Homecoming Queen Wins May Day Throne

Sue Anne Wrenn Is Senior Maid-of-Honor

Griffin, Sartin Represent Underclassmen In Court

Homecoming Queen Betty Tucker and runner-up Sue Anne Wrenn have been chosen by the student body to reign respectively as May Queen and senior maid-of-honor.

Gloria Griffin will attend the queen as junior maid-of-honor. Georgianna Sartin was elected to the top sophomore court position.

The other six seniors selected for the May Court are Sondra Childress, Elaine Ellis, Patsy Parker, Wilma Kay Pegg, Carol Smith, and Linda Upchurch.

Remaining juniors are Virginia Harmon, Martha McKee, Dale Mauldin, and Anne Starr Minton.

Gloria Cox, Libby McComb, Carol Roberts, and Carol Sheets, sophomores, will also be honored in the festivities.

Queen is Cutest

Queen Betty was selected cutest on the list of senior superlatives, while Sue Anne was decided to have the best personality. Betty was sophomore maid-of-honor in 1958. Sue Anne was chosen by last years' juniors as maid-of-honor.

Sondra, Elaine, Wilma Kay, Carol, and Linda were all also elected as senior class superlatives this fall. Sondra was chosen friendliest; Elaine, best looking; Wilma Kay, most talented; Carol, most popular; and Linda, best dressed. Patsy is secretary of Torchlight National Honor Society.

Gloria was sophomore maid-of-honor in the 1959 May Day. Georgianna is the only sophomore varsity cheerleader.

The student council conducted the balloting for the court. Dickie Bowen, senior class president, acted as student chairman. Mrs. Mary Alice Moody was faculty adviser.

Yearbook Sales Total 1200 Copies For Year

WHIRLIGIG sales for the first and second semesters of this school year jointly amounted to approximately 1200, practically equaling the number of subscriptions for the past year.

Of the total number of subscribers, 54 were teachers. There were only 500 students who did not buy yearbooks.

According to Miss Virginia Powell, yearbook adviser, WHIRLIGIG went to press last Friday.

Pupils Planning To Take College Board Must Send Applications To Be Eligible

Applications for the next College Entrance Examinations should be sent in very soon to be eligible.

The next exam will be given on Saturday, March 12, at Senior High School. Exams will be given on May 21 and August 10 also. In order to take the March 12 exam, applications must be filed by February 13, and positively no later than February 27. A penalty must be paid between February 13 and 27 for late application. The penalty dates for the May 21 and August 10 exams are April 23 and July 13. The closing dates for these exams are May 7 and July 27, respectively.

The tests will be administered on all test dates in the test centers in Asheville, Charlotte, Raleigh, Wilmington, and Winston-Salem. These test centers are for the Scholastic Aptitude Tests and the Achievements also. These exams are given in the mornings and afternoons, respectively.

The Achievement Tests are given only on certain dates as specified in the test booklet. They consist of tests in English Composition, Social Studies, Intermediate Mathematics, Advanced Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, French, German, Latin, and Spanish.

In order to know which tests to take, the student should look up the requirements of the college or scholarship for which he is applying. A student must file an application accompanied by the fee if he expects to take any part of the exam. The application must be filled out accurately and legibly. A few weeks before the exam, the applicant will receive an admission ticket and some gummed labels. These should be taken to the test center on the test date.

Individual test scores will be sent to the colleges listed by the student within five weeks of the test. No partial scores will be given out. The scores of all tests will be given.

Nine Students Attend World Affairs Parley

Greensboro Junior Woman's Club took nine history students from Senior to the 10th Annual World Affairs Conference in Chapel Hill last Thursday, according to Mrs. Mary Gamble, history teacher.

Bob Dixon, Polly Friend, Richard Haskill, Ann Haralson, Chuck McDonald, Linda McMillian, Linda Moser, and Sue Wade, all seniors, and Phil Pearsall, sophomore, attended the all-day meet. Five students from Page High School were selected to accompany the nine from Senior.

The group met here at 8:15 a.m. last Thursday. Lunch in Chapel Hill was furnished by Junior Woman's Club. At the conference the students heard addresses by Chester Bowles, congressman from Connecticut, and E. E. Schnelbacker, director of the office of Trade Promotion for the United States Department of Commerce. This year's theme was "The World We Have and the World We Want."

Ten Senior High Pupils To Receive Art Awards

Ten Senior High students will receive Scholastic Art Awards; four of these ten are Gold Key winners, and six will receive Certificates of Merit.

The four Gold Key recipients are two seniors, Kathy Ware and Jerrie Lynn Pittard, and two sophomores, Frances Kamenatz and Katherine Tucker. Jerrie Lynn is the only one of the four who has taken two full years of art courses offered here at Senior. Kathy is a second year student, and Frances and Katherine are both in their first year. The winning pictures of these four will be sent to New York to be entered in the national exhibit. The selections will be on exhibit at Elliott Hall.

Those receiving Certificates of Merit are sophomores Beverly Wilkenson and Ed Oliver, junior George Andreve, and seniors Kathy Ware, Linda Cooke, and Jerry Sawers. Linda is a second year art student, and Jerry is in his first semester. George is not enrolled in the art course. The works of these six people will be exhibited at WFMY-TV station and at the Mayfair Restaurant in Friendly Shopping Center.

The presentation of the Gold Key Awards will be made February 21 at Elliott Hall. This presentation is to be filmed and shown on WFMY-TV Sunday, February 28 at 1:45 p.m.
