Congradulations, Seniors!

From the Gate City of the South and the Birthplace of O. Henry

Good luck, Underclassmen!

VOLUME XXXVI

Baccalaureate, Graduation Highlights Seniors' Farewe

Faculty Club Gives Tea For Graduating Seniors

Junior homeroom teachers headed by Mrs. Kate Everhart. Miss Mary Furey, and Miss Peggy Joyher, junior class adviser, were in harge of a tea presented to gradnating seniors by the faculty club vlay 18.

According to Mrs. Everhart, enior class colors of blue and old were predominate in decoraions at the Woman's College lumnae House, site of the annual ffair. Miss Estelle Mitchell, rench teacher, was in charge of able arrangements and Mrs. Nellie Kate Blackburn, retired Dean of Students, made flower arrangenents for the occasion. Miss Anne Aoore made invitations, Miss Mary Illen Blackmon was in charge of ospitality, including the receiving ine. Mrs. Jean Newman and Miss Peggy Joyner were general hosesses, and Mr. S. L. Whitely, Mr. tobert Fredrickson, and Miss ottie Burnside kept the kitchen n order and the tables filled.

Among those in the receiving ne were Mrs. Eloise Keefer resident of the faculty club, sen r class officers, Mr. and Mrs P. Routh, Mr. and Mrs. Lody lenn, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Weaer, Dr. W. J. House, and Miss ean Wood.

Mr Routh MC's Awards Day Program; Lockers To Contain New Built-in Locks About 140 Students Receive Recognition

P. Routh, principal, May 24. Music awards were first on the ocket after a short speech by

Ir. P. J. Weaver, City School arriman, orchestra leader, preented the Harriman Trophy to rthur Springer, the Robert G. roxler Cup to Dave Williams, the teacher, presented the Playmasters eccived awards of merit for their United National Pilgrimage in utstanding contributions to the New York.

usic department.

gnition at the annual awards day Company sponsored six awards to $42,500 had already been granted ssembly presided over by Mr skilled home economics students. to GHS students to further their Brenda Reese and Linda Pegram third year students; Sue Albright and Dianna Taylor, second year students; and Sara Welch and Don Grimes, juniors received recuperindendent. Mr. Kimball Linda Simpson, first year students were recognized for the Sears awards.

Miss Mozelle Causey, speech awards. rady Miller Cup to Julie Pinson Award to Christina Stewart, the nd the Briety-Hazelman Cup to Debating Cup to Dick Haskell and and Pam, the Dr. Charles C. Jerniack Nelson. Judy Routh, a mem- Mary Radcliffe, and recognized er of choir, was the recipient of Jimmy Freedman for winning the ish student with the highest avere Woman's Club Music Award. United Nations speech contest everal members of the orcestra which enabled him to attend the Thompson was awarded the French

Eleven students received vocatarial

About 140 seniors received rec-| Mary Price. Sears Roebuck and that a conservative estimate of education.

> Sherry Kellett and Roger Lewis sophomores, and Pam Pfaff and ognition for having the highest averages in their respective classes. The P.-T.A sponsored the Pam and Don also received the Junior Classical League Award gan Award. The third year Spanage was Meredith McNeill. Charles Medal by Miss Estelle Mitchell French teacher.

Herb Stout was presented with The Civitan Clubs of Greens-tional awards. Susan Moffitt won the first Key Club Sandy Nininger pro, whose motto is "Builders of a $100 secretarial scholarship Award for making the best nos-Award for making the best pos-ible use of his opportunities of various music scholarships. Duke University on their scholarsible use of his opportunities. Sampson, Lucy O'Brien, Carolyn to the Conservatory of Cincinnati; Continued on Page Ten

Lockers To Contain New lockers with built-in locks will be installed on the first floors of the main and science buildings, stated Mr. "Jabbo" Johnson, school store manager.

Students who wish to reserve lockers for next year should give their names to Mr. Johnson and pay the locker deposit before school ends. Combinations to the lockers will be given next year.

Commencement exercises June 9 at 8 p.m. in the boys' gymnasium will end the high school career of over 500 Greensboro Senior High School students.

Chancellor William B. Aycock of the University of North Carolina is the principal speaker for the event. The graduates will receive their diplomas from Mr. A. P. Routh, Senior High principal and Mr. P. J. Weaver, superintendent of schools. Mr. W. K. Hunter, Greensboro school board chairman, will give each senior a miniature diploma for his wallet.

Dr. Chas. P. Bowles will give the invocation for the service while Dr. R. M. Jones will pronounce the benediction. During the exercises the Best-All-Round superlatives will be announced as well as the valedictorian and salutatorian. The Senior High choir will provide the music for the occasion.

The graduation formalities began with the installation for new school officers May 10. Following their farewell addresses, Carol Smith, 1960 student body president, and Dick Bowen, senior class president, and Suzye McNeely, vice president of the student body, received standing ovations from the entire assembly.

