

Pictured above are the four candidates for Miss 4-A Tournament. They are, left to right, Brenda Hanna, Libby McComb, and Carol Sheets. Winner Georgianna Sartin is second from left.

Sartin Elected Queen Of State 4-A Tourney

Georgianna Sartin was recently selected as the queen of the State 4-A Basketball Tournament. She reigned over the competition between several representative teams from various districts throughout the State. Georgianna, Carol Sheets, Brenda Hanna, and Libby McComb were elected by the basketball squad as candidates for the honor. Pictures of these four girls appeared in The Greensboro Record. From these pictures, sponsors of the tournament chose the queen. Their decision was announced five days before the tournament began.

4-A Queen

Head cheerleader Georgianna Sartin is chairman of the School Spirit Committee. She received the superlative "Most Popular" and was Homecoming Queen and a senior May Court attendant. Georgianna was very happy at this "big honor of being nominated by the team."

Carol Sheets is a member of Civinettes, Torchlight, and Student Council. She has served as president of her home room and is one of GHS's cheerleaders. For the past three years Carol had been an attendant in the May Court. She said she was "very, very honored and surprised to be nominated, regardless of how the final votes fell."

Libby McComb

Libby McComb is very active in FTA, JCL, the History Honor Society, and Civinettes. She is secretary of Torchlight and Youth Speaks. President of her home room, she has been chosen Girl of the Month. Libby is co-chairman of May Day, May Queen, and was on the Homecoming Court. This year she received the superlative "Best-Looking". Libby claims she was "never so shocked or so very excited" as she was when Coach Jamieson told her she had been nominated for basketball queen by the team.

Brenda Hanna, a member of the Homecoming Court thinks her nomination for queen was "just wonderful." She is a member of FTA, JCL, the Spanish Honor Society, and the History Honor Society. She also plays the clarinet in the band and has played in the orchestra.

Group To Give Play At Guilford College

"Will-O'-The-Wisp" by Doris Halman will be presented by the Greensboro Senior High School Dramatics Class on March 23 at Guilford College.

The presentation will be in association with the Carolina Dramatics Association's (CDA) Fortieth Anniversary celebration.

Members of the cast are Sandra Parker, Nancy Frick, Sherry Bundy and Rebecca Anne Baker.

Should the play be chosen, it will then be taken to Chapel Hill, April 13-14 to the State festival. Other students who will be needed in Chapel Hill are Shirley Johnson, Margaret Farrow, Kelly Hunter, Frances Kamenetz, Libby McComb, Esta Schneider, Dewey Cockman, and Jimmy Allen.

Miss Mozelle Causey, director of speech and dramatics at Senior, will be honored, along with all other past CDA presidents at a banquet to be held April 13. Guest speaker at the banquet will be Paul Green, North Carolina playwright.

Other guest speakers for the festival include Bernice Kelly Harris, playwright; Raymond Hodges, Head, Department of Dramatics Art and Speech, Richmond Professional Institute, William and Mary College; and Betty Smith, playwright, novelist, and writer for stage, screen, radio and television.

Twenty Students Inducted Into GHS Honor Society

Twenty students from the Junior and Senior classes were inducted into the Torchlight National Honor Society at an assembly last Tuesday.

Students were chosen by members of the faculty, basing their choices on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. A student must have an overall average of 90.0 for his high school career to be eligible for membership in the society.

Pete Bondanella, president of Torchlight, conducted the tapping

Senior, Three Juniors To Unite In Concert

Mr. J. Kimball Harriman, director of the Senior High orchestra, has recently announced several events in which the orchestra will participate.

The GHS orchestra and those from Lindley, Kiser, and Jackson Junior Highs will perform in an evening concert March 22. The concert will be in the Senior High auditorium.

William Alton will be the solo pianist in the concert of the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra in Aycock Auditorium, March 25.

The GHS orchestra performed for a student body assembly March 15. They played "Spigina in Oulis," an overture by Gluck; selections from the Broadway show "Brigadoon" by Loewe; "Ode to Rhythm" by Walters; and "Boston Fancy" and "Arkansas Traveler", folk tunes.

Mr. Harriman directed the United States Navy Band in a special number during a concert in Memorial Hall at the University of North Carolina. The proceeds of this concert went to the James Michael Barham Scholarship.

The Senior High orchestra plans a trip to Chapel Hill, April 1, to play for the Phi Mu Alpha fraternity of America. The Alpha Rho chapter will sponsor the performance, to be given in the Chapel Hill Music Hall.

Three Students Take District Art Awards

Cynthia Brown and Joseph Perkinson, and Roger Rich were presented art awards for the district and local high school contests sponsored by the Greensboro Women's Club.

