

Torchlight Elects Bondanella Head

Pete Bondanella, senior, has been elected president of the Greensboro Senior High Torchlight National Honor Society for 1961-1962.

Other newly-elected officers, also seniors, include Cecie Boren, vice-president; Libby McComb, secretary; and Sherrill Newnam, treasurer. The remaining members of Torchlight are Barbara Barney, Sherry Kellett, and Carol Sheets, seniors. Mrs. Mary B. Madlin and Miss Sara Mims are the organization's sponsors.

The newly-elected president participates in several school activities, including Junior Civitan club, Youth Council, and football. Pete has been on honor roll regularly and has received the citizenship honor roll award.

Cecie is a member of the Jr. Civinettes and student council. During her junior year, she served as treasurer of the student body. Cecie has also been a recipient of the citizenship honor roll award.

Libby is active in Jr. Civinettes, F.T.A., and student council. As a junior, she was student body secretary and junior maid of honor in the May Court. She, too, was on citizenship honor roll.

Sherrill was president of his junior class and won the citizenship honor roll award. He is a Jr. Civitan, a member of GHS's football squad, and a member of JCL.

Quill And Scroll Starts Magazine

This year's officers are president, Terry Jones; vice-president, Beverly Wilkinson; secretary, Ann Barham; and treasurer, Rhea Jacobs. Faculty adviser to Quill and Scroll is Mrs. Jean Newman.

New members last May are seniors Judy Andrews, Susan Dixey, Ray Kutos, Linda Lael, Roger Lewis, Guy Phillips, and Judy Thornlow. Juniors Carolyn Butner, Jack Harville, Jimmy Paxton, Chini Smith, George Touchstone, and Carolyn Zimmerman were also inducted last year.

Miss Herring Chooses New Library Assistants

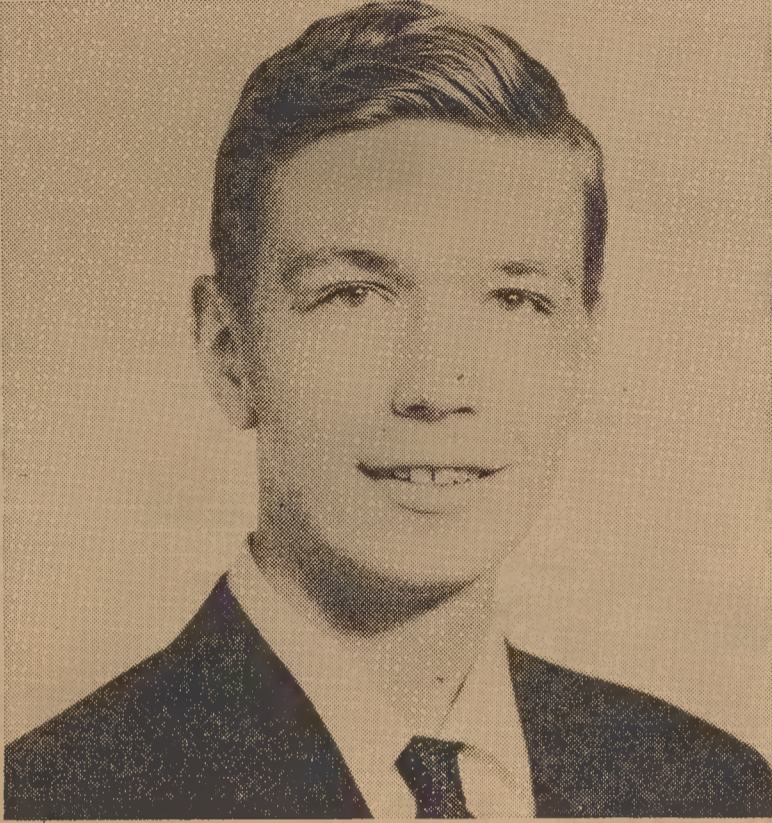

Miss Mildred Herring and Miss Katherine Weir, librarians, have announced their assistants for the school term 1961-62.

Student helpers are Tom Duncan, sophomore; Maurice Gullledge, junior; Judy Hackett, senior; Susan Scott, junior; Kathy Williams, sophomore; Jackie Frazier, sophomore; Barbara Hobbs, junior; Gail Walters, sophomore; Pam Angel, sophomore; and Carolyn Dees, senior.

Others assisting in the library are Page Makely, junior; Beverly Clifton, junior; Kay McPherson, sophomore; Judy Elkins, sophomore; Ham Mundy, sophomore; Steve Anthony, sophomore; Kate Foster, senior; Joe Hunt, senior; Carol Marvin, junior; Vickie Thompson, senior; Pat Cross, senior; Christine Ferree, senior; Sara Ann Lynch, sophomore; and Laura Aholt, junior.

The remaining assistants include William Norman, junior; Ann Lashley, sophomore; Ellen Young, sophomore; Randy Burton, sophomore; Janice Cates, junior; Tommy Egbert, sophomore; Sara Flintom, junior; and Merry Mathis, junior.

Homerom nine has donated The Golden Age of American History to the Senior High School library in memory of Mr. Dexter D. Sessoms, father of Mary Sessoms, junior.

Winner of two blue ribbons at National JCL Convention, Roger Lewis is pictured above.

Roger Lewis Captures Two Latin First Places

Roger Lewis, senior, won first place in both the Mythology contest and the Derivatives contest for third year Latin students at the national Junior Classical League convention this summer.