Seniors were honored by the faculty at the traditional senior tea at WC Alumna House, May 18.

Mr. P. J. Weaver addressed the assembled students before the annual presentation of awards May 24.

Class day was presented yesterday in the auditorium at 9 a.m. The theme for the 1960 Class Day was "Senior Showboat", and Dickie Bowen was general student chairman. Geanie Black served as student director with faculty adviser Miss Mozelle Causey. Jeanie Deese Bill Seabrook, Chuck MacDonald Smith Goodrum, Wade Gresham, Sue Wade, and Geanie Black helped to prepare the script.

Bob Dixon, Janie Leigh Wall. and Skip Jones handled the musical part of the program. Skip ar-Continued on Page Twelve

29 Senior Students Report Receiving Of Scholarships

Approximately 29 GHS seniors | music scholarship to Brevard; as of Tuesday, May 24, have turned Jeannie Littlejohn, 1 year, $150 in blanks to the guidance center scholarship to Woman's College: specifying that they are recipients and Judy Edwards, 4 year renewof scholarships.

Two subjects will be the maxi-

the work taken will receive credit

but no credit will be given on able scholarship, worth $200.

ood Citizenship," presented their Sandra Jett was determined the est Citizen's Award to Carol best typist and Linda Crouse, the mith, president of Senior. Susan most outstanding business stuade won a cup and $25 from the dent. Joyce Peeples was given ivitans for her prize-winning recognition for her work in busissay on Citizenship and Jewel ness education, Joseph Shoffner in illiams, $15 for second place in machine shop, Dan Hughes, in mechanical drawing, Frankie Bibus in le contest.

The Whirlie Boosters Club pre- printing, Jerry Wayne Clenney in ented awards to six outstanding woodwork, Lou Ellen Hart in rl athletes: swimmers Karen D. E., Susan DeSantis in D. O ill Christina Stewart, Carolyn office, and Iris Morton in D. O rown, and Frances McNairy and trades. isketball players Jackie Farringn and Nancy Crabtree.

Mr. Routh presented several Junior Jaycee scholarship, to urnalism awards. Geanie Black Percy Leonard; and the five $200 is to give students an opportunity nd Jean Ellen Jones were se-Sears grants went to Yyonne Kincted by the High Life staff as caid, Suzye McNeely, Sammy Mce most valuable staff member Nairy, Joye Payne, and Al Walke. id the most oustanding senior Sammy also won the Mathematics spectively. Charles Jernigan re-Award. Arthur Springer was recived the Most Valuable Member ward and Jeanie Deese, the Best the state math contest. Vera Leeroll.

They are Brenda Coltrane, 4 year During the program Shirley renewable, $700 music scholarship Martha Gibbs, 1 or 2 year, $200

Summer School To Start And End July 20 13 June

Summer school is scheduled to in the auditorium. The $200 Torchlight scholarship begin Monday, June 13, and end went to Sherry Mullins, the $300 Wednesday, July 20. mum allowed any student. Any

The purpose of summer school student who successfully passes to make up work, to strengthen themselves by taking extra work and to get certain enrichment one unexcused absence or more courses that they may not have than two unexcused tardies. time to get during the regular ognized for winning first place in session.

per week, and the hours will be Any high school subject for from eight o'clock until one. Each riter Award from Quill and Craw, Jim Perry, and Tara Dinkle which as many as five students subject will have a two and one ship to the United States Air Force are recipients of National Merit register will be offered. A fee of half hour period. Monday, July 4 Pat Adams, winner of the Gen- Scholarships. Diana Charles won $20 per subject will be charged. will be a holiday. al Mills Homemaker Contest a $100 renewable Medical Auxili- or $35 for two subjects. This fee ances Jenkins Award by Miss Routh pointed out in assembly tion, Monday, June 13, at 9 a.m. ior High School.

ships. They are Bob Jamieson Jr., two 4 year, $4,000 scholarships; Jim Perry, 4 year, $7,000 NROTC scholarship; Corby Rouse, Jerry Sawers, and Larry Sawers received grants-in-aid to Duke. Corby's is a $750, 4 year grant; while the Sawers' grants are $425, 4 year ones.

Other Four Year Scholarships In addition to those mentioned above, nine other seniors received 4 year scholarships. They are Sammy McNairy, $150 renewable scholarship to Carolina; Tommy Cribbin, NROTC scholarship for tuition and books to Carolina: Page Acree, $4,000 scholarship to work if a student has more than Furman; Bob Foster, $300 scholarship to Guilford; Johnny Sink, $350 renewable scholarship to The school will operate six days Davidson; Arthur Springer, $500 renewable scholarship to State; Academy. Two girls are planning to attend Woman's College on The faculty will be chosen from their 4 year scholarships. They as given the home economics ary Nursing Scholarship. Mr. is payable on the day of registra- the teachers now teaching at Sen- are Jewel Williams, $100, and Continued on Page Nine