Cynthia at Greensboro Senior High School was the winner in the local contests and Joseph Perkinson were presented silver cups 9th-11th grade division.

Roger Rich was winner in the District 7 contest and is a student of Ragsdale High School.

Cynthia Brown, Joseph Perkinson at GHS was winner in the and Roger Rich was awarded $5.00 and a chance to compete for the state honors, March 12-16. The state honors contest will be held at Weatherspoon Gallery at Woman's College

Three Hundred Attend Annual Bosses' Dinner

Approximately 300 people were present at the 19th Annual Employer-Employee Banquet given by the Cooperative Office Practice Classes, Distributive Education Classes, and the Industrial Cooperative Training Classes held recently at the Masonic Temple.

Wayne Lee, master of ceremonies, opened the banquet by welcoming all of the students and their employers. Invocations were then given by June Shoffner, Carol Wray, and Tommie Douglas. After the meal, Wayne stated the purpose of the banquet as being, "A Brighter Future—Thanks to you."

Dr. Gerald James, Director of the North Carolina State Department of Public Instruction, was the speaker of the evening and was introduced by Mr. A. P. Routh. After the address, the students of the Cooperative Departments entertained the guests with their own original tunes. A "Welcome Medley" was sung by Sandra Davis, Anita Henkel, and Sylvia Simpson. Tommy Smith then gave a comic sketch entitled "Ain't Got No Talent."

Sandra Parker, chairman of ver, Shirley Pecclen and Pat Per-

Continued on Page Six

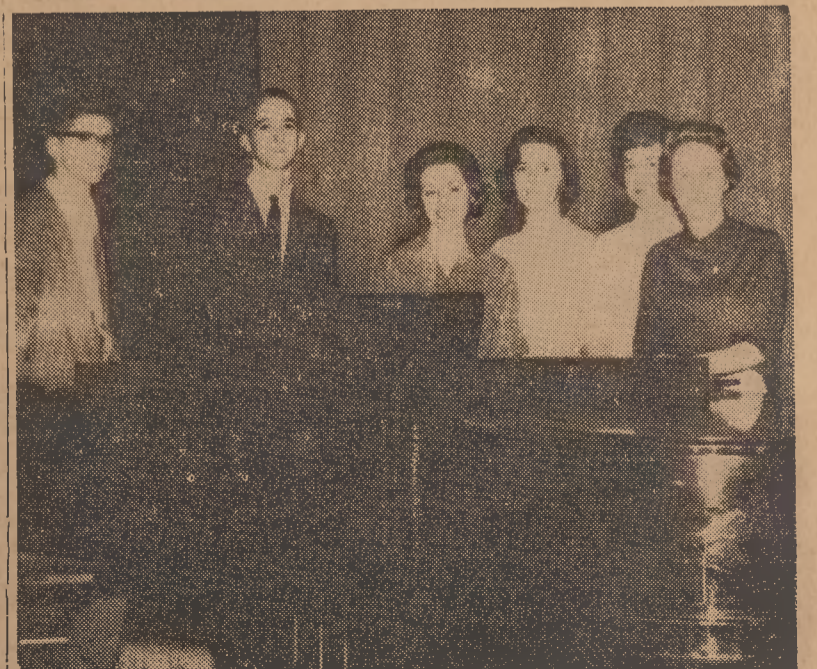

Librarians Shelve John Brown's Body

John Brown's Body by Stephen Vincent Benet; Tales, Edgar Allan Poe; and Kidnapped, Robert Lewis Stevenson head the list of new books recently added to the Greensboro Senior High School Library.

Other additions include Energy and Power by Robert Irving; Faster and Faster, Raymond F. Yates; Famous Fighters of the Second World War, William Green; Submarines, Herbert S. Zim; and Three Passports to Adventure, Hal and Halla Linker.

Also on the list are Marie Antoinette, Marguerite Vance; Fifty Years with the Golden Rule, J. C. Penney; Moon and Mutiny, Lester del Rey; Johnny Osage, Janice Holt Giles; and Pirate Queen, Edith Patterson Meyer.

Finishing Touches, Candy Jones; The Nun's Story, Kathryn Hulme; The Human Comedy, William Saroyan; The Secret of the Kingdom, Nika Waltari; and Message to Hadrian by Geoffrey Trease complete the list.

Student members of Class Day pictured above, left to right, are Chip Crumly, Dick Tontz, Sandar Parker, (chairman), and Barbara Barney. Faculty advisors pictured above are Mrs. Evelyn Stanton and Mrs. Mary Madlin.