

DR. WILLIAM B. AYCOCK

Chancellor Aycock of UNC Addresses GHS Graduates

Dr. William Brantley Aycock, Chancellor of the University of North Carolina, will deliver the address to graduating seniors June 9 at 8 p.m. in the Senior High gymnasium.

Dr. Aycock was a professor of law at the University Law School before becoming Chancellor in 1957. He received a master's degree in political science in the Graduate School of UNC in 1936.

During 1937-38 Dr. Aycock taught here at GHS, and later he held an administrative post in the state headquarters of the National Youth Administration in Raleigh.

Dr. Aycock served in the Army's European Theater of Operations. He was decorated with the Silver Star Medal for bravery in action.

He is married to former Grace Mewborn, an alumna of WCUNC and Duke University, and has two children.

The Baccaulaareate Sermon will be given Sunday, June 5, by Dr. Claud Bowen of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro.

Seniors Outrank Others In Special Honor Grades

Seniors ranked above the juniors and sophomores by placing 29 on the special honor roll for the first six weeks of the second semester, while the sophomores listed 18 and the juniors, 16.

Seniors from Room 202 making special honor roll are Judy Blackmon, Lynn Bowles, Priscilla Caille. Diana Charles represents Room 204; Bessie Hudson, Room 303; and Tara Dinkel, Room 2. Bob Jones, Yvonne Kincaid, and Burnley Kinney come from Room 7-60.

Representing Room 300 are Vera LeCraw, Kay Lindley, Jeanne Littlejohn, Chuck McDonald, and Carolyn McMasters. Sammy McNairy and Meredith McNeil come from Room 21. June Mullis is from Room 306; Joyce Payne and Wilma Kay Pegg, Room 3. Sherry Rottman and Corby Rouse, Room V-61. Room 4 has Helen Stanfield; Room 9, Ann Thayer, Harriet Thompson, and Scottie Troxler; Room 302, Mary Ann Weber and Peter Weltner. Jewel Williams and Linda Williams represent Rom M-204.

Juniors

The following juniors made special honor roll: Sandra Boyles and Judy Brady from Room 10; Joel Drinkard from Room 103; Adele Freedman from Room 206. Room 8 has Don Grimes, Irene Gullede, and Virginia Harmon. The representatives from Room V-63 is Judy Jordan; from Room 14 is John McCulloch; and from Room 203-A is Michael Patterson.

Other juniors are Evelyn Peeden, Pam Pfaff, Caralee Pruitt, and Mary Radcliffe from Room 317; and Charles Thompson and Judy Watson from Room 203-B.

Sophomores

Rick Ahart represents Room

Continued on Page Seven

Whiteside, Harmon For President; R. Gibbs, P. Pfaff Contenders For VP

Yesterday GHS students went to the polls to cast their final votes for the 1960 spring elections.

The student body chose the two finalists for each student body office in the convention Tuesday morning. Dale Keller was eliminated from the balloting for president leaving the race between Tommy Whiteside and Virginia Harmon.

Rodolph Gibbs and Pam Pfaff were still in the running for the 1960-61 vice presidency. They were chosen to run over Charles Thompson and Dan Conway.

Traffic chief is either Phil Callicut or Rea Ferrell. Judy Brady and Sam White were dropped from the voting during convention procedures.

The candidates for student body secretary, treasurer, and youth recreation chairman were the original six persons running for those offices. They are as listed: June Carter, Libby McComb, secretary; Cecie Boren, Sandy Friedman, treasurer; and Jeannie Anderson, George Andreve, youth recreation chairman.

'Changing World' Theme Of Torchlight Convention

"Individual Responsibilities In a Changing World," was the theme of the Torchlight Convention at Louisburg College, Louisburg, North Carolina, April 1-3.

Jess MacFarland led one of the eight subtopic discussion groups. Her subject was "Individual Responsibilities to International Citizenship." This discussion group lasted approximately two hours.

Others attending the conference with Jess were Judy Stone, senior; Ann Waters, senior; Bob Dixon, senior; Pam Pfaff, junior; Preston Earle, senior; and Anne Starr Minton, junior. These six were selected on the bases of one for every ten people in the society.

Some of the events the participants took part in were a buffet supper, delegates' breakfast, a banquet, a semi-formal dance, and finally the installation of the newly-elected state officers.

Mrs. Mary Madlin, advisor to the Torchlight, accompanied the group on the trip. Miss Sara Mims is the club's other adviser.

Sophomore Home Room Wins Scholarship Plaque

Sophomores from Mrs. Mary Lea Hamilton's home room 68 won out over seniors and juniors to take the scholarship plaque with an average of 89.1.

Senior home room 204 whose teacher is Mrs. Jessie Gorrell, followed with an average of 88.60. Close behind with an average of 87.96 was Miss Dixie Huske's senior homeroom 2.

The two junior homerooms with the highest averages were Miss Estell Mitchell's home room 317 with an average of 86.45 and Miss Peggy Joyner's homeroom 7 with an average of 85.61.

Having an average of 85.07, Mrs. Mary Gamble's homeroom 1 followed with the second highest average for a sophomore home room.

The differences in the averages are slight, thus giving plenty of opportunities for competition between homerooms.

Primary Balloting

The primary ballots cast last Friday left Don Grimes and Janet Rankin in the running for senior class president; Sue Foster, Jean Shaffer, secretary; Jimmy Bullock, Sharon Eldridge, treasurer. The two vice president candidates are Dennis Saunders and Anne Starr Minton.

