

Smiling candidates pose for the HIGH LIFE photographer after hearing the announcements on the loud speaker. They are left to right, Sherrill Newman, president of the rising junior class; Janet Rankin, president of the rising senior class; Tommy Whiteside, president of Senior High School.

Students of GHS Choose Whiteside For President

Tommy Whiteside, junior, was elected president of the Student Council of GHS, Thursday, April 7.

The other school officers elected were Rodolph Gibbs, junior, vice president; Libby McComb, sophomore, secretary; Cecie Boren, sophomore, treasurer; Jeannie Anderson, junior, youth recreation chairman; and Rea Ferrell, junior, traffic chief.

Janet Rankin was elected president of the rising senior class. The junior class elected Dennis Saunders vice president of the rising senior class. Sue Foster was elected secretary and Jimmy Bullock, treasurer.

The sophomore class elected Sherrill Newnam to act as the president of their class for next year. Lesa Hamlin was chosen vice president; Lynne Summey, secretary; and Jo Ann Knight, treasurer.

The six people elected to represent the senior class next year on the student council are Sam Garren, Dale Neese, Diana Wellons, Jack Milton, Ann Winchester, and Roddy Stout.

Those elected to the youth recreation committee are Judy Watson, Billy Stanley, Jeanne Burwell, Karen Gill, Dickie Weeks, and Joan Clark. George Andreve, who ran for youth recreation chairman, automatically becomes a member of the committee.

Sam Coble, Ina Jean Harris, Brock Wellons, Ann Tate, Dick Tontz, Cheryl Jones, Carol Roberts, and Carol Sheets are the nine people elected as the student council members for the next year's junior class.

The sophomore class chose Ed White, Nancy Martin, Carol Biser, Pete Bondanella, Betty Wilkins, Paul Gardiner, and Jim Freedman to represent them on the youth recreation committee.

It was stated by Miss Mary Furey, student council adviser, that only 991 of the total number of students of GHS cast votes in the elections. This was 57% of the student body.

Seventy-three percent of the sophomore class voted; seventy-four percent of the junior class; and only forty three percent of the senior class. There were about a hundred people who registered but did not vote. The majority of these were seniors.

Betty Tucker To Reign Over Festivities; Wrenn, Sartin, Griffin Maids of Honor

Betty Tucker, 1960 May Queen, will be crowned by Dickie Bowen, senior class president, next Wednesday on the front lawn of Greensboro Senior High.

In the festivities Sue Anne Wrenn, escorted by John Starr, senior, will be the senior maid-of-honor; Gloria Griffin, escorted by Dennis Saunders, junior, will reign as junior maid-of-honor; and Georgianna Sartin, escorted by Bob Fesmire, senior, will serve as maid-of-honor from the sophomore class.

The court attendants and their escorts in order of appearance are Linda Upchurch, senior; escorted by Tootie Blair, senior; Sondra Childress, senior; Jimmy Parker, senior; Elaine Ellis, senior; John Harris, senior; Wilma Kay Pegg, senior; Harold Johnson, senior; Virginia Harmon, junior; Tommy Whiteside, junior; Patsy Parker, senior; John Davis, senior; Martha McKee, junior; Eddie Burton, senior; Carol Roberts, sophomore; Bayard von Herrmann, senior; Anne Starr Minton, junior; Wade Gresham, senior; Carol Smith, senior; Smith Goodrum, senior; Gloria Cox, sophomore; Thomas Wilson, senior; Carol Sheets, sophomore; Bob Dixon, senior; Libby McComb, sophomore; Bob Jamieson, senior; and Dale Mauldin, junior, Bill

Flynt, senior.

Seven Dances Presented

The Processional and Recessional will be presented by the Senior High Training Band. Following this the queen will be crowned. Seven dances of many different countries will be presented. The dances represented will be Spanish, directed by Janet Rankin, junior; Chinese, directed by Lucinda Clark, senior; South Sea Islands, directed by Sallye Flowe; American, directed by Lynn Field, senior; Scottish, directed by Ann Thayer, senior; English country side (May Pole dance) and a London minuet, directed by Mrs. Eleanor Lambert, head of the girls' Physical Education department. The complete program will be narrated by George Rosental, senior.

Chairman

Wilma Kay Pegg and Vera LeCraw, seniors, will be student chairmen of the annual project. The following will be chairmen of their various departments; Coral Mills and Smith Goodrum, senior, with Mr. Stuart Colson, math teacher, as adviser, props; Vera LeCraw and Ed Little, senior, script; Elaine Ellis and Patsy Parker, senior, costumes; Maryann Weber and Cricket Connor, the program; and Dick Tontz, sound.

