

The flag of North Carolina means much to these sophomores and juniors who were selected as best citizens for the third six weeks. They are left to right Sherrill Newman, Carol Roberts, sophomores; Pam Pfaff, and Don Grimes, juniors. Senior winners pictured on page 8.

Newnam, Pfaff, McNairy Win Citizen Honor Again

Sherrill Newnam, sophomore, Pam Pfaff, junior, and Walton McNairy, senior, all members of the Citizenship Honor Roll the second six weeks period, have won again.

Carol Roberts sophomore junior varsity cheerleader was chosen with Sherrill to represent the sophomore class. Carol and Sherrill are both president of their homeroom. Sherrill ran for president of the sophomore class and is a Junior Civitan.

Never Missed Honor Roll

Don Grimes and Pam Pfaff, junior members of the Citizenship Honor Roll, have not missed honor roll since they have been at Senior. Pam, who is J.C.L. president and a member of the student council and Civinettes, likes to spend her spare time reading. Swimming and waterskiing are great favorites with Don.

High Life Editor, Geanie Black and Walton McNairy, president of the Key Club, are best citizens from the senior class. Geanie is also active in Quill and Scroll and Walton, in varsity football and wrestling.

Selected by Faculty

Selection of students to the Citizenship Honor Roll every grading period is done by the faculty. Chosen by their home room or their home room teacher, candidates are elected on the basis of service and citizenship in general. To be eligible, a student must not have less than a B on department and must pass three major subjects.

Candidates from senior home rooms are Al Bennett, Geanie Black, Eddie Burton, Judy Blackmon, Cricket Connor, Peggy Colmer Dan Derby, Sandra Dobson, Billy Flynt, Elaine Ellis, Robert Foster, Bea Garton, Dick Haskell, Ann Haralson, Charles Jones, Jean Ellen Jones, Skip Jones, and Nina Kennedy. Frank McComb, Kay

Lindley, Walton McNairy, Anne McMinn, Jim Parker, Linda Moser, Keith Robbins, Florence Robertson, George Rosenthal, Majorie Rubin, Frank Sloan, Helen Stanfield, John Tasker, Harriet Thompson, Jack Watson, Cameron Wesselhoff, Dave Williams, and Susan Williams.

Juniors

Juniors Larry Banks, Jeannie Anderson, Gary Brittenham, Pat Boone, Jerry Craig, Joan Clark, Sam Garren, Sharon Eldridge, Don Grimes, Karen Gill, Dale Keller, Peggy King, Jim Latham, Martha McKee, Kent Morgan, Cherrie Miller, Don Myrick, Mary Glyde Overman, Boyd Perry, Pam Pfaff, Phil Shu, Becky Sharpe, Brent Simpson, Emily Skenes, Alan Turner, Andrea Teague, Sam White, and Sue Wright were candidates for the citizenship award.

The forty-four sophomore candidates selected are Bunny Adams, Pan Angel, Pete Bondanella, Linda Blair, Jerry Brady, Mary Stowe Boyd, Sam Coble, Chris Coble, Don Cunningham, Jenny Cooper, Charles Ephland, Connie Farmer, Paul Gardiner, Margie Funch, Edward Hinshaw, Mary Hartman, Bill Hudson, Rhea Jacobs, Bob Keller, Scottie Kellam, Mike Lawrence, Jeannie Lambert, Bob McGowan, Barbara Massell, Sherrill Newnam, and Pam Muneey. Jocyn Nuckolls, Sandra Parker, Sammy Pegram, Elaine Pelkey, Dan Richman, Carol Roberts, Richard Sain, Georgianna Sartin, Dale Smith, Carol Sheets, Bob Spaulding, Cherry Swaringer, Dick Tontz, Jane Taylor, Sam West, Jean Whitaker, Craig Wilson, and Nora Wilson complete the list of sophomores on the citizenship ballot.

Janet Rankin junior class president, and Miss Lottie Burnside of the math department are in charge of the Citizenship Honor Roll elections.

Students On Special Honor Roll Total 66 For Third Grade Period

The senior class led the list with 36 students on the special honor roll for the past six weeks; the juniors numbered 16 and the sophomores trailed with 14.

Page Acree was the sole representative from homeroom 106, while from room 202 came Judy Blackmon, Lynn Bowles, and Priscilla Caudle. Diana Charles, Peggy Colmer, and Brenda Coltrane are from 204.

Boosting the morale of room 2 are Thomas Cribbin, Tara Dinkle, and Bobby Dixon. Pairing up to represent 304 were Jane Hinton and Martha Jo Hoover. Patricia Johnson was the lone special from 303 as was Burnley Kinney from room 60. Room 300 had the most students on special with Vera LeCraw, Kay Lindley, Jean Littlejohn, and Chuck McDonald.

Room 21 contributed Sammy McNairy, Meredith McNeill, and Susan Moffit to the list. Linda Moser, Sharon Oates, and Marty Palmer from 306 and Sherry Rottman and Beverly Settan from 61 also "made the scene."

Representing room 4 were Carol Smith, Arthur Springer, and Helen Stanfield, along with Judy Stone, Ann Thayer and Harriet Thompson from 9. Jack Watson, Mary Ann Weber, and Peter Weltner from 302 and Jewel Williams from M-204 conclude the list of seniors.

Juniors Follow

Bob Buchanan from room 10 and Joel Drinkard from 103 head the list of juniors on the special honor roll. They are followed by Harriette Eiler and Adele Freedman of 206 and Donald Grimes and Irene Gullledge from 8.

Jess MacFarland alone represents room 14, as does Ann Starr Minton from 309. From 203-A comes Michael Patterson and Mac Murray, while 317 offers Pam Pfaff and Mary Radcliffe.

