

Local Representatives Meet For Conference

Representatives from Senior, Page, and Curry convened at Greensboro Senior High for the annual Youth Speaks program recently.

There were four featured speakers at the conference: Reverend Charles Shannon of Grace Methodist Church, Judge Z. H. Howerston, Mrs. Margaret Hadden of the GHS faculty, and Mrs. Virginia Heard of the Brides and Formal Shop. They spoke on date entertainment, drinking, job hunting, and etiquette, respectively.

David McKinney, junior, was chairman of the program. Others on his committee were Libby McComb, senior; Lucy O'Brien, senior; Mack Smith, junior; Lynn Overman, sophomore; Pat Roos, sophomore; and Jinny Bardoff, sophomore.

Senior Representatives

Representatives attending from the Senior Class included Gayle Barer, Trisha Boren, Pete Bondanella, Jenny Cooper, Sam Coble, Chip Crumley, Susan Dixey, Jim Freedman, Sandy Friedman, Toni Gomberg, Bob Groat, Ed Hinshaw, Roger Lewis, Jo Ann Knight, Barbara Massel, Wylie McGlamery, and Tom Martin. Others from the Senior Class included Sandra Parker, Sherrill Newnam, Donna Perry, Sammy Pegram, Kaye Riley, Dan Richman, Camilla Walters, Anne Tate, Jean Whitaker, and Bill Womack.

Juniors Present

Junior Class representatives were Laura Aholt, Mason Banks, Joan Boyce, John Bercaw, Dick

Class of '62 Gives Presentation Of Van Dyke Christmas Classic

Members of the Class of 1962 presented the story of "The Other Wise Man" for the annual Christmas Pageant at an assembly this morning.

Approximately 100 seniors were involved in the presentation of the play. After several tryouts the following people were chosen to fill the necessary roles: Sandra Parker and Jim Allen, narrators; Spencer Sullivan, Artaban; Dale Smith, Mike Lawrence, Sam West, Terry Jones, Hugh Hoyle, Ed Hinshaw, Eddie Jennings and Henry Deal, the magi; Barbara Biser, Carol Biser, Cathy Waldron, Dot Latta, Alice Kearney, Vickie Sorensen, Brenda Hanna, Camilla Walters, Joyce Bellamy, and Anne Tate, servant girls.

More Members Named

Other members of the cast were Jody Nuckolls, Vasda; Roger Lewis, the robbed man; his mother, wife, and children — Sandra Neal, Joyce Weinrich, Jane Taylor, and Margaret Farrow, respectively; Linda Blair and Dan Hughes, Mary and Joseph; Steve Farrington, Sam Coble, and Dan Jensen, the wise men; Hugh Hoyle, Eddie Jennings, Ed Hinshaw, Mike Lawrence and Dale Smith, shepherds.

Angels were played by the following girls: Gloria Cox, Carol Sheets, Billie Wharton, Margie French, June Carter, Sarah Collins, Nancy Long, Lynne Summey, Libby McComb, Virginia Lowe, Lesa Hamlin, Sharon Dillon, Kay Ackerman, Lynne McNeely, Georgiana Sartin, Brenda Maxwell, Patsy Allison, Nora Wilson, Janice Matthieu, Bonnie Beeson, Diane Lea, Pam Money, Margaret Cranford, Martha McMakin, and Trisha Bourne.

Other players were Linda Lael, mother; Nancy Frick, Ina Jean Harris, Lyndia Harvell, and Dale Stansbury, crowd of women; Don Cunningham, captain of the soldiers; Sammy Pegram, Tommy Keefe, Sam Coble, Jim Perry, and Kurt Zahnle, soldiers.

Remainder of Cast

The remaining members of the cast were as follows: Bob Keller, the rabbi; Jo Ann Knight, Mary Stowe Boyd, Janey Walters, and Betti McNairy, prisoners; Rosemary Quinn, Susan Dixey, Barbara Gegenheimer, and Mary Brennan, beggars; Mary Hartman, Grace Penny, Kay McCuiston, Carol Gordon, Louise Sleeper, Pam Martin, and Anne Vincent, the crowd; Lynn Ogburn, the man in the street, and Janet Harrison, the girl being sold.

Homeroom 102 Leads List Of Special Honor Rollees

Homeroom 102 leads the list of Special Honor Roll students with five representatives. These persons are Billie Wharton, Beverly Wilkinson, Nora Wilson, Libby Yarber, and Linda Williamson.

Of the 22 seniors on Special Honor Roll, homeroom 200 has Rick Arhart as the lone representative. Pete Bondanella and Cecie Boren come from room 202, Jim Freedman, Rhea Jacobs, and Bob Groat were the only special students from homeroom 68, 10, and 24, respectively.

