Blues Bow In AAAA

BY CAROLYN BUTNER

"It was a good game, but we just weren't good enough under the boards," stated Coach Bob Jamieson after the Eagles of East Mecklenberg routed the Whirlies in the State 4-A playoff March 8.

Despite Coach Bondanella's earlier prediction that "We ought to win this game easily," the Whirlies dropped behind in the 4th quarter and stayed there as the Eagles began to fly a little faster than usual.

At the end of the first quarter, Greensboro held a five-point lead and Whirlie fans were confident. Throughout the second and third quarters the lead changed many times but not by much. The fans were kept in constant excitement as their eyes remained glued to the ball.

As student trainee Harvey Goldberg put it, "We played our hearts out, but we got the bad breaks." "Everybody has to lose," optimistic cheerleader Kaye Moody commented after the game.

As the lights snapped out, the people straggled out, and the locker rooms became quiet, Phil Callicut spoke for the entire student body of Senior when he said, "It broke my heart, it really did."

PROM DATE SET

The Junior Prom which will take place May 26 in the Girl's Gym, has as its theme "Hidden World of the Sea."

The co-chairmen of the dance, juniors Anne Tate and Dick Tontz, and faculty adviser, Miss Parker, say that they will welcome any volunteers who wish to help make the Prom a success. This date is tentative.