Terry Stewart hails from 305 and 203-B finishes the list of 16 juniors with Charles Thompson, Jean Waters, and Merritt Wayt.

Sophomores Trail

From sophomore homeroom 65 come Pete Bondanella and Cecie Boren, and from 25 Joe Harmon Eddie Jennings, and Rhea Jacobs represent room 6. M-202's special student is Sherry Kellett as is Roger Lewis from 315. Room 301 and 5 offer Sandra Neal and Sandra Parker, respectively. Diane Smither is the only one from V-100 to make special.

Dale Stansbury and Cherry Swaringer claim 102, and H.E.-100 is the homeroom of Jean Whitaker. Nora Wilson from 100 concludes the list of those students making the special honor roll.

Playmasters To Give 'Dracula' Production

Nine seniors and six juniors will make up the cast of the Playmaster's production of "Teenage Dracula", which is to be presented February 25.

The members of the cast in order of appearance are Carol Clapp as Sue Marshall, a teenager; Jim Lowe as Pete, her brother; Sally Sink and Charles Jones as Mrs. and Mr. Clyde Purdy, Sue's aunt and uncle; Martha McKee as Audrey, a teenager; Carolyn McMasters as Marlene, the maid; Robert Jones as Steve, a teenager; Jimmy Von Cannon as Dr. Cole, a physician; Lind Holloman as Termite, a teenager; Mary Radcliffe as Mrs. Erskine; Rick Elliot as Steinbeck, a policeman; Darla Day as Dodo; Sue Anne Wrenn as Jackie; Gloria Griffin as Lola; and Virginia Feustal as Betty.

All-State Orchestra Has Participants From Senior

Greensboro Senior High School had twenty-five participants in the 1960 N. C. all-state High School Orchestra concert, given in Broughton High School Auditorium, 3:00 p.m., Sunday, January 31.

The naming of an All-State Orchestra and All-State Workshop Orchestra and their concerts are an annual affair in North Carolina. Aspiring orchestra members in the various school were auditioned last November. The program, free of charge, was given after two days of rehearsal. Last year the concert was held in Greensboro.

String and Woodwinds

GHS was represented in the All-State Orchestra's 1st violin section by Dan Richman, a sophomore. Brenda Coltrane, Anne Starr Minton, and Vera Leonard, a senior, junior and sophomore respectively played 2nd violin. Brenda held a first chair in this section. The viola section was represented by Arthur Springer, and Percy Leonard, seniors and Annette Anderson, a junior. Anne Foster, Chris Cardwell, Phil Pearsall, Nancy Frich, and John Monroe played cellos. The bass section was handled by two seniors, Diana Charles, and Linda Mann. In the woodwind section were Jeannie Littlejohn, who occupied first chair in the flutes, and Cricket Conner, who also played a flute. Martha Watson, on the bassoon John Sink, on the French Horn, and Frank Salon, on the tuba, rounded out this section.

The All-State workshop Orchestra personnel from Senior was composed of Taylor Owens, and Lilla Culpepper, seniors; Judy Barber and Betty Jo Smith, juniors; and Jane Taylor and Lin Gerringer, sophomores. Accompanying the group on the trip were Mr. J. Kimball Harriman, and Mr. Robert Fredrickson.

Capital Crowded

The 120 members of the orchestras arrived in Raleigh last Friday afternoon, at which time they registered and rehearsed until 9:30 p.m. The following day, two practice sessions were held, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. That night all members were invited to a banquet and, afterward, to a dance and social hour. The next morning an interdenominational church service was held, and, that afternoon, the concert was given. During the 3-day stay, all out-of-town orchestra members were guests at homes of interested townsmen.

The program was made up of two parts. The workshop Orchestra performed first. The numbers played are as follows: Fugue in G. Minor, Merry Mount Suite, Short Overture to an Unwritten Opera, Symphony No. 2 — first movement, and the Russian Sailors Dance from "The Red Poppy."

After a fifteen minute intermission, the All-State Orchestra played Lenore Overture No. 3, Interludium in Modo Antico, Peter and the Wolf, and Great Gateau Kiev. Directing the concert were Richard Duncan conductor of the All-State Orchestra, and Donald Hayes, Conductor of the Workshop Orchestra.

Pat Adams Places First To Win Homemaker Title

Pat Adams, senior, earned the title of Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow at Senior High by placing first in a fifty minute written examination of homemaking skills and knowledge, taken by senior girls in December.

Pat's paper will now be submitted as the GHS entry in the state contest. The winner of the state contest will receive a $1,500 scholarship and a trip to New York City and colonial Williamsburg with a school adviser, April 23-29. The high point of the trip will be the American Table Banquet in Washington, D. C., on April 28, where the nation-wide winner will be announced. Runners-up in the state contest will win scholarships of $500. The nation-wide winner will receive a scholarship of $5,000. The second, third, and fourth place Homemaker of Tomorrow in the country will obtain scholarships of $4,000,

PAT ADAMS

Bomb Scare Creates Emergency Assembly

Senior High students were called to an "emergency assembly" third period Monday by Mr. A. P. Routh.

The students were entertained in the boys' gymnasium while members of the Greensboro Police Department searched the campus for any threat of a bomb. It seems a girl had called the police station and threatened such a bomb.

All students returned to their classes within forty minutes.

$3,000, and $2,000, respectively. Pat has already received an award pin, bearing the slogan "Home is where the heart is", presented to her in assembly Thursday, January 28.

Pat is a special honor roll student and a member of the orchestra. She has also won several honors for her work in the school library and is a member of Torchlight.