McNairy, Harriet Thompson, Pete Weltner, and Marianne Zimmerman. Brenda Coltrane is exempting geometry 6. She has Mrs. Ledford. Three of Miss Burnside's students eliminated her exam. Meredith McNeill and Frank Sloan chose the advanced algebra exam and Bill Walters is exempting geometry 6.

Exempt History
Seven students from Miss Blackmon's class lead the list of 24 who have exempted history. These students are as follows: Judy Blackmon, Leonna Jones, Vera LeCraw, Larry Sawers, Judy Stone, and Anne Waters. Jerry Sawers exempted History 5 while the other six exempted History 3. Mr. Fredrickson has four exemptions—Yvonne Kincaid, Burnley Kinney, Sylvia McClellan, Susan Moffitt. Nancy Faulconer is the only student exemption Mrs. Gamble's History 3 exam.

Pat Adams heads the list exempting Mrs. Pfaff's History 3 examination. The other 11 students are Lynn Bowles, Ruth Ennis, Judy Greene, Sharron Oates, Marty Palmer, Sherry Rottman, Boyd Taylor, Ann Thayer, Harriet Thompson, and Beverly Settan.

The fourteen students who have exempted chemistry are Priscilla Caudle, Kay Chandler, Diana Charles, Peggy Colmer, Libby Cooke, Jean Ellen Jones, Nina Kennedy, Kay Lindley, Jeannie Littlejohn, Sherry Rottman, Ann Thayer, Marianne Zimmerman, under Miss Fountain; and Yvonne Kincaid, Rebecca Markham, under Mr. Upstill.

French Exemptions
Four of Miss Mitchell's French students have eliminated her exam. Judy Blackmon, Jo Ann Cannon, Tara Dinkel, and Jewel Williams exempted French 5. Joyce Payne is the only senior exempting Spanish. She takes Spanish 5 under Miss Wales. The Latin 5 exemptions wind up the list of seniors. Priscilla Caudle, Minette Clarke, Thomas Cribbin, Vera LeCraw, Sammy McNairy, Patsy Parker, Carol Smith, Sue Wade, and Mary Ann Weber exempted this exam of Mrs. Madlin's.

Pat Adams To Attend White House Meeting

Pat Adams, senior, has been chosen to attend the White House Conference on Children and Youth in March of this year.

Pat, who is now serving as President of the North Carolina High School Library Association and is also past treasurer, was nominated by the State School Library Advisors, Miss Mary F. Kennon and Miss Cara Paul Bomar. The official invitation was received some time before Christmas with complete instructions and an outline of the weeks activities.

The conference with 7,000 participants, is celebrating its golden anniversary this year. The American Library Association has been allowed to have 10 participants in the conference.

The conference is to run through the last week in March.

Juniors Exempt
The English department leads the number of exemptions in the junior class with 13. The others follow as listed: math, 8; Latin, 7; chemistry 6; Spanish, 3; and history, 1.

Bob Buchanan and Jean Waters are exempting Miss Joyner's English 5 exam. Miss Mims' test has been eliminated by Thomas White-side, Sue Wright, Irene Gullede, Donald Grimes, Bill Good, and Carlton Cann. The other English 5 exemptors are in Miss Nicholson's class. They are Ann Winchester, Shirley Whitman, Patsy Strickland, Mary Radcliffe, and Boyd Perry.

The eight math exemptors are Cherrie Miller, Mary Bradley, Suzanne Anderson, Barbara Purgason, Anne Star Minton, Holly Kowal, Adele Freedman, and Andrea Teague. The first three are students of Mrs. Alton, the next four study under Miss Burnside, and the last one is a student of Mrs. Roe.

Mac Murray, John Monroe, Dale Kellar, Sam Garren, Joel Drinkard, Sandra Boyles exempted Miss Fountain's chemistry exam. The one history exemptor is Charlie Thompson. He is in Mrs. Hutton's History 5 class. David Meyer exempted French 1 under Miss Mitchell. Miss Mitchell had one other student who exempted her exam. Jess McFarland exempted French 3.