Sherry Kellett and Roger Lewis are the additions from room 311, while Jayne Marsh and Brenda Miller come from room 6. Room 301 sends Lana Miller and Sandra Parker, and Elaine Pelkey is from homeroom 5.

Dan Richman and Kaye Riley from M204 and Bill Tippett and Janes Walters from 22 complete the list of Special Honor Roll seniors.

Juniors

The juniors were in second place with 15 students on Special. Pat Atkisson is from 303, and Durwood Edwards and Mike Ephland come from room 2. Room 307 sends Dan Galloway and David Fesperman, while Nancy McNairy is the only person from room 300. Room 306 was in first place among the junior homerooms with Kaye Nelson, William Norman, and Donna Paoli. Nancy Smith and Louise Smith are from room 9, and 309 claims Phyllis Winston. Alan Robinson and Louise Ruffy from 61 and John Weisner from 302 end the roster of Special Honor Roll juniors.

Sophs

Twelve members of the class of '64 were on Special for the first six weeks. Betty Bain, Stephen Best, Marsha Sue Brady, and Brenda Carter are the only representatives from their homerooms M202, 103, 21, and 206. Fred McCall and Carol Mortimer are the sole special students from rooms 11 and 305. HE201 claims the largest number of Special Honor Rollees with Jeff Osmint, Betty Jo Pearce, and Mary Parker. Betty Pritchard, Ann Teitz, and Sarah D. Vaughan from rooms HE201, 14, and 16 complete the list of Special Honor Roll students.

30 Students Audition For All-State Group

Approximately 30 students auditioned on December 16 for All-State Orchestra to be held January 26, 27, and 28.

Mr. Emerson Head will direct the All-State Workshop Orchestra, which will play "El Relicario," composed by Padiela and the selection arranged by Isaac, "Moto Peyetus," for string orchestra by Latta and other selected numbers.

The concert orchestra will play one movement from "Brahm's First Symphony" for orchestra, "Rounds" for string orchestra by David Diamond, "Gayne Suite" by Khachaturian and other selected numbers.

Charlie Hamilton Speaks To Quill and Scroll Club

At a recent meeting of Quill and Scroll, members heard an informal talk by Charlie Hamilton, feature writer for the GREENSBORO RECORD.

Mr. Hamilton recalled interesting incidents from his early days as a newspaper reporter to demonstrate the similarities and differences between journalistic and creative writing styles.

During the first week in December, a called meeting of Quill and Scroll was held, and the candy for the annual candy sale was distributed. The club will continue to sell the fifty cent chocolate bars through Christmas.

Senior Home Room 311 Leads Honor Roll Roster

Senior Homeroom 311 was first in the school with 12 honor roll students. These persons include Scottie Kellam, Sherry King, Jo Ann Knight, Jim Kropa, Linda Lael, Jeanne Lambert, Mike Lawrence, Diane Lea, Wayne Lee, Vera Leonard, Sandra Lisk, and Nancy Long.

Homeroom 200 placed second with Jimmy Allen, Barbara Alley, Judy Andrews, Pam Angel, Elizabeth Banner, Ann Barham, Barbara Barney, Jon Barton, Charles Bennett, and Lea Jane Berinati making Honor Roll. Barbara Biser, Mary Stowe Boyd, T. M. Brim, Caroline Brockman, Cynthia Brown, and Glenda Brown represent Room 202. Coming from Homeroom 65 are Ann Bull, Jane Cannon, Sarah Collins, and Jenny Cooper.

Tying for second place with Room 200 is Homeroom 1 with Cheryl Cranford, Chip Crumley, Bill Culpepper, Don Cunningham, Sandra Davis, Henry Deal, Carolyn Dees, Susan Dixey, Carole Dodson, and Jack Dugger. Homeroom 68 only claims Sandra Friedman, Barbara Geganheimer, and Kaye Gaines on honor roll. The lone student from 10 is Anita Henkel. Jane Gibson, Brenda Hanna, Joe Harmon, Ruth Harrington, Ina Jean Harris, Mary Hartman, and Judy Goffe are sent by 24. Room 6 has the following honor students: Libby McComb, Martha McMakin, Lynn McNeely, Donna Martin, Barbara Massel, Janice Matthieu, Brenda Maxwell, Jerry Maynor, and Nancy Martin.