Patsy Boone, Sam Garren, Peggy King, Jess MacFarland, Dale Mauldin, Jack Milton, Dale Neese, Roddy Stout, Jean Waters, Connie Waynick, Diana Wellons, and Ann Winchester were named finalists for student council out of 42 contestants.

Candidates for the Youth Recreation Committee from the rising senior class are as follows: Eileen Ackerman, Joan Clark, Harriett Eiler, Karen Gill, Nancy Helton, Mary Clyde Overman, Dorothy Payne, Linda Pearman, Sharon Sandling, Bill Stanley, Susan Stentz, Judy Watson, Dicky Weeks, and Sarah Welch.

Rising Juniors

Sherrill Newnam and Jane Taylor reached the finals in the race for junior class president, while Charles Ephland and Lesa Hamlin are contending for the vice presidency.

The secretary's position was filled by Lynn Summey or Virginia Lowe; either Jo Ann Knight

Chairman Announces May Day Festivities

May Day festivities are scheduled to be presented May 4 beginning at 5 p. m., announced Vera McCraw, chairman of the May Day activities committee.

Tryouts for the dances were held last Tuesday afternoon and the various dancers were selected. Wilma Kay Pegg and Vera are in charge of the dances in general with Elaine Ellis and Patsy Parker heading the costume committee.

Presiding over the respective dances are Lucinda Clark, Lynn Fifield, Sallye Flowe, Janet Rankin, and Ann Thayer. Any props seen will have come under the jurisdiction of Coral Mills and Smith Goodrum.

The May Day committee is being advised by Miss Peggy Ann Joyner, English teacher. The activities will be presided over by Betty Tucker, May Queen, and her maid of honor, Sue Anne Wrenn.

or Sara Collins was selected class treasurer.

The eight junior student council members were chosen from the following finalists: Pam Angel, Sam Coble, Carol Golden, Brenda Hanna, Ina Jean Harris, Cheryl Jones, Barbara Massel, Sandra Neal, Lucy O'Brian, Carol Roberts, Carol Sheets, Lonnie Sprinkle, Anne Tate, Richard Tontz, Camilla Walters, and Brock Wellons.

Rising juniors for the youth recreation committee were chosen from Kay Ackerman, Charles Bennett, Carol Biser, Pete Bondanella, Trisha Bourne, Mary Stowe Boyd, Bill Bullard, Carolyn Dees, Susan Dixey, David Edwards, Jim Freedman, Nancy Frick, Paul Gardiner, Mike Lawrence, Nancy Martin, Kaye Riley, Dale Smith, Ed White, Betty Wilkins.

History Society Adviser Inducts Fifteen Juniors

Fifteen new junior members were inducted into the History Honor Society last Tuesday by Mrs. Kathleen Pfaff, adviser to the group.

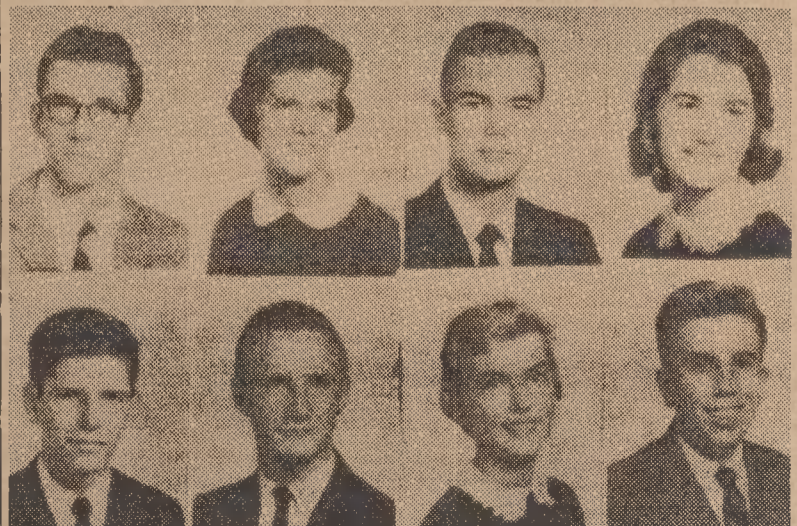

The new members are Annette Anderson, Lawrence Banks, Sandra Bargamian, Patsy Boone, Jeanne Burwell, Sharon Eldridge, Karen Gill, Suzanne Kiser, Mary Clyde Overman, Pam Pfaff, and Charles Tate.

Remaining members inducted are Shirley Truitt, Alan Turner, Judy Watson, and Connie Waynick.

Three Students Place At Wake Forest Fair

Three Senior High students won places at the northeast district Science Fair at Wake Forest College April 2.

Paul Kivette, junior, and Shirley Sampson, sophomore, won first prize blue ribbons. Another sophomore, Arthur Moore, won honorable mention. Paul's "Microhydrophone" won the highest award in the physical science division of the GHS science fair. Arthur's "Technique in the Study of pH Factor and Indicators" also won in Senior's physical science division. Shirley's "Human Eye" was a first place winner in the biological division.

Left to right above the finalists for the student body elections completed yesterday are Tommy Whiteside, Virginia Harmon, president; Rodolph Gibbs, Pam Pfaff, vice president; Rea Ferrell, Phil Callicut, traffic chief; and Jeannie Anderson, George Andreve, youth recreation chairman.