Ann Simpson, senior, is typist; while Becky Barham, senior, is secretary.

The faculty advisers for the dances are Miss Rowena Montague, typing teacher; and Miss Annie Puett, math teacher, while Miss Peggy Joyner, English teacher, is the faculty adviser.

The program will be in the boys' gym if there is rain.

Local Key Club Chapter Presents Nininger Award

Walton McNairy, GHS's Key Club president, announced last Friday that the local Key Club chapter will award the International Sandy Nininger Award to a senior during the annual awards days program May 10.

The boy or girl who has made the most of his capabilities will be the recipient. The committee which will make the final decision will be made up of one Key Club member, and also of other GHS students and several faculty members. Pete Weltner, senior, is chairman of the selection committee.

The award has attained its name from Second Lieutenant Alexander Ramsey "Sandy" Nininger, a former Key Club member. Although this man was a polio victim in his early life, he not only graduated from high school with the highest scholastic average in his class, but also had a good record in sports and other school activities. Those qualities went on with him to West Point and later overseas where, after holding off dozens of enemy soldiers, he was mortally wounded. Lt. Nininger was awarded the first Congressional Medal of Honor of World War II.

The person chosen for this honor at GHS will receive a gold medal engraved with the likeness and name of Lt. Nininger.

Practicing for the experimental issue of HIGH LIFE are, left to right, Jo Jane Pitt and Suzanne Kiser, editors, and Kaye Riley, managing editor.

HIGH LIFE Staff Selects Kiser, Pitt As Co-Editors

Suzanne Kiser and Jo Jane Pitt, rising seniors, were selected by the senior members of the HIGH LIFE staff to serve as co-editors of the 1960-1961 paper.

Suzanne is a member of FTA, the History Honor Society, and is a regular member of the honor roll. This year she served as a HIGH LIFE reporter. Jo Jane, besides working as a reporter on this year's staff, is a member of Quill and Scroll. Both girls plan to continue with their journalistic studies in college.

Kaye Riley, rising junior, will fill the position of managing editor. She is an FTA member, makes the honor roll regularly, and was copy editor of this year's paper.

Next year's co-feature editors will be Ann Barham, rising junior, and Caralee Pruitt, rising senior. Both girls served as reporters on this year's paper.

Sports editors for next year will be Phil Callicut and Dan Conway, rising seniors. Boh Phil and Dan are closely connected with sports; Phil has been student trainer for the past two years, and Dan plays tackle on the football team. Assisting them on the sports staff will be Bill Lewis and Frank Patrick, rising seniors.

In charge of copyreading will be Linda Lael, rising junior, and Kathy Greer, rising senior. Their assistants will be Judy Bradley, and Dorene Parrish, rising juniors, and Ann Gibson, rising senior.

In the business department Jo Anne Oliver, rising senior, will serve as business manager, while Allen Ashby, rising senior will be advertising manager along with Martha Sprinkle and Katherine Story, rising seniors. Jo Anne's assistant for 1960-61 is Sandy Friedman, sophomore.

Diane Smither, rising junior, will be editor of the exchange department.

Next year's reporters will be Lynn Summey, rising junior, Linda Simpson and Dan Bullen, rising seniors.

Cartoonist for next year will be Barbara Bell, sophomore. She was among four girls who applied. The others were Beverly Wilkinson, sophomore, Susan Gardiner and Becky Byerly, juniors.

It will be the new staff's responsibility to put out the experimental issue which will be the next issue.

EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

SENIORS
Thursday, June 2	1:45- 3:15	Sixth Period
Friday, June 3	8:45-10:15	First Period
	10:30-12:00	Second Period
Monday, June 6	8:45-10:15	Third Period
	10:30-12:00	Fourth or Fifth Period
Tuesday, June 7	8:45-10:15	Seventh Period
Wednesday, June 8	8:45-10:15	Make-up or Re-examination
UNDERCLASSMEN
Tuesday, June 7	1:45- 3:15	Sixth Period
Wednesday, June 8	8:45-10:15	Seventh Period
	10:30-12:00	First Period
Thursday, June 9	8:45-10:15	Second Period
	10:30-12:00	Third Period
Friday, June 10	8:45-10:15	Fourth or Fifth Period
	10:30-12:00	Make-up