Homeroom 301

Jerry Moffitt, Pam Money, Diana Neal, Sandra Neal, Sherrill Newnam, Jody Nuckolls, Philip Oakley, and Janet Parks are honor roll students from Room 301. Coming from 5 are Patricia Perkins, Bob Perry, Donna Perry, Reamon Polk, Sammy Pegram, Cam Penfield, Dallas Peoples, and Pam Ransley. M204 honor students are Kay Sawyer, Patricia Self, Carol Sheets, and June Shoffner. Making honor roll from 313 are Sylvia Simpson, Gilbert Smith, Dale Stansbury, Martha Steed, Spencer Sullivan, and Lynne Summey.

Cherry Swaringen, Anne Tate, Brenda Taylor, Katherine Tucker, Steve Tyler, Cathy Waldron, Camilla Walters, and Carol Warren are from No. 22. The three honorolles from 102 are Brock Wellons, Delores West and Betty Wilkins.

Juniors

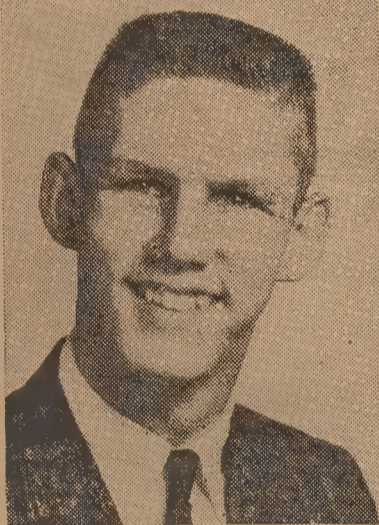

Placing first in the Junior Class was Room 2 with Frank Crothers, Doris Crow, Suzanne Culpeper, Frankie Dees, Phil Dixon, William Dixon, Chuck Dunham, Mary Earle, Carolyn Ebhardt, Ken Eiler, Judy Elkins, and Mary Arthur Epperson. Mickey Anderson, Mike Andrew, Mickey Andrews and Ken Austin came from 303. Students from 106 are John Bercaw, Jane Blair, Joan Boyce, Jeanette Brown, Ann Bullen, Sherry Bundy, and Pam Burkholder. Homeroom 204 sends Jim Burwell, Glenn Canfield, Retta Jo Clements and Dewey Cockman.

Homeroom 307 places second with the number of representatives on honor roll. They are as follows: Annette Gaddy, Tommy Fulton, Milton Evans, Brenda Faulkner, Betsy Finison, Sarah Flintom, Butch Garrett, Susan Frahm, Nelson Furman, and Bob Ginger. Carolyn Griggs, David Hamilton, Jack Harville, Linda Haynes, and Freddie Henderson represent Homeroom 27.

Room 60

Delegates from Room 60 are Cindy Hickerson, Helen Hinshaw, Margaret Howard, Barbara Howell, Chuck Hughes, Michael Ingber, Bill James, Doris Johnson, and Jeanne Johnson. Chosen from 12 are Boyce Kendrick, Brenda Kirkman, Kitty Kusenberg, Donna Lane, Janet Latham, David Latta, David Layton, Kay Leavel, and Ben Kennerly. Bob Lutz, James Maddrey, Carolyn McKenzie, David McKinney and William

Continued on Page Eight

David McKinney, junior

Burton, Mary Earle, Frank Crothers, Dan Fry, Catherine Goff, Carol Harrod, Jack Harville, Susan Hodges, Bill James, Kay Leavel, John Kuler, Carolyn McKenzie, James McKeithon, Jill Miller, Glenda Minor, and Lynda Nunn, Bobby Nuckolls, Jane Redd, Alan Robinson, Sharon Scott, Dina Steed, Tommy Stewart, Janet Williams, and Alec Wrenn conclude the list of junior representatives.

Sophomores Attending

Betty Baine, Gary Anderson, Ellen Barrier, Bill Blackmon, Anne Bradley, Wayne Burgess, Beverly Camras, Jimmy Byrd, Lauondia Clary, Chris Corry, Marcia Edmundson, Thomas Duncan, Joyce Pegram, Tim Hilderbrant, Vicky Harris, Anne Jamison, Cynthia Jobe, Becky Jones, Lee Kubat, Chet Linker, Miriam Legg, Ann McIntosh, Billy McCormick, and Jack Martin were among the sophomore representatives. The remainder of the sophomore representatives were Sandra Martinez, Carol Mortimer, Donna Newman, Lyn Nichols, Brenda Moriarty, Vestal Palmer, Betty Pritchard, Drenda Russell, Bill Russell, Donna Setzer, John Scott, Eddy Strang, Emily Steifle, Bill Tucker, Ruth Trexler, Robert Whitaker, and Kathy Williams.