The gathering of Latin students took place on the campus of the University of Indiana at Bloomington, Indiana, August 13-17. The delegations from the fifty states and the District of Columbia were housed in the Tower Center dormitories.

Roger, accompanied by Mary Bradley, class of '61, Sherry Kellett and Sammy Pegram, juniors, and thirty other delegates from North Carolina, travelled two days by train to reach the University.

JCL, the largest classical organization in the world, was represented by 1200-1300 young people and sponsors. Mrs. Mac C. Satterwhite of Oxford is the sponsor for the North Carolina group. She has held this position for a term of three years.

Contests for Others

There were also Mythology and Derivatives contests for first and second year students, as well as a costume contest with more than sixty entries, and a vocabulary contest. The scrapbook contest is judged by the quality of the book, and the number of column inches printed about that chapter in various newspapers determines the winner of the publications contest.

The election of national officers was an important phase of the convention. The balloting resulted in the following officers: president, Dean Heller, Jacksonville, Florida; vice president, Mary Ann Yeager, Conrad, Montana; secretary, Sara Fry, Ellinwood, Kansas; treasurer, Roz Weezner, Wabash, Indiana; and parliamentarian, Mike Petracek, Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Olympic Games

Olympic games were enjoyed by the JCL members. They included

Attention Sophomores!

- September 15-19—Sophomore Election Publicity
- September 20—Sophomore Assembly
- September 21—Deadline for Applications
- September 22—Candidates' Meeting
- September 25—Presentation Rehearsal
- September 26—Presentation Assembly
- October 2—Primary Election
- October 5—Final Election

Homerom Rooms Choose 1961-1962 Leaders

Homerom officers have been practically completed for the school year 1961-1962.

H.E. 100: president, Gwyn Coble; vice-president, Diane Crawford; secretary, Pat Coble; and treasurer, Tom Craven.

23: president, Ted Melvin; vice-president, Joe Marus; secretary, Kaye Moody; and treasurer, Bill Minard.

303: president, Mike Andrew; vice-president, Mason Banks; secretary-treasurer, Lynn Atkins.

307: president, Ed Good; vice-president, Harvey Goldberg; secretary, Sarah Flinton; treasurer, Clay Faulkner.

H.E. 200: president, Bill Russell; vice-president, Sharen Rose; secretary, Mary Roundtree; treasurer, Pat Ross.

V-60: president, Bill James; vice-president, Scott Hoyman; secretary, Susan Hodges; treasurer, Kelly Hunter.

H.E. 202: president, Sally Overman; vice-president, Nancy O'Hare; secretary, Diane Owens; treasurer, Charles Perry.

2: president, Mike Ephland; vice-president, Mary Arthur Epperson; secretary, Susan Culpepper; and treasurer, Carolyn Ehardt.

V-63: president, Phillips Jones; vice-president, Phil Joseph; secretary, Judy Kater; and treasurer Bill Johnson.

202: president, Linda Blair; vice-president, Cecie Boren; secretary, Mary Stowe Boyd; and treasurer, Richard Best.

306: president, Donna Paoli; secretary, Sara Patton; treasurer, Claire Neill.

5: president, Sammy Pegram; vice-president, Cam Penfield; secretary, Donna Perry; treasurer, Jim Petty.

1: president, Henry Deal; vice-president, Carole Dodson; secretary, Susan Dixey; treasurer, Don Cunningham.

200: president, Rick Arhart; vice-president, Elizabeth Banner; secretary-treasurer, Patsy Allison.

313: president, Jim Sullivan; vice-president, Sylvia Simpson; secretary, Judy Stewart; treasurer, Lonnie Sprinkle.

311: president, Mike Lawrence; vice-president, Roger Lewis; secretary, Jo Ann Knight; treasurer, Vera Leonard.

65: president, Sam Coble; vice-president, Bill Bullard; secretary, Jenny Cooper; treasurer, June Carter.

24: president, Ricky Hale; vice-president, Lesa Hamlin; secretary-treasurer, Ina Jean Harris.

V-61: president, Skeeter Powell; vice-president, Alan Robinson; secretary, Jane Reed; treasurer, Buddy Robinson.

106: president, Candy Bernard; vice-president, Joan Boyce; secretary, Pam Burkholder; and treasurer, Joan Bercaw.

27: president, Freddie Henderson; vice-president, Carol Harrod; secretary-treasurer, Von Gunter.

204: president, Janet Cates; vice-president, Retta Clements; secretary-treasurer, Mary V. Compton.

300: president, Carolyn McKenzie; vice-president, Larry Lund; secretary, Carole Lineberry; and treasurer, Sandra Lowe.

25: president, Penn Halsenbeck; vice-president, Jerry Holcombe; secretary-treasurer, Cickie Harris.

9: president, Lynn Spencer; vice-president, Nancy Smith; secretary, Katherine Starr; treasurer, Chinie Smith.

(Editor's Note: HIGH LIFE will publish the remaining list of homerom officers in the next issue.)

Arthur Eisenband, leader of Six Teens, is pictured at right talking to some GHS students about Open House.

Singing Strings Play At Summer Activities

Mr. J. Kimball Harriman, director of the Senior High Orchestra, and a group of six or seven students, called the Singing Strings, played for various activities during the summer.

They entertained at the Miss North Carolina Banquet given by the Jefferson Club, at both the Greensboro and Starmount Country Club Fashion Shows, the Cashwell wedding reception, and for other civic groups.