There were seven Latin exemptors. Virginia Harmon, Allen McSween, and Tommy Sloan eliminated Miss Maddox's Latin 3 exam, while Sharon Eldridge, Harriette Eiler, and Gary Brittenham exempted the same semester under Mrs. Madlin. Pam Pfaff exempted Latin 5 under Mrs. Madlin.

Miss Wales had three students to exempt her Spanish 3 examination. They are Mary Francis Lund, Jane Coltrane, and Sandra Bargamin.

A student must make honor roll at least seven times in a row to exempt an exam. If he is a gold star wearer he may exempt two exams.

DR. CLAUDE B. BOWEN

Dr. Bowen To Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon

Dr. Claud B. Bowen, minister of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro, will conduct the Baccalaureate service for the 1960 graduating class May 27 in his church.

Dr. Bowen is the former vice-president of the Baptist State Convention and is a trustee of Campbell Junior College, Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem, and Southeastern Theological Seminary. He is also a member of the Greensboro Rotary Club and is chaplain for the Fire Department of Greensboro.

Traveling is Dr. Bowen's chief hobby. He has traveled extensively through Europe and the Holy Land. He has just recently returned from a six-week preaching mission in Ghana and Nigeria, West Africa. This trip was sponsored by the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board in Richmond, Virginia.

In the summer of 1958 Dr. Bowen directed a party through Europe and the Holy Land, and he is now planning to conduct a tour to the Baptist World Alliance in Rio de Janeiro in 1960.

Dr. Bowen, who originally hails from Winona, Mississippi, was the minister for the Kentucky Student Pastors, First Baptist Church of Opelika, Alabama, and the Calvary Baptist Church of Jackson, Mississippi, before bringing his family to Greensboro.

Dr. Bowen married Louise Leavell Bowen, who is a alumna of Blue Mountain College. There are three children in the family. Claud Davis Bowen is 20 and attends Wake Forest College in Winston-Salem. Dickie Bowen, 17, is president of the senior class here at GHS. The one girl, Carol, is 12 and a junior high student.

Playmasters Acquire Three New Members

New members of the Playmasters who were initiated last Monday are Carolyn McMasters, Jim Lowe, both seniors, and Mary Radcliffe, junior.

The first meeting of the Playmasters for the semester took place at the home of the adviser, Miss Causey. At this time, the president, Christina Stewart, set up committees for the production of the three-act play, Teen-Age Dracula. The play is scheduled for the night of February 25. At the meeting plans for the contest plays which are to be entered in the Drama Festival were made also.

Theme of Midwinter's Accents 'Mardi Gras'

"Mardi Gras" will be the theme of the 1960 Midwinter's semi-formal dance January 25 in the girls' gym.

Cricket Connor, senior, is chairman of the dance which is sponsored by the Student Council. He has announced that the Carolinians will provide the dance music. Jerry Robertson, 1958-59 GHS student body president, plays bass for the combo.

Student Council members and homeroom volunteers will decorate the girls' gym. Cricket's committee members are Anne Foster, senior; Dale Neese, junior; Dick Tontz sophomore; and Carman Erwin, senior. Miss Mary Parker, English teacher, is the adviser for the group.

Cricket and his colleagues expect approximately 300 couples to attend the dance which will begin at 9 p.m. and terminate at midnight. Cricket asks that no flowers be sent to the girls from their dates for this occasion.

Tickets for Midwinter's may be obtained from any Student Council member. The price for admission per couple is $1.00.

Shown above, Carol Smith and Cricket Conner lead Midwinter's Dance.

Sam McNairy To Compete In Morehead Competition

Sammy McNairy, senior, has won the chance to go on to district competition for the Morehead Scholarship.

Chosen from 54 Guilford County applicants, Sammy is one of seven to go on to district competition to be held in Winston-Salem the last of January. From the nine counties in our district, six boys will be chosen to go on to Chapel Hill where only a few will be eliminated. The approximately forty boys to win in Chapel Hill will then be entitled to the $5,000 John Motley Morehead Scholarship.

All Morehead Scholarships are awarded on ability only. Financial need is not considered. The four-year grant will pay the winner's full expenses, including spending money.